

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Oct 17, 1901 Heavy snow storm; ground not frozen

Fri 18 A.M. ground covered with snow. Fine day, snow all gone.

Sat 19 A.M. Snowing. Towards night, raining.

Sun 20 A.M. sunshine and clouds. P.M., cloudy.

Mon 21 A.M. visiting. P.M. Dark and cloudy.

Tues 22 A.M. still dreary with light showers.

Wed 23 A.M. clouds and sunshine. HH & NB plowing. Quilting Bee.

Thu 24 Cloudy & cold. Dreary wind, north.

Fri 25 Very cold wind. PM pleasanter; to Mrs C's knitting bee.

Sat 26 Pleasant for time of year. Beach knitting.

Sun 27 Somewhat cloudy. Rev Rice preached in school.

Mon 28 Very fine. HH got quarter beef from Chas V.

Tues 29 Still fine. HH working in mill. Called on Mrs GM.

Wed 30 Very fine. Gets cloudy. Called on Mrs Peck.

Thu 31 Beautiful weather for time of year.

Nov 1 Fine in morning; rain in evening.

Sat 2 Cleared off fine. HH finished working in mill

Sun 3 Fine. A good attendance in SS

Mon 4 A beautiful day. HH butchering hogs.

Tue 5 Cloudy in morning. HH butchering hogs.

Wed 6 Fine, with high winds. HH hauling S.D. for banking.

Thu 7 Fine and cold. Banking and cutting up hogs.

Fri 8 Cloudy & warm

Sat 9 Sunshine & clouds. Light rain at night.

Sun 10 High winds, snowflurries. very cold.

Mon 11 Bright, but very cold. Commenced snowing.

Tue 12 Fine. Carrie Boone died last night at 11 o'clock.

Wed 13 Snow 2" deep. Carrie buried. Soft snow all day.

Thu 14 Still snowing.

Fri 15 Beautiful warm day, wind south.

Sat 16 Fine. Went to Forest City. J.W. came from ??

Sun 17 I was at SS at Forest City. Sermon by Rev Rice from Ezekiel 37:3.

Mon 18 Cloudy and not too cold. J Mc<sup>1</sup> set monument in graveyard.

Tue 19 Cold with snow squalls.

Wed 20 Still dark and cloudy.

Thu 21 Clears off fine & cold.

---

<sup>1</sup>Unknown McMinn

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 22 AM fine, PM cloudy and warmer.

Sat 23 Snowed a little in night.

Sun 24 Clear and cold. PM clouds up.

Mon 25 Snows all day. Snow about 7" deep.

Tue 26 Light snow and cloudy all day.

Wed 27 Windy and cold with snow squalls.

Thu 28 Still dark and dreary

Fri 29 Came home from F. City. George V(eysey) sick.

Sat 30 A beautiful day. Snow 9" deep.

Dec 1 Cloudy & warm.

Mon 2 Fine.

Tue 3 Lovely winter day. Put up stove in (livingroom)

Wed 4 A wild snowstorm and perfect.....

Thu 5 A beautiful day. Rev Flewelling to dinner.

Fri 6 Bright & fine, but cold. HH helping JLF<sup>2</sup> saw wood

Sat 7 AM fine. PM cloudy. HH hauling wood for G Mc<sup>3</sup>

Sun 8 Cloudy & bad roads. Rev Rice preached today.

Mon 9 Cloudy yet with South wind. PM raining.

Tue 10 AM raining, wind NE.

---

<sup>2</sup>John Little Foster

<sup>3</sup>George McMinn

Sawing wood.

Wed 11 Cleared off fine. Finished sawing wood.

Thu 12 Very fine & warm. Butchered cow.

Fri 13 AM cloudy. Commenced to rain in PM

Sat 14 Still thawing. PM clears off fine.

Sun 15 Heavy S wind all night. Cloudy with high wind this morning. Snow nearly all gone in fields. PM foggy with ind and rain.

Mon 16 Wind changed last night to the north. About 1" snow this morning, but clear and cold with a strong N gale.

Tue 17 Clear and cold. Rev J McLeod to tea.

Wed 18 Clear north wind and cloudy.

Thu 19 Fine and bright. Stayed with Sophia<sup>4</sup> last night.

Fri 20 Fine and cold all day. At school, examinations.

Sat 21 A fine cold day.

Sun 22 Very cold and clear. No SS today, preaching.

Mon 23 Fine and some warmer wind SW

Tue 24 Heavy rain all day. Wind SE

Wed 25 Snowed a little in the night and turned cold, but a bright Christmas day.

Thu 26 A lovely winter's day. Down to Maud's.

Fri 27 A quiet snowstorm all day.

---

<sup>4</sup>Sophia Veysey

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 28 Bright and fine. About 4-5" of snow. Sun 29 Snowing. PM, rain all afternoon. Mon 30 Light snow all day and warm. Tue 31 Fine and bright. Not too cold. Jan 1, 1902 Clear. Very cold and windy. Thu 2 AM. Fine and warmer. PM Cloudy Fri 3 AM. Snow squalls. Clears off. Sat 4 Clear and cold. HH to Canterbury Station for Chas. Sun 5 Cold with snow squalls. No meeting. Mon 6 A beautiful winter day. Tue 7 Cold and somewhat hazy. Wed 8 Cloudy and warmer. PM. Light snow. Thu 9 AM. Cloudy and warm. HH took first load into camps for Charles. Fri 10 Cloudy and warm yet. HH commenced hauling hay from H(ugh) McMinn's. Sat 11 The sun rises beautiful this morning. HH was away with a load of hay to Charles' camp before I was up out of bed. Sun 12 Snowing when I got up in the morning and snowed all day till night. Mon 13 Clears off fine. HH to camp with load oats. Tue 14 Fine and cold. Brought home the scalers.	Wed 15 Fine. PM; Cloudy. HH took scales up to the Lake. Thu 16 Fine and warm. HH to camp with load of hay. Fri 17 Clear and cold. HH to McMinn's for load oats. Sat 18 HH to camp with oats. Sun 19 Very cold wind NW. Service by Rev Rice. Mon 20 Still cold. HH gone to F'ton to council. Tue 21 Some warmer and cloudy; wind SE. Wed 22 Rain with heavy wind from South. Thu 23 AM; foggy with rain showers. Fri 24 Fine and not too cold. Snow nearly all gone. Sat 25 Clear and fine for time of year. (No mail) Sun 26 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. Mon 27 AM; raining. PM; rains until 2:30, clears at 4 o'clock. Tue 28 AM; very cold with high wind. Mail arrived at 1 am. Wed 29 Still very cold and high wind. If there was snow on the ground it would be a wild day. Thu 30 Wind blowing and very cold. Scalers here tonight. Fri 31 Clear and bright; not so cold as it has been for the past three days. Geo. McNelly went home from Charles' camp. Chas sick and not in the woods this week.
---	--

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Feb 1 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. At Chas' today.

Sun 2 AM; snowing. PM; a wild storm. Wind SE.

Mon 3 Strong wind and sunshine. 14 to 15 inch snowfall.

Tue 4 Fine and bright. Mail arrived at 11 o'clock, am.

Wed 5 AM; partly cloudy. Wind N. PM; clear.

Thu 6 AM; cold with snow squalls. PM; cold and cloudy.

Fri 7 AM; a lovely bright morning, a little snow at night.

Sat 8 Yet snowing a little. About 3 or 4 inches fell, wind, NW, and a light snow has continued to fall all day.

Sun 9 AM; cloudy & warm. PM; a very light snow falling.

Mon 10 Clouds and sunshine. Very mild.

Tue 11 AM; bright and fine. PM; fine and warm.

Wed 12 A beautiful winter's day. Circle at Peter Lutz's.

Thu 13 AM; snowing. PM; snow squalls with high wind.

Fri 14 Fine and not too cold. Wind NW.

Sat 15 Fine and very cold.

Sun 16 A beautiful clear day; quite warm. Elder Rice preached today.

Mon 17 Cloudy all day, high wind and snow at night.

Tue 18 There was quite a snowfall in the night. This morning is cloudy and soft. AM; a very light snow.

Wed 19 Still cloudy with light snow squalls. Very bad roads.

Thu 20 A beautiful day. Mail around 10 o'clock.

Fri 21 Still fine and quite warm.

Sat 22 A lovely day.

Sun 23 AM; fine and cold. PM; grows warmer. Had a good attendance at Sabbath School. BJ Clare's baby Annie died at 1 o'clock in the night.

Mon 24 A beautiful day. Amanda's baby buried today. Funeral service preached by Rev Rice in school house.

Tue 25 A beautiful day. Went home with Albert.

Wed 26 AM; cloudy and soft. PM; fine. Circle at Mrs Peck's.

Thu 27 Am; cloudy. PM; clouds and sunshine. Mrs D. Cropley and Mrs D Bartlett here to make us a visit.

Fri 28 Cloudy all day. Wind ESE.

Mar 1 A little rain in the early morning. Very high wind. 10 o'clock veers around to SW. PM; sunshine part of the time. 4 o'clock wind comes back to SE. 8:30, heavy rain squalls. S wind.

Sun 2 Still foggy and warm. PM; rains all afternoon today.

Mon 3 Cleared off in the night and is bright and cold today.

Tue 4 AM; very fine and warm; wind NW

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 5 Fine till 3 o'clock then clouds up.
Light snow in evening.

Thu 6 About 1 foot of snow fell in night.
Clear this morning with a strong cold NE wind. PM; clear, wind not so heavy. No mail.

Fri 7 Clear and cold. Good weather for the lumbermen.

Sat 8 Very fine. Hauling on the lake good.

Sun 9 AM; cloudy, wind SE. PM; still cloudy.

Mon 10 Snowed 2 or 3 inches in the night and still snowing. PM; clears off, wind N.

Tue 11 Cloudy and warm.

Wed 12 Cloudy. Light rain at night.

Thu 13 Cloudy with rain by 9:30. Wind changed to NW.

Fri 14 Fine. Eva starts for Kings County to see her sick mother. PM; Gladys Rollins died at 1 o'clock p.m. on Wednesday.

Sat 15 A fine spring day. Snow mostly gone.

Sun 16 AM; cloudy and windy. Roads in very bad condition.

Mon 17 Raining. Wind S

Tue 18 Snowing with rain in the evening.

Wed 19 Still raining; a very rainy day.

Thu 20 Steady rain. Snow all gone.

Fri 21 Clears off. HH goes to Danforth Station for wife. PM; clouds up again with occasional glimpses of the sun.

Sat 22 Cloudy. Clouds grow thinner, sun comes out and is fine.

Sun 23 Fine and a little cooler.

Mon 24 Snowing lightly all day.

Tue 25 Fine and bright.

Wed 26 A lovely day but dreadfully bad roads.

Thu 27 A springlike day. HH to Forest
City.

Fri 28 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.

Sat 29 Heavy rain all day.

Sun 30 Still raining. A dull Easter Sunday.

Mon 31 Heavy clouds and foggy. In the evening a meeting was held in the church building for the purpose of appointing a committee and other business concerning the finishing the building. Continuous rain all afternoon and evening.

Apr 1 Thin clouds with appearance of clearing off. PM; a fine afternoon.

Wed 2 Clouds and sunshine; snow squalls.

Thu 3 Clear and cooler. I am 65 years old today. PM; clouds up again & is cold and raw.

Fri 4 Fine and cold. Out to see the sick
today.

Sat 5 Clear and bright. Cessors<sup>5</sup> here
today.

Sun 6 A beautiful day.

Mon 7 Fine and warm. Roads getting very good.

---

<sup>5</sup>Property tax assessors

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 8 A very fine day. Clouds up at night.

Wed 9 Cloudy with heavy NE wind. Rain in evening.

Thu 10 A light covering of snow on the ground this morning but it is raining now, 9 a.m. PM; snowing now. Amanda Clare's little Howard buried this p.m. Service in school house, attended by Rev Rice, Text 2 Sam, 12:23.

Fri 11 AM; snow 4 or 5 inches deep and still snowing. PM; light snow all day.

Sat 12 AM; cloudy. 10, light snow, snowing.

Sun 13 AM; light snow. PM; cloudy. 5:45 p.m., rain showers.

Mon 14 Sunshine, clouds and showers. Snow all gone.

Tue 15 Clear and cold with NW wind.

Wed 16 Fine, quite cold. HH continues in mill.

Thu 17 A beautiful spring day. Ice breaking up in lake.

Fri 18 Fine and warm.

Sat 19 Sunshine and snowsqualls. Ice left lake.

Sun 20 Clouds and sunshine.

Mon 21 Quite a snow storm. 8 a.m. raining. PM; clearing.

Tue 22 Light snow all forenoon; rain in afternoon.

Wed 23 Still cloudy and thick fog all day.

Thu 24 Bright and fine with cold NW wind.

Fri 25 Fine and cold for time of year. Roy married today at Canterbury.

Sat 26 Cold and cloudy. PM; rain. Thunder shower in evening.

Sun 27 Raining. No church today.

Mon 28 Fine with high cold wind.

Tue 29 A real summer day. HH home from the mill for farming.

Wed 30 Cloudy with SW gales.

May 1 Rainy day with east wind.

Fri 2 Cloudy and cold, wind NE. PM; clears off.

Sat 3 AM; cloudy. PM; fine. Assessors leave.

Sun 4 Fine, rather cool. Begins to cloud up in PM.

Mon 5 Cloudy with mist. Clouds break away near night.

Tue 6 Clear with rather a cold wind. HH took Maud to Danforth for impression for teeth.

Wed 7 Cloudy NE wind. Rain all afternoon.

Thu 8 Clear but cold for time of year. N.B. ploughing.<sup>6</sup> HH not well. Showers in PM.

Fri 9 AM; raining. Heavy thunder shower with hail at noon.

Sat 10 Cloudy and very cold. Snow squall in night.

---

<sup>6</sup>Presumably she means "N.B." is ploughing for crops. Who is N.B.?

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 11 Ground frozen quite hard. Clear and very cold.

Mon 12 AM; fine and cold. Pm; a little warmer.

Tue 13 Clear high cold wind.

Wed 14 Bright and cold. Charles V's family moved to Fosterville.

Thu 15 Fine and a little warmer in afternoon.

Fri 16 Clouds and sunshine. Wind SSW

Sat 17 Clear cold. Wind NNW, strong gales all day.

Sun 18 Still cold.

Mon 19 Fine and a little warmer. Showers in evening.

Tue 20 Clear with high wind. 2 p.m., showers.

Wed 21 Very cold and windy.

Thu 22 Cloudy & warmer. Smokey to Forest City.

Fri 23 Thunder showers in earl morning. Clears fine and warm.

Sat 24 Cloudy and warm with frequent light showers.

Sun 25 AM; showery. PM; fine. Rev Flewelling held service today.

Mon 26 Raining, dark and frequent showers all day.

Tue 27 Cloudy. PM; heavy rain. Went to Chas'.

Wed 28 Cloudy with very cold rain.

Thu 29 Cold, high wind and rain.

Fri 30 Sunshine and showers. Still cold.

Sat 31 Clear and cold. Came home from chas'.

Jun 1 Fine and warmer. A pleasant day.

Mon 2 Very light showers; heavy thunder shower.

Tue 3 Cloudy. Rain in PM.

Wed 4 Heavy rain all day. Very cold.

Thu 5 Clear and somewhat warmer.

Fri 6 Frost last night, but fine and cold this morning.

Sat 7 Fine, not very warm, high wind. Planting potatoes.

Sun 8 Cloudy. Heavy rain from 3 p.m. until night.

Mon 9 Cloudy and sunshine. PM; clear.

Tue 10 Cloudy, wind S; heavy shower at night.

Wed 11 Fine but rather cold. Begins to cloud up.

Thu 12 Raining again. Dreadful weather for putting in crop.

Fri 13 Steady day's rain. No garden in yet.

Sat 14 Clear and cold.

Sun 15 Cloudy. PM; sunshine part of the time.

Mon 16 Still cloudy. Wind SE. Showers in evening. Put in beans.

Tue 17 Bright and a little warmer. Wind squalls.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 18 Clear and cold N wind. Put in garden.

Thu 19 Fine and warm. PM; clouds up again.

Fri 20 Clear. George Inch's store and contents burned in night.<sup>7</sup>

Sat 21 Cloudy with rain in PM.

Sun 22 Still raining with high wind.

Mon 23 Clears off but cold.

Tue 24 Fine and warmer with showers in afternoon.

Wed 25 Fine and warmer. E. Witcomb came home on business.

Thu 26 Cloudy. 10 a.m. rain rest of day.

Fri 27 Sunshine and showers.

Sat 28 Cloudy part of the time.

Sun 29 Fine and quite warm in afternoon.

Mon 30 A very pleasant day. HH gone to F<sup>r</sup>ton. Left yesterday.

Jul 1 Raining again. PM; cloudy with showers.

Wed 2 A fine summer day.

Thu 3 AM; fine with S wind. PM; raining.

Fri 4 Cleared off fine in night. Very cold for season.

Sat 5 A beautiful day.

Sun 6 A nice summer's day. Rev W.H. Rice held service in Church for first time tonight.

---

<sup>7</sup>Merchant in Forest City.

Mon 7 AM; clear. PM; getting cloudy. Rain in night.

Tue 8 Another fine day. HH working in mill.

Wed 9 Very hot. PM; getting cloudy.

Thu 10 Rain in morning. PM clears off fine.

Fri 11 A fine day, but quite cool.

Sat 12 Fine, picknic and circle sale for church.

Sun 13 A beautiful day.

Mon 14 Fine and warm. HH working in mill.

Tue 15 Thunder shower in early morning. P.L.<sup>8</sup> hoeing potatoes. Thunder showers again in afternoon.

Wed 16 Sunshine and clouds. PM; showers.

Thu 17 Cloudy with glimpses of sun. PM; rain.

Fri 18 AM; cloudy. Left home today to make a visit in Kings Co., and returned today, Aug 16th. Had a very pleasant visit and met with many of my old friends whom I was much pleased to see.

Sun, Aug 17th Fine. Service held in church by Rev Dunfield who filled the appointment for Rev Rice

Mon 18 Cloudy and cold. Very bad haying weather

Tue 19 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; showery.

Wed 20 A beautiful cool day. At circle. Showers in evening.

---

<sup>8</sup>Peter Lutz.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| Thu 21 AM; fine. Showers in afternoon.  | Fri 5 AM; cloudy. PM; fine. Pie social at church.  |
| Fri 22 Cloudy and showery. Eva and I down to Maud's.  | Sat 6 Fine and clear. Geo. Boone and family on a visit.  |
| Sat 23 Very dark and cloudy. Heavy rain all afternoon.  | Sun 7 Cloudy and cold. PM; rain.   |
| Sun 24 Rained mostly all night, and still cloudy, rain.   | Mon 8 Fine. Geo Boone & family goes home today.  |
| Mon 25 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.  | Tues 9 A fine day. Geo Till's baby boy buried today.   |
| Tue 26 Very foggy in AM, clears off fine about noon. Thunder shower at 5 p.m. with destructive hail in places.                        | Wed 10 AM; wind and heavy rain. Jameson, sheep buying, storm stayed here. Clears up towards night. |
| Wed 27 A beautiful summer day. Circle at the church.  | Thu 11 Fine and cool. Five pigs born today.  |
| Thu 28 Fine and warm. P.L. got circle money to go to Woodstock for flooring boards and for church.                                    | Fri 12 A fine day. Hauled in four loads of oats.   |
| Fri 29 Very pleasant day. Grain ripening fast.  | Sat 13 Cloudy in early morning. Clears off and clouds up again.                                    |
| Sat 30 A very hot day. HH has been in mill for last two days.   | Sun 14 Rain in early morning. Clears of at 9 o'clock a.m.  |
| Sun 31 Fine day. Elder Flewelling preached in evening from the words, Keep the Commandments.  | Mon 15 Fine and cool. Mail comes at 7 o'clock, p.m.  |
| Sep 1 Cloudy in morning but clears off toward noon. HH gone to mill again this morning. A heavy thunder shower in the evening. | Tues 16 Fine to work in harvesting.  |
| Tue 2 AM; fine. Rain squall at 1 p.m. PM; fine  | Wed 17 A lovely day. Men cutting wheat.  |
| Wed 3 A fine day, a little cooler. Commenced mowing oats and to mill for load of wood.  | Thu 18 A fine day. Cutting wheat and hauling in oats.  |
| Thu 4 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. PM; rain with high wind. HH to Forest City.   | Fri 19 AM; cloudy. PM; rain. SS convention.  |
|   | Sat 20 AM; raining. PM; showery.   |
|   | Sun 21 Fine and bright. PM; went to Forest City, heard Rev Young preach in evening.                |
|   | Mon 22 Cloudy and dreary all day.  |

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 23 Cloudy and cold. Showers in evening.

Wed 24 Clear with very cold high wind. Came home from F. City with HH.

Thu 25 Clear and very cold. Frost last night, the first here this fall.

Fri 26 Fine and warm. HH finished harvesting.

Sat 27 Cloudy. Wind SE.

Sun 28 Mild rain all day.

Mon 29 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.

Tue 30 Cloudy. HH goes to mill to work today.

Oct 1 AM; raining. Edgar Cropley and Althea Kinney married.

Thu 2 Clouds and sunshine.

Fri 3 Clear and cool.

Sat 4 Fine with a cold N wind.

Sun 5 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Mon 6 A steady day's rain.

Tue 7 Fine. Men of the place preparing to set posts for the graveyard fence. Self out to Chas'.

Wed 8 AM; showers of rain. Clears off, light showers in afternoon. Setting posts for graveyard fence.

Thu 9 AM; a light snow squall. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Fri 10 Fine and very cold. A heavy frost last night that killed all our flowers that grew in the open. Took tea with Mrs Peck today.

Sat 11 A lovely forenoon. Clouds up near night.

Sun 12 Fine and cold. Elder Rice hods service in the church. Text: the single word, Peace.

Mon 13 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; clouds and high winds. HH digging potatoes, very poor turnout.

Tue 14 Fine with high winds. At Mrs Boone's this afternoon.<sup>9</sup>

Wed 15 Fine. Rather cold high wind. Finished digging potatoes.

Thu 16 Clouds and sunshine with cold high wind. Gathered apples today.

Fri 17 A beautiful day, but cold. To F. City with Albert V.

Sat 18 Fine and cold.

Sun 19 Rain in the early morning, cloudy with some sunshine until evening and then rain again. HH & I were out to Fosterville to church service by Rev Flemmington, Text Ps 50:14-15.

Mon 20 Heavy thunder shower in night and one again between 4 & 5 o'clock this morning after which it cleared off fine and warm.

Tue 21 Cold with high NW wind. HH to work in mill.

Wed 22 AM; bright and cold. PM; cloudy with cold wind.

Thu 23 A fine cold morning. Mrs Leo Maxwell buried today.

Fri 24 Cold high wind and squally.

Sat 25 Rain in early morning, clears off cold and windy.

---

<sup>9</sup>Likely Leonora Boone who lived just up the road.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 26 Bright and cold. PM; clouds up.
Rev Rice preached farewell.

Mon 27 Cloudy with frequent showers.

Tue 28 A steady warm ran, very heavy wind all day.

Wed 29 AM; clear and mild. PM; squally.

Thu 30 A fine cold day. HH working in mill yesterday and today.

Fri 31 Cloudy and warm. PM; thunder shower. HH finished in mill for this fall.

Nov 1 A lovely day for the time of year.

Sun 2 Very fine. Not at SS today; Maud here.

Mon 3 Dark and Drizzly. PM; cloudy.
HH & NB ploughing.

Tue 4 Still dark and cloudy in AM. PM; clears off, a beautiful afternoon.

Wed 5 A beautiful day.

Thu 6 Very foggy and damp this morning. Cloudy.

Fri 7 A beautiful day. W. Boone's baby very sick.

Sat 8 Fine and cold. HH and E to Danforth. NB banking kitchen.

Sun 9 Love day for time of year.

Mon 10 AM; bright. Noon, clouds up.
PM; finished ploughing.

Tue 11 A bright cold day. Freezing hard.
HH preparing for threshing.

Wed 12 Snowing, turns to rain at noon.
PM; turns cold with about 3 inches of snow on ground. Put up hall stove.

Thu 13 Clear and cold. HH threshing today. Snow and hail in evening.

Fri 14 A little rain in early morning, cloudy and mild. Very warm for time of year. HH finished threshing.

Sat 15 Very cloudy all day. HH to mill for load of wood.

Sun 16 Clear in early morning. 9 a.m.
clouds up again, clear again in evening.
Warm for time of year.

Mon 17 Cloudy and colder. HH hauling sawdust for banking. Clear at night.

Tue 18 AM; a lovely morning. Went to Chas V's.

Wed 19 Cloudy and rain.

Thu 20 Clouds and sunshine. HH butchered pig. Came home.

Fri 21 Cloudy PM. Hauling wood. NB leaves.

Sat 22 Lovely morning. PM; cloudy, light rain.

Sun 23 Cleared off fine with cold wind.

Mon 24 Cloudy with light snow squalls.

Tue 25 AM; fine and warm. Gets cloudy towards night. Went down to Maud's this morning.

Wed 26 Cloudy. Snow in afternoon and evening.

Thu 27 2 or 3 inches of snow on ground this morning. PM; soft and drizzly. Rain at night.

Fri 28 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; clears off colder.

Sat 29 Some rain in night but clears off fine, lovely.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 30 A beautiful day. Dec 1 Fine and warm. Tue 2 A very fine day for time of year. Wed 3 AM; cloudy. PM; light snow. Thu 4 About 4 inches of snow fell today. Cloudy. Fri 5 AM; cloudy. PM; a very cold snow storm. Sat 6 Clear with a very cold north wind. Sun 7 Clear and very cold. Snow squalls in evening. Mon 8 Clear, windy and very cold. Tue 9 High wind and severely cold. Wed 10 Cloudy and not quite so cold. PM; snow. Thu 11 Clear and cold. Fri 12 Still very cold. Came home from Maud's this PM. Sat 13 A very cold day. HH got up fire wood while I was gone. Sun 14 Fine and a little warmer. Mon 15 A very fine winter's day. Tue 16 AM; light snow. PM; rainy afternoon and evening. Wed 17 AM; cloudy and warm. PM; snow squalls. Thu 18 AM; cloudy with snow squalls. PM; fine and warm. Fri 19 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; snow.	Sat 20 AM; fine. PM; nice winter day. HH to mill with wheat. Sun 21 AM; fine. PM; clouds up in evening with soft snow and hail. Mon 22 Heavy rain in early morning. Rain ceased at 10 a.m., at noon it clears up and is fine, but clouds up again near night. Dreadfully muddy. Tue 23 A lovely winter's day. HH saws wood today. Wed 24 Clear and cold. Thu 25 AM; a lovely morning. Clouds up toward night. Our whole family took dinner at Charles Veysey's this Christmas day. Fri 26 A wild snowstorm. PM; cloudy with high winds. Sat 27 A soft snow all day. Sun 28 Cloudy and soft. Mon 29 AM; a fine morning but clouds up in afternoon and snow in evening. Tue 30 Clear and warm. HH butchers cow today. Wed 31 A very fine day. Getting colder toward night. Thu Jan 1, 1903 A lovely winter's day. Fri Jan 2, 1903 Cloudy and soft. HH hauling wood for Charles V. Sat 3 Has snowed all day. Sun 4 Cloudy and warm. Mon 5 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. HH begins to truck for Chas Veysey. Tue 6 AM; very fine. PM; clouds up, evening, snow.
---	---

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 7 Another fine day. About an inch of snow fell last night. Mrs P. Lutz son born.

Thu 8 Light snow all day.

Fri 9 Clear and cold.

Sat 10 Fine winter day. HH came home sick.

Sun 11 AM; fine. PM; clouds up, evening snow.

Mon 12 Clear and cold. HH quite sick.

Tue 13 Clear and very cold. HH very sick.

Wed 14 Clear and a little warmer.

Thu 15 Cloudy and sunshine, warmer.

Fri 16 A lovely day. At Mrs Wilson's knitting bee.

Sat 17 AM; snow. PM; cloudy with snow squalls.

Sun 18 Clear and very cold. HH starts for F'ton.

Mon 19 Bright, but severely cold.

Tue 20 Fine and a little warmer. Clouds at night.

Wed 21 Snow till noon, then turns to rain; heavy rain all afternoon.

Thu 22 Clouds and squally in morning. At noon, clears off and is a fine afternoon & quite warm.

Fri 23 Squally all day. HH brought GHK home with him from F'ton on a visit. Quilting at Mrs P Lutz.

Sat 24 Clear and cold.

Sun 25 Still cold. Rev JE Flewelling preached in church.

Mon 26 A lovely winter's day.

Tue 27 Cloudy.

Wed 28 Am: light snow. PM; hail and rain.

Thu 29 Cloudy and warm.

Fri 30 AM; drizzling rain, freezing as it comes. PM; rain.

Sat 31 High wind and cold with snow squalls.

Feb 1 A very fine day for time of year.

Mon 2 Light snow all day and through the night.

Tue 3 Still snowing lightly. About 5 or 6 inches fell.

Wed 4 Light snow until evening when a heavy mist comes and freezes as it comes. Heavy rain in night.

Thu 5 Snow squalls and sunshine all day.

Fri 6 Clear with occasional snow squalls.

Sat 7 Clear with cold wind.

Sun 8 A fine day. Geo and Maud Boone here.

Mon 9 A light snow all day. Mail did not get in tonight.

Tue 10 Fine and warmer. Mail arrived 10 minutes past 12 o'clock noon. Roads in bad condition.

Wed 11 Very bright, but clouds up at noon.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 12 AM; rain. PM; clouds with occasional showers.

Fri 13 A beautiful day.

Sat 14 A lovely winter day.

Sun 15 Clear and cold.

Mon 16 Light snow. PM; cloudy with glimpses of sun.

Tue 17 AM; heavy snow. PM; clears off.

Wed 18 A fine cold day.

Thu 19 Fine and very cold. Mr Boone working at seats in church.<sup>10</sup>

Fri 20 Still very cold.

Sat 21 Clear and a little warmer. Clouds up.

Sun 22 AM; fine and warmer. PM; Squally. Elder Flewelling preached this morning from Luke 8:23.

Mon 23 Fine and pleasant.

Tue 24 A beautiful day. Geo Gould and wife took tea here tonight.

Wed 25 A very fine day.

Thu 26 Fine and warm. Roads in good condition.

Fri 27 A beautiful day. HH and GK<sup>11</sup> to Danforth.

Sat 28 AM; heavy rain. Provincial election today. It has been a day's steady rain.

---

<sup>10</sup>Alex Boone

<sup>11</sup>GK is probably a George Kierstead, father of Eva, Hiram's wife

Mar 1 We had a very heavy blizzard in the night. This morning is clear and warm with high wind all day.

Mon 2 Sunshine, clouds and colder.

Tue 3 Fine and cold. School commences today.

Wed 4 Sunshine and clouds. Circle quilted here today.

Thu 5 A lovely morning, clouds up and snows near night.

Fri 6 About 3 inches snow fell during the night. Squally in the morning, clears off with a drifting wind.

Sat 7 A lovely morning, continues fine all day.

Sun 8 A continuous rain all day. No SS today.

Mon 9 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; clear with NE wind.

Tue 10 Raining again. Rain and cold all day.

Wed 11 Another day's steady rain.

Thu 12 A beautiful warm day. Roads in bad condition.

Fri 13 A real spring day. Snow going fast.

Sat 14 Very warm and beautiful.

Sun 15 Fine, but not quite so warm.

Mon 16 Still fine. First carriage on road today.

Tue 17 A cold rain, freezing. PM; a little warmer.

Wed 18 A beautiful warm day. Circle at Mrs P Lutz.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 19 A rainy dreary morning again. Snow nearly all gone. PM; clears off fine and warm.

Fri 20 Some rain in the night and foggy with the appearance of rain this morning. PM; colder.

Sat 21 Drizzly with light rain and heavy rain in evening.

Sun 22 Cloudy but clears up by noon. PM cloudy again.

Mon 23 Cloudy with heavy rain.

Tue 24 Very dark and heavy.

Wed 25 Sunshine and squalls.

Thu 26 Sunshine with clouds and fresh breeze.

Fri 27 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off. Chas. commenced driving logs.

Sat 28 A beautiful morning. PM; clouds up again.

Sun 29 About an inch of snow fell during the night, but is a fine cold day.

Mon 30 A very fine day. Out to Chas. with HHV.

Tue 31 Cold rain all day.

Apr 1 Clear and cold.

Thu 2 Fine and cold. Quilting and Mat hooking here today.

Fri 3 Dark and rainy all day. I am 66 years old today.

Sat 4 Rain. 4 p.m. commences to snow.

Sun 5 About 2 inches of snow and hail on ground. Still cold with high wind but fine.

Mon 6 Fine. GHK starts for home this morning. Wm Boone's little Johnnie died about 10 a.m. this morning.

Tues 7 AM; very cloudy. PM; snow, hail & sleet. Heavy rain at night.

Wed 8 A beautiful day. Johnnie Boone buried. Rain in evening.

Thu 9 Clouds and sunshine, but soft and warm.

Fri 10 AM; fine. PM; partly cloudy. Dreadfully bad roads.

Sat 11 Colder with snow squalls. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Sun 12 Clear with cold high wind. Clouds up at night.

Mon 13 AM; very cloudy and cold. PM; gets fine and warmer.

Tue 14 Clear with cold NE wind.

Wed 15 Clear and cold. Clouds up near night.

Thu 16 Cloudy. A dreary day.

Fri 17 Snowing. Snow. Snow.

Sat 18 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.

Sun 19 Clear and cold. Miss Evans here. Bad roads.

Mon 20 Clear and cold. HH gone to mill this morning. Could not test boiler for want of packing.

Tue 21 AM; clear and cold, soon grows warmer.

Thu 23 Am; fine and warm. PM; clouds up. Ice breaking up.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 24 Cloudy but warm. Light showers at night.

Sat 25 Cold and windy. Ice gone out of lake.

Sun 26 Clear and cold. PM gets a little warmer.

Mon 27 Fine but quite cold. HH commenced work in mill on Friday, the 24th in the afternoon.

Tue 28 A lovely day.

Wed 29 Fine with high wind in afternoon.

Thu 30 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off with high wind. Dora Veysey and Fred Wood married today.

May 1 Cloudy, very high wind. PM; clears off; ploughing.

Sat 2 Hard frost last night but fine today.

Sun 3 Clear. Very cold with high wind. At Fosterville with HH and Lizzie to service. Rev Flewelling preached from Gal 6:9.

Mon 4 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. Light showers in evening. Fencing.

Tue 5 AM; mild cold rain. PM; cloudy.

Wed 6 Cold and dreary with a little sunshine at noon. Cloudy again.

Thu 7 A perfect day. HH sowed his wheat, 4 1/4 bushel.

Fri 8 Another lovely day, not quite so warm as yesterday.

Sat 9 A fine cool day. HH planting a few early potatoes.

Sun 10 A beautiful day.

Mon 11 Fine and warm. Getting very dry.

Tue 12 Fine. Forest fires raging badly. HH sowed oats.

Wed 13 Fine with high S wind. Clouds up at night.

Thu 14 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; light rain showers.

Fri 15 AM; foggy. I go to Maud's today for a visit. Had a very pleasant time, was at Sabbath School at the Baptist Church, Forest City on Sunday 17th. Was much pleased with the earnestness of both scholars and teachers. Returned home Sun 24 and attended our own SS in the church. Heard tonight that Chas. Veysey's lumber camp burned.

Mon 25 Clear and cold. Has been frost the last 3 nights. HH fencing the sheep pasture.

Tue 26 Fine day. Getting warmer again.

Wed 27 Cold and somewhat cloudy. Put cattle and sheep in lower pasture. Taking banking from house. Dreadful forest fires.

Thu 28 Clouds and sunshine. High winds.

Fri 29 Clear with high SW wind. JW McLaughlin fixing grave and planting flowers.

Sat 30 Clear and cold. Frost last night. Very dry.

Sun 31 Very cold for time of year. Rev Flewelling preached in church. Gets warmer in afternoon.

Jun 1 Sunshine and clouds.

Tue 2 Clear high wind. HH & E to Danforth.

Wed 3 Clear with high wind. Forest fires raging fearfully. Two houses at Forest City burned this afternoon, caught from the fires.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Later heard that Mr Chas. Harvey and Wm Patterson's buildings were all burned. Nothing saved from either. Mr Harvey lost two horses besides farming machinery and other things in the barn. I have not heard what Patterson lost in his barn. We are surrounded with fires and the prospect is saddening, but we trust in God for deliverance.

Thu 4 Still fine and dry. All the men in the country are out fighting fires.

Fri 5 The smoke is like a thick fog. Fires not so bad, it is quite calm. The men have succeeded in getting the fires under control so that this settlement is out of danger if fire don't come in from another way. Fires raging badly on Pemberton Ridge.

Sat 6 No rain yet. Men still fighting fires, trying to keep it out of the timberland as much as possible. There are hundreds of men in the wood in this and the adjoining neighborhoods.

Sun 7 Still dry. Fires not so bad as there is no wind. I think the settlements are safe if the wind keeps calm. Night clouds up a little.

Mon 8 Things look this morning as if there had been a very light shower in the night. Still cloudy and cool and it is easier for the men to keep down the fires.

Tue 9 AM; heavy shower, very welcome. Keeps drizzly. At 1 p.m. another heavy shower.

Wed 10 Heavy showers in night. Cloudy all day with glimpses of sunshine. No appearance of the fires but smoke in the air yet.

Thu 11 Cloudy and dull all day, but no rain.

Fri 12 Cloudy and drizzly.

Sat 13 Drizzling rain all forenoon. PM; heavy rain.

Sun 14 Showery all day.

Mon 15 AM; cloudy with glimpses of sun. Wind SE. PM; showery.

Tues 16 Cloudy with high east wind. PM; cloudy and sunshine.

Wed 17 Still cloudy and cold.

Thu 18 Fine and cool. Quite cold at night.

Fri 19 Cloudy and dreary. Mrs and Mrs Harmon start for home.

Sat 20 Still cloudy. Showers on lake, but none here.

Sun 21 Sunshine and clouds.

Mon 22 The sun comes up clear, but clouds up in PM, sun comes out again and is fine.

Tue 23 A fine warm day with high SE wind.

Wed 24 Quite clear and warm.

Thur 25 Cloudy. 3 p.m. commences to rain.

Fri 26 It rained heavy through the night. A heavy shower in the morning.

Sat 27 Clear and rather cool.

Sun 28 Fine

Mon 29 Fine growing weather.

Tue 30 Clear but clouds up in afternoon.

Jul 1 A lovely morning. Everything looks so calm and peaceful.

Thu 2 Sunshine and clouds with high winds. Heavy rain squall in afternoon.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 3 Fine but cold with very high wind.

Sat 4 Still dark and windy.

Sun 5 A fine warm day. HH starts for F'ton.

Mon 6 Cloudy with light showers all day.

Tue 7 Fine and warm. Clouds up near night.

Wed 8 A beautiful day. Clouds up in afternoon. Mrs G McMinn and children spent the afternoon with us.

Thu 9 Showers in the night and cloudy all day. HH home from Fredericton.

Fri 10 Cloudy in forenoon, showers in afternoon.

Sat 11 Cloudy in morning but clears off hot about nine. Heavy thunder shower at two. Picnic held on church grounds for the 12th, and other celebrations not far distant. We did not expect to do much here but we had a very good gathering, and quiet time and cleared $39.27 for the benefit of the church.

Sun 12 Fin in AM, Clouds up in afternoon with light showers.

Mon 13 Fine and quite warm. PM; cloudy.

Tue 14 Cloudy, wind S. HH goes to work in mill.

Wed 15 Looks like rain. 10 o'clock, thunder, noon thunder and rain. Heavy shower at 3 o'clock.

Thu 16 Dark and showery all day.

Fri 17 AM; fine. 3 p.m., showers, heavy thunder showers in evening.

Sat 18 A lovely morning. Rain at 5 p.m. again.

Sun 19 AM; dark and very foggy. PM; showery.

Mon 20 Steady mild rain.

Tue 21 Partly clear. PM; cloudy. Started haying. A steady rain after 3 o'clock in the night.

Wed 22 Cloudy all day. No work in hayfields today. The sun shines a little while tonight.

Thu 23 Rain again this morning. PM; rain and thunder.

Fri 24 Rain early morning. 9 a.m. clears off. PM; showers pass around but only a little here.

Sat 25 A spatter of rain in early morning, continues cloudy all day.

Sun 26 Fine and warm with high winds at night.

Mon 27 AM; rain & high wind with glimpses of sunshine,, cold enough to wear coat and mittens.

Tue 28 A bright morning but cold. PM; fine and warm.

Wed 29 AM; cloudy. Noon, rain and wind; rain all afternoon.

Thu 30 Very still and foggy. 2 p.m. steady rain till night.

Fri 31 AM; clear with high wind. PM; a few drops of rain from a passing cloud. Hauled in 10 loads of hay.

Aug 1 Clear and windy. PM; another fine hay day. A light sprinkle of rain near night. Got in 9 loads of hay.

Sun 2 A fine cool day. An interesting SS.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 3 Clear and not too hot. We have very cool nights.

Tue 4 AM; fine. PM; a little hazy, clouds near night.

Wed 5 Fine and cool in morning., clouds up with high wind at noon and is cloudy all afternoon.

Thu 6 The sun shines but the sky is muddy.. PM; clouds up thick. HH finished haying.

Fri 7 Drizzling rain most of the time.

Sat 8 A fine day. Drove down to Geo and Maud's made a visit.

Sun 9 AM; pleasant; PM; clouds and high wind.

Mon 10 There has been rain in the night and still cloudy. PM; clears away and is a fair hay day.

Tue 11 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. HH mowing for Mr A. Boone.

Wed 12 AM; raining. PM; rain, clears off at 6 o'clock.

Thu 13 AM; fine and cool.

Fri 14 Fine. I start this morning to Canterbury for a visit to Mrs Geo Webberley's arriving there at 3 p.m. to find them all well. Return on Wed, 19th to Chas Veysey's and home Thu 20th after making a very pleasant visit.

Fri 21 AM; fine. PM; has been a good day for haying.

Sat 22 AM; showery. Clears off fine. Clouds up near night, a dreadful squall and thunder shower.

Sun 23 AM; quite fine. PM; showery. At Fosterville to church, preaching by Rev Flewelling.

Mon 24 Clear and very cool for time of year. HH gone to mill again today.

Tues 25 Sunshine and clouds all day.

Wed 26 A lovely morning. Clouds up at night.

Thu 27 A very fine day.

Fri 28 Fine. G & M Boone here on a visit today.

Sat 29 A lovely summer day.

Sun 30 AM; fine. Clouds up toward night.

Mon 31 AM; cloudy with light showers. Showery.

Sep 1 Sunshine and showers. To Mrs Kinney's to quilting.

Wed 2 Fine day. Mr and Mrs Lyons here.

Thu 3 A lovely day. At Mrs P Lutz knitting bee.

Fri 4 A very warm day. Thunder showers at night.

Sat 5 A very heavy thunder shower with hail in the night about 12 o'clock, this morning fine and warm, but clouds up again at night.

Sun 6 Fine but quite cool.

Mon 7 Fine and cool. Showers going around at noon.

Tue 8 Cold for time of year. Got in wheat today.

Wed 9 Fine. Went to Forest City today. Made a very pleasant visit, returned Friday, 18th, at night. Very cold coming home.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 19 Fine. Mr Wetmore held harvest home in the church. Fairly well attended.

Sun 20 AM; fine. Went to Fosterville to church.

Mon 21 Cloudy. Ida Howe makes visit here this PM.

Tue 22 Fine and windy. Went to ChasV's with Maud and Veysey.<sup>12</sup>

Wed 23 AM; fine. PM; Windy. HH digging potatoes.

Thu 24 Fine. A great scarcity of water.

Fri 25 A lovely day. On a visit to W.H. Foster's.<sup>13</sup>

Sat 26 Clear and cold. PM; high wind.

Sun 27 Clouds and sunshine. Heavy thunder showers at night.

Mon 28 Sunshine and clouds all day.

Tue 29 Heavy frost. Dark and cold all day. HH at mill today.

Oct 1 Sunshine and clouds, rain at noon. Clears off at night.

Fri 2 Clear and cold. Painter came to paint church.

Sat 3 Very cold for season. Went to C.V's with Maud.

Sun 4 Cloudy and cold. PM; still cloudy. JK came this PM.

Mon 5 AM; lovely warm rain. PM; mild rain.

Tue 6 A lovely morning. Municipal elections today.

Wed 7 Cloudy. HH in mill today. PM; clear.

Thu 8 Fine and windy.

Fri 9 Cloudy and cold with heavy mist at times.

Sat 10 Still cloudy and cold. PM; same.

Sun 11 AM; a light rain. PM; cloudy and cold.

Mon 12 Dark and misty. PM; a nice rain.

Tue 13 Cloudy and cold. HH has a sore leg.

Wed 14 Clear and bright with high winds.

Thu 15 A love day. Joe and boys picking apples.

Fri 16 Cloudy and cold; rain in evening.

Sat 17 Drizzling rain all day. Out to Charles'.

Sun 18 Heavy rain in night, rain in early morning. Cloudy and cold all day.

Mon 19 Bright and cold. Outdoor flowers all killed.

Tue 20 High wind and cloudy.

Wed 21 Dark and cloudy with light snow squalls.

Thu 22 A lovely bright morning, but cold. PM; clouds up.

Fri 23 Cloudy and cold. PM; heavy rain all afternoon and night.

Sat 24 Clouds and sunshine. PM; dark and squally. Paid painter for painting church.

---

<sup>12</sup>Maud's oldest son, Veysey Boone.

<sup>13</sup>William Henry Foster, who lived at foot of Green Mountain hill.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 25 Fine for time of year.

Mon 26 Cold and dreary. 10 a.m. snowing. Snow all afternoon.

Tue 27 Cold and cloudy. About 4 or 5 inches of snow fell yesterday and last night.

Wed 28 Still cold and high wind.

Thu 29 Clear and cold. The snow don't diminish any.

Fri 30 A lovely bright day. Snow nearly all gone.

Sat 31 A fine day. A. Kinney goes to Canterbury Station for Rev Dr. McLeod and Rev C.T Phillips to dedicate the F.C. Baptist church tomorrow. Arrive in the evening.

Nov 1 A lovely day. Dedication sermon by Dr. McLeod from text contained in 2 Chronicles 6:12. Afternoon service preaching by CT Phillips, text 3rd Esistle of John 1:2. A beautiful warning to young men and all that are careless or thoughtless. Evening, an evangelistic meeting. I trust much lasting good was done.

Mon 2 A beautiful morning. The ministers start for home.

Tue 3 A beautiful day. Miss Black and I at Mrs A. Boone's for tea.

Wed 4 Still lovely weather. HH finishes in mill today.

Thu 5 Cloudy and warm. HH ploughing. JK banking kitchen. Heavy rain.

Fri 6 Cold and cloudy. PM; snow squalls, evening, snowing.

Sat 7 Heavy snow and wind through the night. Over a foot of snow on the gound and still snowing. A wild storm all day. 1 1/2 feet of snow at night.

Sun 8 A lovely bright morning. Roads in terrible condition.

Mon 9 Very warm and pleasant. HH and JK hauling in firewood.

Tue 10 A beautiful day. Snow leaving fast.

Wed 11 Fine, but terribly muddy. Circle at the church.

Thu 12 AM; heavy rain. PM; clears off. Mrs C. Kneeland died.

Fri 13 Sunshine and clouds. HH threshing.

Sat 14 Cloudy and warm.

Sun 15 Clouds, sunshine and snow squalls. Mrs C. Kneeland buried today at Forest City, Maine.

Mon 16 Dark and dreary.

Tue 17 Raining and freezes as it comes. Noon, finished threshing. Had 28 1/2 bus. wheat; 424 bus. oats; 56 bus. buckwheat.

Wed 18 Heavy clouds, cold and very dreary. Butchered hog.

Thu 19 Bright, clouds up at noon.

Fri 20 A fine day. Lot of snow on fields, roads very icy.

Sat 21 A perfect day. HH hauling wood and banking from mill.

Sun 22 Cloudy and cold. Geo & Maud Boone here this afternoon.

Mon 23 Foggy, with light flurries of snow and rain.

Tue 24 AM; rain turns to snow 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 25 Clear and cold. HH and JK hauling firewood from woods.

Thu 26 Very fine. Finished hauling wood and filled cellar door.

Fri 27 AM; fine and very cold. PM; cloudy.

Sat 28 AM; hail. 10, snow. PM; cloudy. The wood saw moved here this PM.

Sun 29 Cloudy in early morning. At 10 clears off and is fine until evening, then clouds up and snows 4 or 5 inches.

Mon 30 Clouds and sunshine. HH sawing wood.

Dec 1 A lovely day. Self washing. HH finished sawing wood.

Wed 2 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. HH hauling wood for GA McMinn.

Thu 3 AM; snowing till 10; the stops and remains cloudy and soft, light snow again in evening.

Fri 4 Still light snow with cold north wind. HH drives CV and JK out to camp

Sat 5 Early morning fine. 9 am clouds up. HH and Miss Black and myself goes to Forest City.

Sun 6 AM; cloudy. PM; squally.

Mon 7 Cloudy and soft. HH brought load fire wood from mill.

Tue 8 Clouds and sunshine. Warm.

Wed 9 Cloudy all day.

Thu 10 Heavy wind with snow and rain in night. Rain today till nearly night then turns to snow.

Fri 11 AM; snow squalls. PM; fine.

Sat 12 Fine and cold. PM; clouds up.

Sun 13 A day's heavy rain, clears off in evening.

Mon 14 Very cold with high wind.

Tue 15 Quite cold, but bright and fine. HH starts for St. Stephen on Charles' business.

Wed 16 AM; cloudy. PM; snow squalls.

Thu 17 Fine and very cold. HH returns from St. Stephen.

Fri 18 A clear cold day. School ends. Teacher, Miss Black leaves.

Sat 19 Still severely cold.

Sun 20 Not so cold. Cloudy 10 a.m. snow, turns to rain in PM.

Mon 21 The rain in night took off nearly all the snow in the fields. It is cloudy and warm in the morning but is bright and fine in the afternoon.

Tue 22 Light snow in the forenoon. Clears off fine about noon and gets colder.

Wed 23 AM; bright and fine. PM; gets cloudy.

Thu 24 AM; cloudy and warm. PM; clears off.

Fri 25 Early fine. Snow squalls all day. We all went out to Charles V's and took dinner, came home at three and went to the school house and had pie social. Rose 10.75 for church purposes. Had a very pleasant day.

Sat 26 Clear and cold. Clouds up at noon and is cloudy all afternoon. HH and Charles to Forest City. Sophia stops with us till they come back.

Sun 27 Cloudy and cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 28 Clear and cold.

Tue 29 Clear and not so cold. HH butchered beef.

Wed 30 A wild snow storm.

Thu 31 Cloudy. PM; clear and cold. Thus ends the year.

Jan 1, 1904 to Sun Jan 18: page torn in two only partially readable.

Mon 18 Clear and very cold. Washed
today.

Tue 19 Still cold, but bright.

Wed 20 A light snow all day but only gained about 2 inches.

Thu 21 Fine not too cold, lcloudy.

Fri 22 Snowing. Heavy snow. HH home from F'ton.<sup>14</sup>

Sat 23 Cloudy with fog, drizzle, hail and rain.

Sun 24 Cloudy and colder. PM; sunshine, clouds about 2 inches snow at night.

Mon 25 Clear and cold. A high NW wind.

Tue 26 Bright and not very cold. PM;
cloudy.

Wed 27 Two or three inches of snow fell in night. Today bright and not too cold.

Thu 28 A lovely day. Bought children's suits from [unintelligible]

Fri 29 Fine. Joe N came from PB woods.
[Pirate Brook]

---

<sup>14</sup>He had gone to Fredericton to a
County council meeting on Sunday,
18th Jan.

Sat 30 A beautiful day. Roads in fair shape.

Sun 31 Fine with some clouds and a strong S wind.

Feb 1 AM; a soft snow coming. HH takes a load of oats to Chas' camp on Pirate Brook. Noon: very foggy and soft. About 3 soft inches of snow fell when the wind raises.

Tue 2 AM; clear and cold. PM; clouds up again.

Wed 3 About and inch of ssnow fell in the night but is fine and cold this morning.

Thu 4 Bright and cold. A fine winter day. No mail tonight.

Fri 5 Clear and cold. Mail arrived at 11 o'clock a.m.

Sat 6 Cloudy and cold. PM; light snow.

Sun 7 Cloudy and light snow. Hail all afternoon and evening.

Mon 8 AM; clear and cold. PM; cloudy.
The mail did not get in again this morning.
The roads are in dreadful condition as well as the severely cold weather.

Tue 9 Clear and dreadful cold. Mail arrived at 12:30 p.m.

Wed 10 Bright and severely cold weather.

Thu 11 AM; cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. Clouds up in evening and from one to two inches of snow fell. Mail fails to get in again tonight.

Fri 12 Hazy and warmer. Very fine.
Mail came in about 12:30 o'clock.

Sat 13 A lovely warm day.

Sun 14 AM; fine. PM; out to SS.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 15 AM; clear and cold. PM; cloudy. About two inches of snow fell throughout the night. CG .... went to work with the snow plow.

Tue 16 This morning the sun shoes [sic] through the clouds but the air if full of snow. PM; clod and dreary. Very bad roads.

Wed 17 Cloudy and cold yet, with high winds.

Thu 18 AM; bright with cold wind. PM; wind fell and is a fine afternoon. No mail arrived tonight.

Fri 19 AM; cloudy and warm. Men out breaking roads with snow plough. PM; light snow. Mail arrived at 3 o'clock.

Sat 20 AM; fine. PM; wind raises. Cold/.

Sun 21 AM; fine. PM; a strong SW gale.

Mon 22 Raining this morning. Rain all day. No mail tonight.

Tue 23 Cleared off in night, is fine this morning with high north wind. Clouds up at noon and is squally. Mail come in at 5:30 o'clock.

Wed 24 AM; clouds. PM; cloudy with light snow.

Thu 25 Cold and blustery.

Fri 26 Blustery in morning. Fine in afternoon on a visit to Mrs A. Boone's.

Sat 27 Fine. I go to Forest City on a visit today.

Sun 28 Fine when we first got up but the wind soon rose and it got very cold and squally.

Mon, March 7, 1904 Warm with light snow. Returned from Forest City after a very pleasant visit, but both Sabbaths were so cold we could not get out to church or sabbath school.

Tue 8 A heavy rain all day.

Wed 9 AM; foggy. PM; soft snow.

Thu 10 Cold and drifting.

Fri 11 Clear and very cold.

Sat 12 Clear and cold yet. HH and E to Danforth.

Sun 13 Clear and quite cold.

Mon 14 A fine winter day.

Tue 15 AM; bright and not so cold. PM; cloudy. Evening, snowing lightly.

Wed 16 A soft snow all day.

Thu 17 A lovely day.

Fri 18 Cloudy again. PM; soft snow. Pie social, oyster stew in school house realizing $16.63 for church fund.

Sat 19 Clouds and sunshine.

Sun 20 Cloudy and squalls with high wind.

Mon 21 Clear and warmer. In the night there was a heavy shock of earthquake. Shook the houses and routed us all out of bed. HH and E to Forest City.

Tue 22 AM; very cloudy. PM; snow and light rain.

Wed 23 AM; cloudy. PM; clear and warm. The hail and rain of last night made quite a heavy crust. HH hauling last wood.

Thu 24 A very fine day.

Fri 25 Cloudy with heavy wind.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 26 Very foggy with heavy SW wind.

Sun 27 Clear but cold wind. Church today.

Mon 28 AM; clear. PM; clouds up.

Tue 29 Light snow till 2 o'clock then clears up.

Wed 30 Fine and cold.

Thu 31 Fine and pleasant

Apr 1 Cloudy till 4 p.m. when it commenced to snow. Quite damp.

Sat 2 PM; cloudy and soft. 2 inches of snow fell last night. I am quite sick.

Sun 3 I am 67 years old this easter Sunday. A lovely day. Just heard Amanda Clare died this morning very suddenly at 7 o'clock. [She] gave birth to a daughter on Friday night last. Am too unwell to get to SS today.

Mon 4 Fine and cold, but getting warmer.

Tue 5 A lovely day. Amanda Clare buried. Sermon preached by Rev Worden from the words, "He is risen". I am not well enough to get to the funeral. HH not well.

Wed 6 A lovely day. HH gone to Eel River to Mill with wheat. Snow going fast.

Thu 7 Cloudy. PM; shower of rain and snow. HH to mill in Forest City.

Fri 8 Fine and warm. A. Howe here today.

Sat 9 Heavy rain all day. Lightening at night.

Sun 10 Heavy fog and drizzling. Thunder shower at night.

Mon 11 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off fine.

Tue 12 A lovely bright morning, but clouds up and rains the rest of the day after 10 o'clock.

Wed 13 Clouds and sunshine.

Thu 14 Cold cloudy and windy.

Fri 15 AM; clear and cold. PM; Cloudy and windy.

Sat 16 AM; light snow. PM; clouds and sunshine with cold wind.

Sun 17 Pleasant. To SS today.

Mon 18 A fine day. Wind SW.

Tue 19 Fine. HH gone out to fix mill, but frost not out.

Wed 20 Cold and dreary wind NE.

Thu 21 Bright with cold wind NE.

Fri 22 A fine day. Went out to Chas. with HH.

Sat 23 A very fine day.

Sun 24 A lovely day.

Mon 25 AM; cloudy. PM; rain.

Tue 26 Snow squall in early morning. Remainder of day cloudy. HH at D. Cropley's with assessors.

Wed 27 Sunshine and clouds.

Thu 28 No entry.

Fri 29 A warm rain.

Sat 30 Showery.

May 1 A beautiful day.

Mon 2 Fine

Tue 3 A beautiful summer day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 4 Fine. Lud{low] Veysey here for seed oats.

Thu 5 Fine. Ice breaking up in lake.

Fri 6 Cooler this morning. Was frost through the night. Ice out of main part of lake, drifted in the coves.

Sat 7 Fine with fresh breeze from the south.

Sun 8 A lovely day.

Mon 9 Fine in the morning. I go for a visit to Maud Boone's; returned home on Sat 21 after a very pleasant visit, but a very wet and backward seed time. Scarcely any grain in the ground yet.

Sun 22 Cloudy with showers at night.

Mon 23 Dark and drizzling. HH plowing.

Tue 24 Cloudy. PM; sowed 2 bu wheat.

Wed 25 Showery. HH sowed 2 more bu wheat.

Thu 26 Frequent light showers.

Fri 27 AM; very foggy and dark. PM; a heavy thunder shower between 3 & 4 o'clock.

Sat 28 AM; fine. PM; light showers.

Sun 29 Fine.

Mon 30 AM; fine. PM; heavy thunder shower.

Tues 31 AM; a cold high wind. PM; warmer. HH planted potatoes.

Jun 1 Cloudy with frequent light showers. HH sowed 19 bu oats.

Thu 2 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. Sowed 1 3/4 bu oats.

Fri 3 Showery. PM Rain. HH finished planting.

Sat 4 A fine warm day.

Sun 5 A day's steady rain.

Mon 6 Showers.

Tue 7 AM; showers. HH fixing mill.

Wed 8 AM; cloudy with signs of clearing off. PM; fine.

Thu 9 A fine day. HH to Danforth.

Fri 10 Fine.

Sat 11 Fine HH sowed 13 bu oats and 3 bu buckwheat.

Sun 12 A lovely day.

Mon 13 Fine.

Tue 14 Eve and I to Forest City.

Wed 15 Fine. HH took hay to Mill.

Thu 16 Fine. Getting quite dry.

Fri 17 AM; fine. HH goes to work in Mill.

Sat 18 Cloudy.

Sun 19 A very pleasant day.

Mon 20 Very hot.

Tue 21 Very hot and sultry. Phoebe Buckingham and Walter Colson married. Thunder shower in afternoon.

Wed 22 Showery all day. Addie Gould and Clarence Graham married at 2 o'clock p.m. in the church. Alma Cropley and Fred McMullin married at 3 p.m. at her father's residence, Fosterville. Both weddings largely attended. Myself and HH's family were at Cropley's not being able to be at both. Nellie Maxan very sick.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 23 A lovely day. Nellie no better.

Fri 24 A fine day. Nellie Maxan died about noon.

Sat 25 Showery all day.

Sun 26 AM; fine. PM; showery. Nellie Maxan buried 2 p.m.

Mon 27 Clear with a nice cool breeze.

Tue 28 A beautiful day.

Wed 29 AM; cloudy. PM; Showery.

Thu 30 AM; cloudy. Wind south. Rain in the evening and all night.

Jul 1 AM; showery. PM; cloudy.

Sat 2 Fair, heavy thunder shower in afternoon.

Sun 3 Cloudy and sunshine. HH to F'ton.

Mon 4 Cloudy with fresh south breeze.

Tue 5 AM; showery. PM; cloudy with glimpses of sun.

Wed 6 A fine day. HH home from F'ton.

Thu 7 Fine. Picking berries with Lillie and Dora.

Fri 8 A lovely day. Called on Mrs Whitcome

Sat 9 A very hot day. Mrs Welch died.

Sun 10 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Mon 11 Fine. Mrs Welch buried at 2:30 o'clock.

Tue 12 Fine. Clouds up at night.

Wed 13 AM; very cloudy and dark. PM; rain.

Thu 14 A fine day. Cleaned the church.

Fri 15 Fine. G. Boone came for Mrs Wilson.<sup>15</sup>

Sat 16 Fine. Maud Boon had a daughter, born last night.

Sun 17 A hot day. Mrs McNelley here.

Mon 18 Very hot. Commenced haying.

Tue 19 Dry and hot. Hauled one load of hay.

Wed 20 Cooler and cloudy. Went to Forest City this afternoon to stop a few days with Maud.

Wed 27 Returned from G. Boone's this morning after spending a week there which was dull and cloudy. Very bad weather for getting hay.

Thu 28 Clouds and sunshine.

Fri 29 AM; cloudy. PM; heavy showers.

Sat 30 A fine day. Ice cream benefit of paying the minister, Mr. Betts.

Sun 31 Fine. Service in the evening by Mr. Flewelling.

Aug 1 Showers through the night, but clears off fine this morning.

Tue 2 Clouds and sunshine.

Wed 3 Not a very good hay day, but finished haying.

---

<sup>15</sup>Likely Alice Vantassel Wilson; acting as midwife.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 4 A fine hot day.
Fri 5 A fine day.
Sat 6 AM; cloudy with showers.
Sun 7 Had a barn burned about 2 o'clock this morning by lightening showers and lightening all night but is fine this morning.
Mon 8 Clouds and sunshine.
Tue 9 Fine.
Wed 10 A very good hay day.
Thu 11 Quite heavy rain through the night and still cloudy this morning with showers through the day. Pea hen commenced sitting last night.
Fri 12 Fine. H & E blueberrying.
Sat 13 Cloudy and cool. HH to mill at F.C.
Sun 14 Raining this morning.
Mon 15 Cloudy. PM; clears off.
Tue 16 Not a very good hay day.
Wed 17 Showers all day.
Thu 18 A fine day. Went to F.C. with AGV.
Fri 19 A lovely day. HH sold lambs.
Sat 20 AM; very cloudy. PM; rain.
Sun 21 Cloudy in morning but clears off fine and cool. Rev Mr Betts preached this PM.
Mon 22 Fine. HH goes to work in mill.
Tue 23 Very fine weather.
Wed 24 Fine days and cold nights.

Thu 25 AM; fine. clouds up near night.
Fri 26 Light showers in early morning, but clears up with a cold NW wind. Went to F.C. with Albert.
Sat 27 Fine. Mrs J.L. Foster very sick.
Sun 28 A lovely day. V & B Boone here.<sup>16</sup>
Mon 29 Fine. HH cut wheat today.
Tue 30 Fine. A light frost last night.
Wed 31 Lovely day. Went to Fosterville with HH [to] religious services held in the church by Dr. Barker this evening.
Sep 1 AM; somewhat cloudy.
Fri 2 Cloudy in the morning but clears off fine. Clouds up again at night.
Sat 3 Rain this morning. PM; rain.
Sun 4 Sunshine and clouds. Elder Betts preached.
Mon 5 AM; fine. PM; showery.
Tue 6 Clear and cool. Mrs J.L. Foster sick.
Wed 7 Fine. HH had a load of oats threshed.
Thu 8 Cloudy. Clears off at 10 a.m. PM; showery.
Fri 9 Fine. HH hauled in wheat, oats and B.W.
Sat 10 Dark and cloudy. Heavy frost last night.

---

<sup>16</sup>Probably her grandsons, Veysey and Basil, Maud's sons.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 11 Very cloudy. Clears off about noon.

Mon 12 Fine and hot.. Evening, light showers.

Tue 13 A lovely day. Mr Wetmore built chimney.

Wed 14 Dark and windy.

Thu 15 A day's steady rain.

Fri 16 A fine cool day.

Sat 17 Fine.

Sun 18 Fine and warm. Heavy thunder shower in the evening and rained all night.

Mon 19 A lovely day. HH gone to work in mill.

Tue 20 AM; clouds and sunshine. Evening, thunders showers.

Wed 21 Rained all night with a very high wind. Today, cold and disagreeable.

Thu 22 Clear and cold with high winds.

Fri 23 Still cold with frosty nights. Our flowers all killed on Wednesday night.

Sat 24 AM; cloudy. PM;raining.

Sun 25 Cold and dreary. No SS.

Mon 26 Gloomy weather. H Boone ploughing here.

Tue 27 A lovely day.

Wed 28 Fine weather. Warm day and cold night.

Thu 29 Cloudy. PM; rain.

Fri 30 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; thunder shower.

Oct 1 Bright this morning with a heavy SW wind. HH for load mill wood.

Sun 2 Cold with high wind. 4 p.m. heavy showers.

Mon 3 Dreary weather. HH digging potatoes.

Tue 4 AM; bright and warmer.. Finished digging potatoes.

Wed 5 Fine and warm in the early morning. At ten it clouds up and remains cloudy the remainder of the day with a heavy south wind.

Thu 6 Heavy shower in night. This morning the wind is still high and partially cloudy.

Fri 7 High wind and very cold for season. The children are picking apples.

Sat 8 Windy and very cold. HH came from mill this morning and hauled two loads of lumber for hogpen.

Sun 9 Cloudy but warmer. Geo & Maud Boone here; brought the baby with them.

Mon 10 AM; cloudy. PM; rain.

Tue 11 AM; dark with cold high wind. HH commenced his hog and hen house.

Wed 12 AM; clear and cold. PM; gets cloudy.

Thu 13 Cloudy. Ten: commences to hail , soon turns to rain and continues all day. I was out to call on Mrs. Till.

Fri 14 A lovely morning but clouds up after dinner, rain at 4 o'clock and all evening. Washed in morning and went to see Mrs A Boone in afternoon.

Sat 15 Cloudy and clod in the forenoon. Sun comes out at noon but is still cold with high wind.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 16 AM; clear with cold high wind till near night when wind fell and it became very pleasant.

Mon 17 A perfect day.

Tue 18 Cloudy. Geo Till and family move to Sun Co.

Wed 19 Still cloudy and warm. HH pulls turnips.

Thu 20 AM; foggy and warm. Knitting bee at Mrs Lutz's.

Fri 21 Rainy day. At knitting bee at Mrs J.L. Foster's.

Sat 22 A lovely day. I went with HH up to Esqr Lyons where he went on revising business.

Sun 23 Fine and quite warm.

Mon 24 Light shower in morning. Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine through the day.

Tue 25 Cloudy with cold wind all day. HH to work in mill and H Boone banking kitchen. School closed on account of dipheria scare.

Wed 26 Cloudy and mild. PM: rain. I went with Mrs Peck on a visit to G Woods and Mrs G Vantassel's.

Thu 27 A fine day for time of year.

Fri 28 Cold with with very light snow squalls.

Sat 29 Still cold and squally wind S.

Sun 30 Clear and cold. Elder F. held services in evening.

Mon 31 Sun shines but is cold.

Nov 1 A shower of snow, but is all gone at noon. PM; clouds and sunshine, cold.

Wed 2 A beautiful day. Killed hog.

Thu 3 AM; cloudy and cold. Noon: commences to rain and continues all afternoon. The Dominion election today.

Fri 4 AM; dark and dreary. Ground covered with snow.

Sat 5 Cloudy and cold. HH finishes in mill.

Sun 6 Still cloudy and very cold. Snow all gone.

Mon 7 Cloudy. PM; snow qualls. HH brings a load of sawdust from mill for banking.

Tue 8 Cloudy and cold. CV brought young cattle from pasture. To see Mrs W Boone.

Wed 9 A lovely day. To see Mrs A Boone.

Thu 10 Still fine. Killed hog and lame cow.

Fri 11 A beautiful day. To see Mrs Peck.

Sat 12 A fine day.

Sun 13 A lovely morning. Clouds up about noon. PM very cloudy.

Mon 14 We have had a very stormy night of wind and snow. About a foot is supposed to have fallen but is dreadfully drifted. Still snowing and blowing, not much gained. Mail did not get in tonight.

Tue 15 AM; partly cloudy, but soft and warm. Mail arrived at 9:15 o'clock. PM; pleasant. HH helping JLF thresh.

Wed 16 AM; a very light snow falling. PM; cloudy and soft till near night it set in cold with high north wind. Threshers moved here in evening.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 17 Clouds and sunshine. Very cold.

Fri 18 Cloudy and cold. Finished threshing and moved machine to CV's lower barn. HH raised 212 bu oats, 12 bu wheat inferior, and 38 bu buckwheat.

Sat 19 Cloudy. HH hauling wood.

Sun 20 A lovely day.

Mon 21 Rain all day.

Tue 22 A very fine day. To see Mrs Wilson. HH finished hauling firewood from the woods. Snow getting scarce some places.

Wed 23 A fine day.

Thu 24 Cloudy in morning, began to snow about noon. A wild storm all afternoon. HH & E to Forest City.

Fri 25 Cloudy and not too cold.

Sat 26 Sunshine and clouds. Sawing wood. J Till and C Cropley with machine.

Sun 27 A fine day. Rev F held services.

Mon 28 Clear and cold. Made a visit to CV's and AV, returning Wed Nov 30.

Tue 29 Cloudy. Commenced snowing at noon. 2 or 3 inches fell through the afternoon.

Wed, Nov 30 Cloudy and warmer. Came home from CV's and AV's after a very pleasant visit.

Dec 1 A lovely day. HH took me to Forest City on a visit, returning on Thu 15 after spending a very enjoyable fortnight altho the weather was severely cold. We had no storms to speak of.

Fri 16 A very fine day, not so cold.

Sat 17 A lovely day but quite cold.

Sun 18 Fine and cold. No SS.

Mon 19 AM; cloudy and warmer. PM; snow. About 1 or 2 inches fell.

Tue 20 Very warm and fine for this time of year.

Wed 21 A beautiful cold day.

Thu 22 Bright and cold.

Fri 23 Light snow all day. Went to Fosterville with HH. Concert in evening.

Sat 24 Clear but severely cold.

Sun 25 A lovely day, moderately cold. We all spent christmas at home and enjoyed it very much.

Mon 26 A lovely day. Much warmer at night than it has been.

Tue 27 Quite warm and cloudy. Commencing to snow at 10 a.m., fine snow all day.

Wed 28 Cloudy with occasional sleet and hail all day about 6 inches fell altogether yesterday and today.

Thu 29 A very heavy cold wind.

Fri 30 A beautiful cold day. HH hauling logs for GAMc.

Sat 31 A light frosty snow all day.

Sun, Jan 1, 1905 The year begins soft and warm. Cloudy.

Mon 2 Cloudy and warm. HH gets load of hay to take to Chas' camp.

Tue 3 Cloudy and cold with glimpses of sunshine. Commencing to snow at 4 p.m. HH with load of hay to camp.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 4 AM; heavy NE by N wind and snowing. PM; a wild snowstorm, roads in a terrible state, supposed to be 12 inches snowfell. No mail tonight.

Thu 5 Clear and bright but severely cold. Me breaking roads. No mail yet.

Fri 6 Clear and not quite so cold. No mail since Monday night.

Sat 7 Mail came in at 7:30 this morning. Storming, hail and snow till 3 o'clock when it turns to rain and continues till late in the evening, heavy gales all day.

Sun 8 Clears off bright and warm with a smart wind from the SW. Snow squall in the evening.

Mon 9 Clear and not very cold.

Tue 10 AM; a warm snow. Noon, clear. PM, heavy snow and wind.

Wed 11 A nice day. Beulah Wilson here.<sup>17</sup>

Thu 12 Light snow till 2 p.m. then cloudy with wind.

Fri 13 Fine and cold.

Sat 14 A lovely winter day.

Sun 15 A fine day. Cold W wind.

Mon 16 Clear and cold.

Tue 17 Clear with a cold drifting wind.

Wed 18 Fine and milder than it has been.

Thu 19 AM; snowing and blowing wild SW wind. Clears off at noon and is not very cold. Squally from 3 p.m. till in night.

Fri 20 A lovely morning. Bright and calm. PM; high SW wind. HH home from F'ton.

Sat 21 A fine day for time of year.

Sun 22 Snowing & blowing. No mail tonight.

Mon 23 Clear and cold. HH to Chas' for load.

Tues 24 Still cold. HH to camp with load. A man came from camp last night, called home on account of the death of his father. Starts for station this morning at 6 o'clock a.m.

Wed 25 AM; clear and cold with a high NE wind. PM; clouds near night, 7 p.m. snowing.

Thu 26 Has been a dreadful stormy night and still continues wild wind and snow. Stopped snowing, high wind yet. No mail tonight.

Fri 27 A lovely day but tremendous drifts. JH McNerlin storm stayed here since Wednesday night. Left this morning.

Sat 28 Hazy and light clouds. 11 a.m., the sun shines but feebly. Men breaking roads with machine. PM; clouds up and looks as if it might storm.

Sun 29 Still some cloud but clears before noon and is fine.

Mon 30 A lovely day. No mail since 24th.

Tue 31 A fine day. Mail came in at 9 o'clock a.m. None before since a week ago tonight. HH to camp with hay.

Feb 1 Fine. To see Mrs A. Boone. HH to camp with hay.

Thu 2 A lovely day. To see Mrs P. Lutz. HH to camp with hay.

---

<sup>17</sup>Later Beulah Peck (married Fred Peck)

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 3 A little hazy in the morning. Clears off fine and is a lovely day. HH to Roy's camp.

Sat 4 A fine winter's day. Moderately cold.

Sun 5 A lovely day.

Mon 6 AM; snowing. PM; snow. HH to Forest City for scaler Porter.

Tue 7 Light snow comes but don't make much on the ground. Heavy wind

Wed 8 last evening and through the night there was a tremendous wind and drift. This morning clear with high wind. HH gone to camp.

Thu 9 Sunshine and clouds. Quite warm.

Fri 10 AM; light snow. Mail arrived 11:30 a.m. in the Eel River mail bag with no mail but letter bill and 7 letters. Charles Foster brought it.

Sat 11 Clear with a heavy NW wind.

Sun 12 Clear and cold. Snow in the evening. About 5 or 6 inches fell through night.

Mon 13 Cloudy with a little sleet. PM; a wild snow storm. No mail again today, roads in dreadful condition.

Tue 14 A beautiful morning but before noon, the wind rose and it became quite a blizzard. Mail arrived 7:30 o'clock p.m.

Wed 15 A thick haze. Some warmer. No mail today.

Thu 16 A beautiful winter's day. Mail brot in by Nina Foster. John L Foster brot it from CS. [Canterbury Station]

Fri 17 Snowing again. No roads in the afternoon. It gets warmer and hazy. No mail.

Sat 18 Pleasant. Mail came in about 9 o'clock. Noon, the wind raises and gets colder. HH to Fawcett's camp.

Sun 19 A terrible cold windy night and is cold and still blowing a hurricane this morning. Cloudy with a few streaks of sunshine through the day.

Mon 20 Partly clear with a boisterous wind varying from SE to SW. HH takes Chas to camp. George McMinn goes for scaler. The mail didn't get in again today.

Tue 21 Clear with strong breeze. HH takes Chas and Porter to scale logs at PB [Pirate Brook].

Wed 22 AM fine. HH to Chas' for oats. Cloudy. CF brot mail at 7:50 p.m.

Thu 23 Cloudy and cold. HH to camp with oats.

Fri 24 Hazy and quite cold. PM; Cloudy and sunshine. HH to Chas' for load for camp. Mail at 8:45 o'clock.

Sat 25 A light snow came, from 1 1/2 to 2 inches though the night. HH and Chas gone to camp with oats.

Sun 26 A lovely morning, but soon clouds up and is clouds and sunshine all day.

Mon 27 It has snowed all night and is still snowing lightly. AM; cloudy and air full of snow, but don't make much. No mail tonight.

Tue 28 Still cloudy.

Mar 1 A lovely day. HH gone to H Feral's [Farrell] for oats for camp.

Thu 2 A fine cold day. HH to Chas' camp with hay and oats. Self washing.

Fri 3 Hazy wind west. PM; fine.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 4 AM; thin clouds a light flurry of snow. PM; fine.

Sun 5 A beautiful day but lonesome without SS or church.

Mon 6 A fine day but somewhat cold. HH to Forest City for scaler. Roads are now in fair shape.

Tue 7 Fine with cold wind. HH signs for clothes horse, to Jas Clark.

Wed 8 A light snow all day but only from 1 to 2 inches gained on the ground. Circle quilted here today.

Thu 9 A lovely day.

Fri 10 Cloudy and looks as tho we might have rain. HH to Richmond for hay.

Sat 11 A beautiful day. Thomas Howe and wife spent the evening here.

Sun 12 A fine day and good roads.

Mon 13 Very fine. Cold mornings.

Tue 14 A lovely day. HH to Richmond for hay.

Wed 15 Fine but quite cold.

Thu 16 Fine, HH and boys to Richmond for hay.

Fri 17 A lovely warm day. Chas commenced hauling bass wood to Danforth yesterday.

Sat 18 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. PM; very cloudy. HH to Richmond for hay for Chas.

Sun 19 Rain in the night and showers this morning. PM; cloudy.

Mon 20 Cloudy and cold. A lovely afternoon. Wrote to Miss Black. HH to Pirate with Chas for B. Wood. [basswood]

Tue 21 Fine. Went to Danforth with HH and had wen taken off my head.

Wed 22 Warm and slumpy in afternoon.

Thu 23 Fine and warm. Road very soft. Wesley Cropley brot in mail this morning.

Fri 24 AM; very fine. Clouds up at night.

Sat 25 AM; rain. PM; foggy; Evening, heavy rain.

Sun 26 Cloudy and drizzling, wind NE. PM; cloudy and warm.

Mon 27 Cloudy. Heavy rain at noon. PM; very cloudy, wind NE. No mail.

Tue 28 Sunshine in early morning, but soon clouds up and is cloudy all day. Snow wasting fast.

Wed 29 A lovely day. Mail came at 11 o'clock, on foot.

Thu 30 A beautiful day. Snow leaving fast. HH to Orient.

Fri 31 A little cooler today and partly cloudy. No mail.

Apr 1 Cloudy and cold.

Sun 2 Cold with high NW wind. SS opened today after 3 months vacation.

Mon 3 Fine and warm.

Tue 4 Fine. I start for a visit to Forest City this morning to Geo Boone's, returning Thu 20 after a very pleasant visit. The weather has been fair, but the roads bad.

Fri 21 Cloudy and unpleasant. PM; rain turns to snow.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 22 About 2 inches snow on ground this morning, but soon disappears. Pleasant.

Sun 23 Clouds and sunshine with cold N wind.

Mon 24 Cold wind, cloudy with evening rain.

Tue 25 Heavy NW wind and cold.

Wed 26 Fine. Amanda Clare's little girl died aged 13 months, nearly.

Thu 27 Fine. Down to see Mrs Vantassel.

Fri 28 A beautiful day. Amanda Clare's child buried.

Sat 29 A fine day but very high wind. On a visit to WH Foster's. Hugh McMinn's move up to George's.

Sun 30 Cloudy in morning. 10 a.m. clears off and is fine. Elder F preaches. Ice leaves lake today.

May 1 AM; dark and cloudy with showers of rain. PM; snow squalls.

Tue 2 Very cold and windy.

Wed 3 Clear and not very warm. HH and boys doing first farming.

Thu 4 Clear and quite warm. I spent the day at Fred Wood's. Inspector visited the school. Planted potatoes.

Fri 5 Quite warm with a very high wind. Cleaned the church.

Sat 6 A lovely warm day. Cleaned my bedroom. HH sowed 6 bu oats.

Sun 7 AM; a light rain, drizzly. PM; clears off warm, sun and clouds.

Mon 8 Fine with high wind.

Tue 9 Cold and rainy.

Wed 10 Cold and cloudy, moderates somewhat.

Thu 11 A little warmer with fresh breeze.

Fri 12 Sunshine but is cold and windy.

Sat 13 Heavy frost through the night. This morning cloudy and cold. PM; snow squalls.

Sun 14 Clear with a cold wind.

Mon 15 Fine morning. PM; cloudy; night, rain.

Tue 16 A day's steady rain.

Wed 17 Still raining.

Thu 18 Rain Rain. Rain.

Fri 19 Rain. Rain.

Sat 20 Cloudy with frequent showers.

Sun 21 Cold with sunshine and showers.

Mon 22 AM; pleasant. PM; cold wind.

Tue 23 Hard frost last night, but pleasant today. Planted potatoes.

Wed 24 Frost again last night but pleasant today. C. Wilson shearing sheep.

Thu 25 Fine but rather cool.

Fri 26 Clear with very heavy wind.

Sat 27 Fine and warm. West to AV's with HH and gave him $26.45 to send for church organ.

Sun 28 Fine service by Rev J Flewelling.

Mon 29 High wind and boys making garden.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 30 Showers through the night. High wind and cold today.

Wed 31 A fine day. Mrs D Bartlett at Forest City died this morning. Rev Mrs and Mrs Lysle here and left an appointment for service in church next Sabbath. Put in buckwheat.

Jun 1 Fine

Fri 2 Fine. Put in turnips and beets and carrots. Leonora Boone very sick. Have had two visits from Dr Coon which seem to have benefited her.

Sat 3 AM; rain, cloudy and cold.

Sun 4 Clouds and sunshine. Rev Mr Lysle and wife here and held morning and afternoon service. Lenora Boone worse. Dr McLaughlin visits her this PM.

Mon 5 A lovely morning. Went with HH to CV's. LB no better.

Tue 6 Heavy wind and chilly. Lenora a little better. The Dr with her yet. Heavy shower in early morning.

Wed 7 Clear and cold for time of year. Heavy frost last night.

Thu 8 A cold south wind and cloudy.

Fri 9 A finday. LB a very little better.

Sat 10 Fine. Went out to grave yard and fixed up or graves.

Sun 11 AM; cloudy. PM; light rain. As Geo Boone's were going home from here this PM the horse took fright and ran away throwing them all out of the carriage. Hurt Geo's arm and leg some, but we hope not serious by a call to us to consider God's protecting care. (He careth for us)

Mon 12 Cloudy with drizzling rain. LB improving some.

Tue 13 Light rain.

Wed 14 AM; fine. PM; light showers.

Thu 15 A lovely morning, calm and beautiful. PM; very hot.

Fri 16 Hazy and cooler. PM; very hot.

Sat 17 Cloudy. School meeting.

Sun 18 Light showers in early morning. Still cloudy and showers in PM.

Mon 19 Cloudy and cold.

Tue 20 Showery all day.

Wed 21 Very cloudy and dark.

Thu 22 Still cloudy and dreary.

Fri 23 Bright and warm.

Sat 24 Fine. Am quite sick.

Sun 25 A beautiful morning. I am not well enough to get to church. R & MV<sup>18</sup> here to dinner.

Mon 26 Cloudy and drak with light showers. Heavy rain at night.

Tue 27 Light rain through the day. Near night, heavy.

Wed 28 Cloudy and dull with light showers.

Thu 29 Fine.

Fri 30 Fine.

Jul 1 Clouds and sunshine. HH cultivating potatoes and turnips.

---

<sup>18</sup>Probably Roy and Myrtle (Foster) Veysey, Charles's son.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 2 A day's steady rain. HH starts for F'ton at 2 p.m.

Mon 3 AM; cloudy. PM; clear. Geo Boone starts with W Cropley and W Lyons to take the valuation of the Parish.

Tue 4 Clear and very warm.

Wed 5 Fine with a nice cool breeze. G. Mc [A]nelly sets up clothes line.

Thu 6 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off hot.

Fri 7 About the same as yesterday.

Sat 8 Foggy but clears off hot. Some thunder and lightening in evening.

Sun 9 AM; hot and sultry. PM; thunder showers. Near night a terrible wind and rain with thunder and lightening.

Mon 10 Quite hot with a nice breeze.

Tue 11 Clear and not too hot.

Wed 12 A nice cool day.

Thu 13 AM; fine. Near night, a terrible thunder shower.

Fri 14 A fine day till nearly night then thunder showers.

Sat 15 A nice cool day.

Sun 16 Fine and cool. Some cloud at night.

Mon 17 AM; raining. Clears off fine in the afternoon.

Tue 18 A little cloudy in morning, but soon breaks away and is fine. PM; thunder showers. Lenora Boone here; first she has been from home since her sickness. She is very feeble yet.

Wed 19 AM; fine. PM; thunder showers. HH commences haying today.

Thu 20 Fine and cool.

Fri 21 Fine hay day hauled in first hay. Mrs Luella Kimball makes us a call.

Sat 22 A fine cool day.

Sun 23 Fine. I got out to SS.

Mon 24 Cloudy in morning. PM; fine.

Tue 25 Clouds and sunshine. Near night a light thunder shower. Pea hen commenced sitting last night. No haying today.

Wed 26 AM; dull. No haying.

Thu 27 AM; cloudy. PM; showers.

Fri 28 AM; fine. Went to Fosterville with George. Bot a pair of sissors.

Sat 29 AM; fine. PM; thunder showers.

Sun 30 Cloudy.

Mon 31 Cloudy with showers.

Aug 1 AM; cloudy. PM; light showers.

Wed 2 Cloudy. No hay got today.

Thu 3 Fine. HH finished haying today.

Fri 4 Fine. HH & E picking blueberries.

Sat 5 A fine day. I start with HH for a visit to Forest City and return on the 19 inst after a very pleasant tow weeks stay altho somewhat saddened by the death of Henry Pray who died on Sunday, the 15th in the full assurance of a glorious resurrection. How blessed it is to die in Christ.

Sun 20 Rain

Mon 21 Fine and dry. A great scarcity of water. School begins this morning, F. Pray teaches. [Fred]

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 22 A fine hot day. Fires raging.

Wed 23 A lovely day. A religious picnic at the school. Much enjoyed by all.

Thu 24 AM; light rain, not enough to any good, fires raging in many places, but not much here.

Fri 25 Quite cool in morning but gets warmer through the day.

Sat 26 A fine day.

Sun 27 A lovely cool day. Baptism at Forest City. Ten baptized.

Mon 28 A beautiful day but the air is filled with smoke from the forest fires.

Tue 29 Fine. Still very smoky.

Wed 30 Still dry and warm. Rain much needed on account of both fires and crops.

Thu 31 Fine and warm. Chas Veysey moved in a camping kit and provisions to Pirate Brook to keep men there to fight fires.

Sep 1 Still hot and dry.

Sat 2 No appearance of rain yet. Mr and Mrs Patterson here to dinner.

Sun 3 Dark and cloud. 9:30 o'clock commences a light rain. HH, Lizzie and I got to Fosterville to church preaching by Rev Rollie. PM: a good mild rain. A great blessing, it will put out the fires and revive the crops.

Mon 4 Still raining.

Tue 5 Dark and cloudy all day. Some thunder & lightening in the evening.

Wed 6 Steady rain all day.

Thu 7 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off.

Fri 8 A fine harvest day.

Sat 9 Fine. Threshing buckwheat.

Sun 10 A beautiful day.

Mon 11 Fine and hot. Finished harvest. Had four loads buckwheat threshed.

Tue 12 AM; cloudy. PM; some rain. HH changed tenants yesterday and commenced sawing today.

Wed 13 Heavy rain all day.

Thu 14 Boisterous wind all night and a heavy cold wind today.

Fri 15 A very pleasant day.

Sat 16 A shower in the early morning, cloudy the rest of the day.

Sun 17 Clouds and sunshine.

Mon 18 Rain heavy all day.

Tue 19 AM; very foggy. PM; cloudy.

Wed 20 A very light rain. Rain in the evening.

Thu 21 A lovely fine day.

Fri 22 Fine.

Sat 23 Rather cold. High wind.

Sun 24 Sunshine and clouds. Rain in the evening.

Mon 25 Clouds and sunshine. Cold.

Tue 26 A very cold wind.

Wed 27 A heavy frost through the night and today cold and squally. Some snow with the rain.

Thu 28 AM; cloudy. PM; showery. Eve and myself at Mrs A Boone's quilting.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 29 Cloudy and cold. At Mrs A Boone's helping her finish quilting.

Sat 30 Cloudy and cold. HH digging potatoes.

Oct 1 A beautiful day. We have had three religious services in the church today conducted by Rev Dysart from Houlton.

Mon 2 Fine and warm. I went to CV's with HH and spent the day very enjoyably.

Tue 3 AM; foggy with heavy mist. PM; fine. Municipal election results: Veysey and Cropley were the elected candidates following a vote of 82 and 62 respectively.

Wed 4 Fine. At quilting at Mrs Peck's. 3 quilts quilted.

Thu 5 Still fine. HH to to mill to work. Mrs E and W Cosman here to dinner.

Fri 6 A beautiful day.

Sat 7 Fine and warm, but a heavy white frost last night.

Sun 8 Fine. G & M Boone and baby here.

Mon 9 Clear with cold wind.

Tue 10 Still clear and dry.

Wed 11 Cold. A great scarcity of water.

Thu 12 Clouds. Rain in the afternoon. Knitting bee here.

Fri 13 Cloudy. Clears off in afternoon.

Sat 14 A fine day.

Sun 15 A beautiful day.

Mon 16 AM; very warm and pleasant. A thunder shower at night.

Tue 17 A high cold wind. Service held in church by Rev Barton.

Wed 18 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; Cloudy and cold. Put pane of glass in church window.

Thu 19 A heavy rain through the night. Today, cloudy and warm. Called on Mrs A. Boone.

Fri 20 AM; cloudy. PM; partially clears off.

Sat 21 Cloudy and cold with light squalls.

Sun 22 Clear and cold.

Mon 23 A beautiful day.

Tue 24 AM; fine. PM; cloudy and rains a little in evening.

Wed 25 Bright and cold.

Thu 26 Still fine. Freezes hard at night.

Fri 27 A beautiful day.

Sat 28 Cloudy in morning, clears off fine.

Sun 29 Fine.

Mon 30 Fine. HH helping P Lutz thresh.

Tue 31 Clouds and sunshine. HH commenced threshing.

Nov 1 AM; cloudy. PM; heavy rain.

Thu 2 Clear and cold. Finished threshing.

Fri 3 Fine. HH went to mill, found one of the pipes burst which will stop ;the sawing this fall.

Sat 4 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; rain.

Sun 5 Cloudy and not so cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 6 A beautiful morning but clouds up about noon and continues cloudy all PM. Snow in evening.

Tue 7 Ground covered with snow and is cloudy and dreary. Commenced sawing wood yesterday morning, finished this noon. Snow nearly all gone.

Wed 8 Cloudy and cold. I go this PM on a visit to Chas and Albert Veysey's. Returning on Sat 11th after a very pleasant visit, but very dreary weather.

Sun 12 Very cloudy and chilly.

Mon 13 A very pleasant and cloudy [day]. I go with Hiram to [Forest] City for a visit. [...]quite unwell while [...] we had very pl[easant] weather.<sup>19</sup> On Monday morning, the 20th, Mr O Foster's house and Mr F.O. Foster's store were burned. Most of the contents saved. Returned home on

Dec 1

Sat 2 AM; cloudy. 3 PM; snow, evening, rain.

Sun 3 Still raining. About 3 p.m., turns to snow.

Mon 4 Has snowed lightly all night. Still snowing. About 4 or 5 inches on ground.

Tue 5 Clear and cold. HH starts for log hauling this morning.

Wed 6 Bright in early morning. At 9, snow. PM; cloudy and warm.

Thu 7 Cloudy with snow squalls.

Fri 8 Cloudy and very soft all day.

Sat 9 Fine and colder.

Sun 10 Snowing. A wild snow storm.

---

<sup>19</sup>[...] means page torn and text missing.

Mon 11 Fine and cold. PM; gets hazy. The mail did not get in tonight.

Tue 12 Dark and storm looking. PM; snowing. Yesterday's mail came in at 10:30 a.m. today.

Wed 13 Cloudy. PM; clears off. No mail tonight.

Thu 14 AM; fine. Yesterday's mail came in at 9:45. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Fri 15 Fine and warm for the season.

Sat 16 A lovely day.

Sun 17 A beautiful warm day.

Mon 18 Fine. Went with [...] to see Mrs D Wood. [...]is very sick. Took [dinner at] Roy Veysey's.

Tue 19 AM; fine and warm. PM; clouds up.

Wed 20 Fine and warm. Clouds up in afternoon.

Thu 21 Cloudy. HH goes with CV into his lumber camp. PM; wild snowstorm.

Fri 22 Cloudy all day. School examinations.

Sat 23 Still cloudy. HH went with scaler Leddie to scale logs.

Sun 24 A beautiful day.

Mon 25 A lovely christmas day.

Tues 26 A very fine day. HH helps JLF thresh.

Wed 27 A fine warm day. Clouds up at night.

Thu 28 Fine soft weather. HH goes to Forest City to mill.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 29 AM; cloudy. PM; snow. Evening, light rain.

Sat 30 AM; light rain. PM; cloudy.

Sun 31 Cold and blustery. PM; milder.

Jan 1, 1906 A lovely day. A light squall of snow in the afternoon. Clears off fine again.

Tue 2 A very nice winter's day.

Wed 3 A lovely day; a little colder than we have had.

Thu 4 AM; snow. Rain from 10 till night.

Fri 5 Pleasant. Warm wind.

Sat 6 A pleasant winter's day.

Sun 7 Fine with occasional skits of snow.

Mon 8 A fine cold day.

Tue 9 Fine and severely cold. To a knitting at Mrs Cosman's.

Wed 10 Still fine and cold.

Thu 11 Fince and much warmer.

Fri 12 AM; rain. PM; clears off.

Sat 13 A very pleasant day.

Sun 14 Cloudy and not too cold. HH starts for F'ton to Council.

Mon 15 Still cloudy.

Tue 16 Very cloudy. Commenced to rain at 10:30 o'clock and rained heavy all day and evening.

Wed 17 Cloudy. At Mrs Foster's, mat hooking.

Thu 18 AM; still cloudy. PM; snow.

Fri 19 Clear and cold. Dr. Folkins calls. HH home from F'ton.

Sat 20 AM; cloudy. Near night, snow. F. Pray here for supper.

Sun 21 AM; rain. PM; cloudy.

Mon 22 Very cloudy and warm.

Tue 23 Very dark and foggy all day. Snow going fast.

Wed 24 Has rained throughout the night and some in early morning. Clears off at noon.

Thu 25 Fine for time of year. Snow mostly gone off fields.

Fri 26 A beautiful day.

Sat 27 A lovely warm day. HH, Lizzie and I to Forest City.

Sun 28 Cloudy. To service in church.

Mon 29 Clear and cold.

Tue 30 A fine day, but cold. Gets warmer in afternoon.

Wed 31 AM; cloudy.

Feb 1 A fine day.

Fri 2 Cloudy with glimpses of sun.

Sat 3 Fine and cold.

Sun 4 A light snow all day.

Mon 5 Still snowing lightly.

Tue 6 Clear and very cold.

Wed 7 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; clears off warmer and fine.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 8 A lovely fine day.

Fri 9 AM; cloudy. PM; snowing.

Sat 10 Four or five inches of snow fell yesterday and last night, but this morning bright and beautiful.

Sun 11 A lovely day.

Mon 12 Cloudy.

Tue 13 A beautiful warm day.

Wed 14 Colder with high N wind. PM; snow.

Thu 15 Still snowing, but not over 4 inches snow has fell.

Fri 16 A beautiful bright morning. About 5 or 6 inches snow came this storm.

Sat 17 A lovely day for the season. On Thursday evening, the 15th, George Vantassel's house was burned. Most of contents saved.

Sun 18 Fine and warm.

Mon 19 A very pleasant day.

Tue 20 Cloudy. Winds SE.

Wed 21 Still cloudy and warm. AM; light shower. Mrs McMinn stricken with a bad spell this morning.

Thu 22 Clear with rather a cool wind from the north.

Fri 23 Fine. Moderately cold.

Sat 24 A lovely day. To see Mrs A. Boone.

Sun 25 Cloudy and warm. PM; clears off fine. Snow going fast.

Mon 26 AM; very cloudy. PM; rain.

Tue 27 Froze a little through the night. Cloudy and very cold.

Wed 28 Very cold with high wind.

Mar 1 Still lcold and boisterous.

Fri 2 Bright and cold.

Sat 3 AM; cloudy and quite sharp. Snow toward night. HH went to Forest City on wagon.

Sun 4 Hail through night and still hailing this AM. PM; clears off. A squall near night. About 6 inches of hail and snow fell this storm.

[Mon Mar 5, 1906 to Sun Mar 25 missing]

Mon 26 A beautiful day. The wood haulers plowing the road on the lake. Clouds up near night.

Tue 27 Raining all day.

Wed 28 Clouds and sunshine. Cooler.

Thu 29 Fine and warm. Roads bad.

Fri 30 A beautiful day. Snow going fast. Clouds up and rains a little at night.

Sat 31 AM; about one inch of snow fell through the night and still snowing lightly.

Apr 1 Windy and cold with snow squalls.

Mon 2 Clear and cold.

Tue 3 My 69th birday. Clear and not so cold. I go to Geo Boone's on a visit and after spending nearly 3 weeks pleasantly, return home on Fri 20th.

Fri 20 Cloudy with light showers.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 21 Cloudy and dreary. Eve and I called on Dora W.

Sun 22 AM; drizzling rain. PM; cloudy. SS opens today.

Mon 23 Cloudy and cold.

Tue 24 Snow. Clears off and sun shines out bright at 3 o'clock. Roads in bad shape. Clouds up again at night.

Wed 25 Dreary with light snow.

Thu 26 Showery.

Fri 27 Clear in early morning but soon clouds up and is showery.

Sat 28 A fine morning. Gets cloudy.

Sun 29 Dreary and dull. PM; fine.

Mon 30 A fine morning but soon clouds up and is a rainy afternoon. HH goes to mill to work.

May 1 Sunshine and clouds. A shower of rain in forenoon. PM; cold, high wind. HH comes from mill this PM has to repair mill before he can saw.

Wed 2 Cloudy and cold, heavy frost last night. Light rain in evening.

Thu 3 Rain. Disagreeable all day.

Fri 4 Bright and cool. Froze last night. Clouds up near night.

Sat 5 Raining again this morning and continues all day.

Sun 6 Foggy and warm in early morning but soon clears bright and warm.

Mon 7 AM; cloudy. PM; fine.

Tue 8 AM; cloudy cold. PM; sunshine and cold wind..

Wed 9 Cloudy with a cold SSE wind. Ice left lake today.

Thu 10 A mild warm rain.

Fri 11 Clear and cold. Hugh McMinn fell dead between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning.

Sat 12 Clear and cold froze through the night. PM: rain hear night.

Sun 13 AM; hevyrain. PM; fine. Hugh McMinn buried today at 2 o'clock service conducted by Rev Feelan from the text "If a man die, shall he live again. Job 14:14.

Mon 14 Clear and cold.

Tue 15 Fine. Took dinner with Mrs P Lutz.

Wed 16 AM; cloudy. PM; clear. HH returns from F'ton where he has been with G McMinn.

Thu 17 AM; fine. PM; clouds up near night, rain. Allen Markey who went last Friday down Spednic Lake to Chas Gould's lumber drive to inform him of the death of H McMinn never reached there nor has he yet been found. It is feared he has sank in the lake as he went in a canvas canoe. Mr D Wood <sup>20</sup>died at 2 o'clock a.m.

Fri 18 A lovely lsummer day. Lightening in evening.

Sat 19 Cloudy. A thunder shower through the night. Lizzie and I go to Fosterville with HH. Sermond preached by Rev Meed from the words Blessed are the deat that die in the Lord. Some thunder and a little rain again this evening.

Sun 20 Clear and Cold.

Mon 21 Froze hard last night and is cold today.

---

<sup>20</sup>Daniel James Wood

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 22 Bright and a little warm.

Wed 23 Cloudy in morning but clears at noon and is fine.

Thu 24 Cloudy.

Fri 25 Sunshine and clouds.

Sat 26 Rain.

Sun 27 Rain. Rev F. held service.

Mon 28 Still raining all day.

Tue 29 Snow, hail and rain.

Wed 30 Cloudy and very cold. No wind.

Thu 31 Clear and cold. I go with HH to Chas V's to make a visit.

Jun 1 AM; fine. PM light thunder shower. HH put in the grain, 9 bu oats and his garden up to this time.

Sat 2 AM; fine and hot. PM; big thunder shower again. Henry Veysey took Alfred to Dr Love with sore hand.

Sun 3 Rain all day.

Mon 4 Clear and hot. Clouds up in afternoon. HH starts with G McMinn for Fredericton.

Tue 5 AM; cloudy and warm. I went to see Mr Wetmore who is quite sick.

Wed 6 Cloudy and smokey. PM; heavy rain.

Thu 7 Clear and cold. Mable Mclaughlin came on a visit.

Fri 8 Cloudy and cold wind. Allen Markey's body was found today on the Spednic Lake just four weeks since he left Forest City to carry a message to Chas Gould on the boom.

Sat 9 Fine and warm.

Sun 10 E Cosman held service in the church this AM/ Mable McLaughlin for home this PM. After SS I go to Forest City with her.

Mon 11 Fine. Am at G Boone's, F.City.

Tue 12 Fine weather for getting in the crops.

Wed 13 Came home this AM and found Nellie Webb here on a visit.

Thu 14 Fine and hot. Nellie and I spend the afternoon with Mrs Boone and Mrs Wetmore. Mag W very sick.

Fri 15 Still very warm. Nellie goes home.

Sat 16 A lovely summer day.

Sun 17 Fine. Service in church AM & PM led by EG W and EK.

Mon 18 Warm and sultry.

Tue 19 Very hot.

Wed 20 Not so hot as yesterday.

Thu 21 Very pleasant but dry.

Fri 22 Very hot and oppressive. PM: quite a heavy thunder shower. Mrs Leeman spend the day with us.

Sat 23 Cold and dreary.

Sun 24 A steady rain all day.

Mon 25 Cloudy and cold.

Tue 26 Clear and cool PM; hot.

Wed 27 A fine hot day.

Thu 28 Fine

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 29 A pleasant day. I attend the school examination. Thunder shower in the evening. Sat 30 Cloudy and dark. Jul 1 Pleasant cold nights. Mon 2 Fine. HH and E start for F'ton. Tue 3 Good growing weather. Wed 4 A rainy day. Thu 5 Fine and cool. Fri 6 Fine. HH and E came home. Maud and Amy Keirstead came with them. Sat 7 A beautiful day. Sun 8 Fine. Service in church AM conducted by Rev E Cosman. PM by Rev H Weatherby. Mon 9 Cloudy in morning but clears off and is nice and cool. Tue 10 Fine. G &amp; M Boone here. Wed 11 Heavy rain with some thunder in PM Thu 12 Heavy rain, thunder and lightening. Fri 13 A very hot day. G &amp; M Boone here with the whole family. Sat 14 Very hot. Yet I went to see May Wetmore and Mrs Boone this PM. The rest of the family went to the Thoroughfare Bridge on a picnic. Heat is oppressive. Sun 15 Very hot, some thunder at a distance in the PM. Mon 16 Not so very hot but still uncomfortable.	Tue 17 Cloudy in morning, but clears off at noon and is fine. Thunder shower in evening. Wed 18 Clear and comfortably cool. Thu 19 A nice cool day. Fri 20 Fine. Called on Mrs GF and WB. Sat 21 Clouds and sunshine. Heat very oppressive. Towards night a heavy thunder shower with rain and hail. Edgar Cropley's barn struck and badly shattered. Sun 22 Bright and very hot. Mon 23 AM; cloudy and dull. PM Rain. HH commenced haying. Tue 24 AM; sultry and cloudy. PM; cloudy. Wed 25 AM; cloudy and cooler. PM; fine. Thu 26 A lovely morning, a little hazy in PM. HH hauled first hay this afternoon. Fri 27 Clouds and sunshine. PM: clears off fine. Sat 28 AM; rather dull. Sun 29 Some clouds but cool and fresh. Service held in church by Mr Weatherby at 2:30 o'clock. Mon 30 A rainy day. Tue 31 Clears off. Aug 1 Fair hay day. Thu 2 Very hot, cool nights. Fri 3 Fine hay weather. Sat 4 Fine. PM; clouds up. Finished haying.
---	---

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 5 Cloudy. Went with HH to Fosterville to church held by Rev Rawley. Heard a lovely discourse from the text You must be born again. PM: attended SS and service held by Mr Weatherby during a very heavy thunder shower.

Mon 6 Very smokey and dull.

Tue 7 A very pleasant day.

Wed 8 A very hot day. Cool night.

Thu 9 Still hot. Water getting scarce.

Fri 10 Some cooler today but everything drying up.

Sat 11 We are having a fine rain this morning. PM;cloudy.

Sun 12 Had a hdavy squall of wind and rain through the night with thunder and lightening. This morning clear and cool.

Mon 13 Clear and cool.

Tue 14 Fine but not so warm.

Wed 15 Still quite cool.

Thu 16 A fine day, not warm.

Fri 17 A beautiful day. I washed.

Sat 18 Still lvely weather. Very dry, hot and smokey.

Sun 19 Very hot. AM; service in church by E Cosman. PM; by Mr Weatherby.

Mon 20 Very hot and dry.

Tue 21 Still very hot and light thunder showers near night.

Wed 22 Sunshine and clouds, a little thunder and lightening and rain in evening.

Thu 23 Very cloudy with NE wind. PM; a very heavy rain.

Fri 24 Clear and cold.

Sat 25 Pleasant.

Sun 26 Fine and cool. Service in the church in morning by Mr Cosman, in PM by Mr Weatherby assisted by Revs Young and Moor.

Mon 27 AM; cloudy wotj jogj SW wind. PM; drizzling, heavy rain near night. Mr Flewelling took dinner with us today.

Tue 28 Clear and cold.

Wed 29 Dark and cloudy.

Thu 30 Clear till near night when it clouds up and thunder shower in the evening.

Fri 31 AM; clear with fresh breeze. PM; cool.

Sep 1 Cold high wind.

Sun 2 Clear and cold. PM; clouds up, evening rain.

Mon 3 Rain.

Tue 4 Cold and squally.

Wed 5 A very pleasant day. Called on Mrs WV and Mrs CW.<sup>21</sup>

Thu 6 AM; dark and dreary. Cold. PM; small shower in evening.

Fri 7 Early morning bright but soon clouds up and is dark and cold.

Sat 8 Pleasant.

Sun 9 AM; cloudy and dark. Rain in the evening. Mr Weatherby preached his

---

<sup>21</sup>Probably Mrs Wesley Vantassel and Mrs Charles Wood.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

farewell sermon in church from the word,
Pray, this PM.

Mon 10 Fine and cool.

Tue 11 Fine today. I called on Mrs
Crone, Mrs Wetmore and Mrs Boone. HH got a load of buckwheat threshed.

Wed 12 Fine and cool. To see Mrs WB.

Thu 13 Fine. PM; cloudy with heavy SW wind.

Fri 14 Had thunder shower with heavy wind and rain through the night. This morning is clear with heavy wind.

Sat 15 Fine. HH getting in buckwheat and oats.

Sun 16 A fine coo. day. Rev Mr Young held service in the church, assisted by Rev
Mr Thompspon. The address from the word,
And the Lord said what is that in thine hand?

Mon 17 Windy and dismal.

Tue 18 This is a lovely morning. PM; a little cloudy.

Wed 19 A beautiful morning. Fine harvest weather.

Thu 20 Beautiful weather.

Fri 21 Mr Wetmore, Mr Boone and AW working at the flue.<sup>22</sup>

Sat 22 A very fine day. A little cloudy in afternoon.

Sun 23 AM; raining. PM; clear. Service held in church by Rev Thompson subject,
Peter's Confession of Christ.

---

<sup>22</sup>Tom, Alex and Art, Tom's son. Alex would have been about 79 at this time.

Mon 24 Clear and cold. A smart wind.
There is a white frost here this morning, the pumkin and cucumber leaves are wilted, but the flowers and plants are not touched. MC and CF are here. Ordered A I K's picture enlarged to be usual size and first class frame for $3.00.

Tues 25 A beautiful morning. Continues so all day.

Wed 26 A fine day.

Thu 27 Commences to rain 9:30 o'clock and rains till near night, then clears off.

Fri 28 A very fine day.

Sat 29 Fine till evening then a little rain and rains in night.

Sun 30 Fine.

Oct 1 A fine day. Washed.

Tue 2 A very fine day.

Wed 3 Fine.

Thu 4 Fine. I made Mrs Peck a visit.
Sent Starr Mc a letter today.

Fri 5 Foggy in morning but clears off soon and is fine.

Sat 6 To see Mable Buckingham who is sick. PM; cloudy.

Sun 7 Rain and high wind through the night and clear and cold with high wind all day today. Service in church by Rev
Thompson. Text from Luke 10:1.

Mon 8 Windy and cold. Dug potatoes.

Tue 9 Cloudy and cold. SE wind.

Wed 10 A heavy rain all day.

Thu 11 Cloudy and dreary. PM; clears off fine.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 12 A very fine day.

Sat 13 Very pleasant. Picking apples today.

Sun 14 A fine day.

Mon 15 Fine and warm.

Tue 16 AM; cloudy with cold least wind. PM; clears off and is fine.

Wed 17 A beautiful day.

Thu 18 A fine day. Called on Mrs Wilson and Mrs W Vantassel.

Fri 19 A fine warm day.

Sat 20 Rain. Clears up near night.

Sun 21 Clear but windy and rather cold. Service in church by Rev Thompson.

Mon 22 Clear in early morning but soon clouds up ;and rains all afternoon.

Tue 23 AM; rains. Stops raining about noon, clears off at night.

Wed 24 Clear with cool wind.

Thu 25 AM; raining till near night then clears off.

Fri 26 A beautiful warm day.

Sat 27 Cloudy.

Sun 28 Drizzling rain in morning, but soon clears off. High wind. Little Berl Crone died this evening.

Mon 29 Cold and dreary.

Tue 30 Cold. Berl Crone buried. Service held by Elder Flewelling. Text Mal 3:17.

Wed 31 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; snowing.

Nov 1 AM; still snowing. About 4 inches snow on ground.

Fri 2 A variety; snow, hail and rain all day. Thresher to work here.

Sat 3 Cold and dreary. Finished threshing.

Sun 4 Clear with high wind. No preaching service here today.

Mon 5 Clear with high cold wind.

Tue 6 A high cold wind.

Wed 7 AM; still cold and wind. PM; a little warmer.

Thu 8 Not so cold but high wind.

Fri 9 A very pleasant day.

Sat 10 Snowing this morning and continues all day.

Sun 11 The snow don't amount to much. Cloudy and windy.

Mon 12 Aboisterous snow storm. PM; still snowing. No mail tonight.

Tue 13 Mail arrived at 8 a.m.. Still cloudy with light flurries of snow all day.

Wed 14 Much the same as yesterday. A little thunder and lightening in the evening.

Thu 15 AM; the like weather continues, only a little warmer. Killed hog today.

Fri 16 Cloudy, high NE wind. Very bad roads.

Sat 17 Partly clear and colder. PM; gets a little warmer. Wesley Vantassel's baby died.

Sun 18 A lovely day. Geo Boone's family here. No service in church. Old Mr Markey

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

buried at Forest City. A very light shower in evening.

Mon 19 Another beautiful day.

Tue 20 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Wed 21 Clouds and sunshine.

Thu 22 Very cloudy and soon commences to rain.

Fri 23 Cloudy and high cold lwind.

Sat 24 Sunshine and clouds. Cold wind.

Sun 25 Quite a fine day.

Mon 26 A beautiful day for season.

Tue 27 Snowing. Continues till noon, then stops and is cloudy.

Wed 28 Bright but soon gets cloudy.

Thu 29 Cloudy with high wind.

Fri 30 Cold and dreary.

Dec 1 Quite cold with snow squalls.

Sun 2 Bright and very cold. I did not get to SS today.

Mon 3 Snow with cold high wind. From 2 to 3 inches snow fell.

Tue 4 Cold with real blizzard.

Wed 5 Fair day. Mrs W Vantassel here to dinner.<sup>23</sup>

Thu 6 A very fine day. I start for a visit to Forest City. I met many old friends and spent a very pleasant two weeks returning

Thu 20 which is cloudy and warm.

---

<sup>23</sup>Gertrude Wood, grand daughter of Alex Boone.

Fri 21 An all day's rain.

Sat 22 Cloudy and dreary.

Sun 23 Cloudy and cold with snow squalls.

Mon 24 Cloudy; at night snow.

Tue 25 Heavy wind all night. This morning, raining. A very dull christmas.

Wed 26 Cloudy but warm.

Thu 27 A very fine morning, but clouds up at noon.

Fri 28 Snowed a very little thu the night and is foggy cloudy and warm this morning.

Sat 29 Cloudy and dull

Sun 30 Quite warm and pleasant.

Mon 31 Cloudy. Rains at night, all night.

January 1, 1907 Cloudy, drizzly and warm. Knitting bee here.

Wed 2 A beautiful day. S Foster commences to carry mail today from Canterbury.

Thu 3 A lovely bright morning. PM; begins to cloud up again. Snows at night.

Fri 4 Raining again. PM; rain, clears off in evening.

Sat 5 Clouds and snow squalls, and sunshine.

Sun 6 Dark and colder. PM; gets warmer.

Mon 7 Very pleasant. HH and boys getting fire wood.

Tue 8 Sunshine and clouds. Knitting.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 9 AM; cloudy. PM; fierce wind and snow squalls.

Thu 10 Severely cold and drifting. HH went to Danforth with Charles.

Fri 11 Cloudy but not so cold.

Sat 12 Cloudy and looks like snow. PM; snow.

Sun 13 About 3 or 4 inches snow fell yesterday afternoon and last night, but is pleasant this morning. HH starts for Fredericton to attend Council and Probate Court.

Mon 14 Cloudy and appearance of a storm. 8 p.m. light snow. School commences.

Tue 15 AM; still cloudy and dark. PM; clouds and sunshine.

Wed 16 Bright and severely cold with high wind.

Thu 17 Clear and very cold. Roads badly drifted.

Fri 18 A very light snow all day. HH comes home from F'ton and G. Kierstead with him.

Sat 19 AM; clear. Near night snows again and turns to rain in evening.

Sun 20 Raining heavily this morning. Clears off at noon. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Mon 21 Clear and cold.

Tue 22 A fine day till evening then commences quite a snow storm.

Wed 23 About 3 or 4 inches of snow fell through the night but is clear again this morning. Windy and cold.

Thu 24 Clear and very frosty. Roy Veysey and family start for Boston.

Fri 25 Fine and cold. PM; cloudy, evening snow.

Sat 26 A very fine snow all day. No mail tonight.

Sun 27 Clear and cold. No service. Rev F attends Smith's funeral at Canterbury yesterday.

Mon 28 Clear and cold.

Tue 29 Fine. HH to Canterbury for load for Charles V.

Wed 30 Cloudy and warmer.

Thu 31 Bright and cold.

Feb 1 A beautiful day. HH, GHK, Mrs Foster and myself go to Forest City.

Sat 2 Cloudy lwith some hail. Drizzling hail and snow all day.

Sun 3 Clear with very high wind. PM; very cold.

Mon 4 Clear and cold. HH to Pemberton for hay for Charles' camp.

Tue 5 Light snow. Dr Folkins came to see May Wetmore who is very sick. He pronounced her case consumption and incurable. Heavy snow storm.

Wed 6 Cloudy all day.

Thu 7 Bright and fine. No mail.

Fri 8 Cloudy and sharp. Mail tonight.

Sat 9 Clear and fine. Occulist here.

Sun 10 A drizzly snow all day. Quite a blizzard in evening. Dr Barker came here at 11 o'clock p.m. nearly tired out.

Mon 11 Calm and pleasant but very bad roads.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 12 Clear and very cold. HH and GHK go to Chas' camp with oats.

Wed 13 A very fine day. Mrs E Buckingham died tonight.

Thu 14 Cloudy and soft.

Fri 15 A nice winter day.

Sat 16 Cloudy and warm. Mrs Buckingham buried this PM at 2 o'clock service conducted by Rev Weed from the words, Thou shalt come to the grave in a full age like a shock of corn cometh in his season. Job 5:26 Her husband is so sick he could not attend the funeral.

Sun 17 A light snow all day.

Mon 18 Clear after a very windy night. Men breaking roads.

Tue 19 Very pleasant till evening then a squall of wind and snow.

Wed 20 Clear but clouds up near night.

Thu 21 Cloudy and warm. From 2 to 3 inches of snow fell through the night.

Fri 22 Clear and cold.

Sat 23 Clear and very cold. HH goes to Chas' camp with oats.

Sun 24 Clear and cold.

Mon 25 AM; quite a snow storm through the night and still snowing. PM; squally with high winds. Mail left at 2:30 o'clock p.m.

Tue 26 We have had a wild blustery night and this a.m. still boisterous but sunshine. PM; cold wind. No mail came in tonight.

Wed 27 Cloudy and not quite so cold.

Thu 28 Cloudy and cold. No mail came in again tonight.

Mar 1 A fine winter day. Mail came 5:30 o'clock p.m.

Sat 2 Drizzling snow and hail all day. No mail tonight.

Sun 3 AM; hazy. PM; dull and cloudy.

Mon 4 Bright and cold. Mail went out 7:30 o'clock a.m.

Tue 5 A beautiful day.

Wed 6 A fine day. Den Foster moved his wood saw here this PM. We have just heard of the death of George Foster who died the 1st inst. Some two months ago he went to Colorado for the benefit of his health and died and was buried there.

Thu 7 Very fine morning, continues fine all day. No mail comes in tonight.

Fri 8 The mail came in at 8:15 this a.m. Cloudy. Snow squall in evening.

Sat 9 Clear and bright. Chas V broke up camp today.

Sun 10 A lovely Sabbath day but am no able to get to SS.

Mon 11 Beautiful weather but very bad roads.

Tue 12 Another fine day. Chas V paid Geo Boone $100 this morning for his winter's wages.

Wed 13 Cloudy and soft.

Thu 14 Squalls of snow. PM; snowing quite heavy.

Fri 15 Light snow.

Sat 16 Clear and cold. Went on a visit to C. Veysey.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 17 High wind thro the night and all day today. I attended service at Fosterville. Rev Mr Rowley spoke from Matt 4:3.

No entries Mar 18 to Mar 25, on a visit.

Tue 26 Clear and cold. Returned home from CV's after a very pleasant visit.

Wed 27 Dark and cloudy.

Thu 28 AM; rain.

Fri 29 Pleasant. Raods very bad.

Sat 30 Cloudy, looks like rain. Roads in very bad state. Mail did not come again tonight. Stopped with Mrs Wetmore.

Sun 31 Cleared off fine again. PM; fine. Roads very soft. Mail arrived at 6 o'clock p.m.

Apr 1 Cloudy again. PM; snow.

Tue 2 Still snowing lightly. PM; cloudy. No mail tonight.

Wed 3 A fine bright morning. I am 70 years old today. Last night's mail came in tonight at 6 p.m.

Thu 4 A beautiful day. Clouds up in evening.

Fri 5 A soft snow. PM; rain and snow.

Sat 6 Clear and cold with high wind. May Wetmore died at 11:30 o'clock a.m.

Sun 7 A lovely morning and continues so all day.

Mon 8 Fine. Gets cold at night.

Tue 9 AM; snowing. PM; heavy wind and snow.

Wed 10 A wild storm of wind and snow. May Wetmore buried at 2 p.m. Service conducted by Rev J Flewelling. No mail tonight.

Thu 11 Wind and cloud with light flurries of snow. PM; clears off fine.

Fri 12 A beautiful day.

Sat 13 AM; fine. PM; clouds and wind.

Sun 14 There was a heavy wind all night and continues all day.

Mon 15 Clouds and quite cold.

Tue 16 Dark and cloudy.

Wed 17 A fine spring day. I went with HH and GHK to Forest City.

Thu 18 A fine warm day.

Fri 19 A beautiful spring day.

Sat 20 Fine, but terribly bad roads. I was to see Mrs W Vantassel who is very sick. Squally.

Sun 21 Clear and cold wind.

Mon 22 Avery fine day. Terrible bad roads. First waggon on the road today.

Tue 23 A lovely day. Snow goes off fast today. Clouds at night.. HH shingling. No mail.

Wed 24 Raining. Clears off at night.

Thu 25 Clear and cold.

Fri 26 Raining again all day.

Sat 27 Cloudy and dreary. PM; fine.

Sun 28 Bright and warm.

Mon 29 Foggy and drizzling. PM; cloudy. Saturday's mail came tonight.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 30 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. No mail again tonight.

May 1 Cloudy and cold wind.

Thu 2 Cloudy. HH takes photographs to Forest City.

Fri 3 Cold and dreary. Froze hard through the night. PM; clears off.

Sat 4 Cloudy again. Not so cool.

Sun 5 Clear with a very cold wind. Froze hard last night.

Mon 6 Windy and cold. At W Vantassel's.

Tue 7 A beautiful day. GHK pruning orchard.

Wed 8 Clouds and sunshine.

Thu 9 Not too bad today.

Fri 10 Cloudy with cold wind. Ice breaks up in lake.

Sat 11 Dreary and cold. PM; snow squalls.

Sun 12 Clear and very cold. The lake is clear of ice.

Mon 13 Cloudy. PM; light showers.

Tue 14 Windy and cold.

Wed 15 Cloudy.

Thu 16 Looks very much like rain. Noon. Heavy rain. PM; slacking up. Went with HH to Forest City, attended Circle at Mrs Boone's.

Fri 17 Rained very heavy through the night but clears off and is fine and warm today.

Sat 18 A fine day. GH Kierstead and I visited at Mrs T Westmore and Mrs A Boone.

Sun 19 A very fine day. Geo and Maud Boone here today.

Mon 20 A cold high wind. GH Kierstead starts for home this morning. PM; a heavy wind squall but little rain.

Tue 21 Cold and dreary. A heavy frost last night. Sowing oats.

Wed 22 Very cold for time of year.

Thu 23 No so cold. HH finishes sowing oats. Service held in church by Rev Hamilton.

Fri 24 Clear and cold. Planting potatoes.

Sat 25 Still cold. Preparing for [ ? ]

Sun 26 Pleasant but cold. Service in church by Rev J. Flewelling.

Mon 27 Cloudy. HH planting potatoes and turnips, finished both.

Tue 28 A lovely rain, much needed.

Wed 29 Rains all day. Mrs Wesley Vantassel died at 2 o'clock p.m.

Thu 30 Still cloudy and cold. Clears off at noon and very cold.

Fri 31 Cloudy and cold. The mail courier wore mitten this morning.

Jun 1 A lovely morning. Mrs Wesley Vantassel buried at 2:30 p.m. Service by Rev Thompson from James 4:14

Sun 2 Fine and warmer. Service in church at 3 p.m. conducted by Rev Thompson and in evening by Rev Hamilton from Luke 10:25.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 3 Still fine. Service again this evening by Mr Hamilton.

Tue 4 A lovely sunshine day. HH and boys to work at mill. Service in evening by Mr H. Text from 2 Samuel 9:7.

Wed 5 Cold and cloudy. Preaching by Mr H in evening. Discourse from the 2 chapter of Mark.

Thu 6 AM; high wind and rain. PM; clears off warm. Service in church by Rev Hamilton from text contained in Ex 13:13.

Fri 7 Clouds up again. Mr Hamilton leaves for home but leave an appointment for Sunday the 23 inst. HH to work in mill.

Sat 8 Cloudy. PM; showery. Went with GV to Forest City.

Sun 9 Continual rain all day.

Mon 10 A cold dreary day.

Tue 11 Cold and windy. HH and boys to to Forest City for fire brick.

Wed 12 A fine day. HH plowing for buckwheat.

Thu 13 A very pleasant day.

Fri 14 Pleasant. PM; thunder shower.

Sat 15 Sunshine and clouds.

Sun 16 Cloudy in early morning, but clears off and is pleasant. Service in church held by Rev Thompson; discourse from Ex 12:13.

Mon 17 Clear and quite cool.

Tue 18 Very hot. HH and G goes to Canterbury Station for load for Charies Veysey.

Wed 19 A very fine day. Not so hot as yesterday.

Thu 20 There was some rain in the night. Still cloudy.

Fri 21 A heavy thunder shower in the early morning. Cloudy till 10 a.m. then clears off fine. A school picnic held in P Lutz's orchard this evening.

Sat 22 A very hot day. Vegetation growing fast. Everything looks beautiful.

Sun 23 Fine. No preaching service. We expected Rev Hamilton but he failed to come.

Mon 24 Quite hot but cloudy. Thunder shower in evening.

Tue 25 Heavy thunder shower in the morning, distant thunder most of the afternoon.

Wed 26 Cloudy and cooler. PM; drizzly

Thu 27 Rain through the night and cloudy and foggy this forenoon. A heavy thunder and rain all afternoon.

Fri 28 Cloudy with chilly wind. Miss Cliff finished her school here today and left.

Sat 29 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Sun 30 Rain all day. Service church by Rev Flewelling.

Jul 1 AM; heavy rain. PM; rain stops but continues cloudy. HH starts for Fredericton.

Tue 2 Foggy and dull in morning. Afternoon cloudy, evening, rain.

Wed 3 Rain in early morning. Cloudy remainder of day.

Thu 4 A lovely day. HH home from Fredericton.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 5 A fine summer day. I was to see Mrs Wetmore and Mrs Boone. A terrible electric storm.

Sat 6 A fine hot day. I went in double team with HH out to see Charles' folks.

Sun 7 Dark and cloudy with a chilly south wind. PM; a thunder shower.

Mon 8 Cloudy and cold. I went to Chas' Veysey on a visit.

Tue 9 AM; pleasant. PM; heavy thunder shower and lightening with rain and hail in some places.

Wed 10 Pleasant returning home.

Thu 11 Fine. I go to Forest City and meet Mable Lovely and her husband there.

Fri 12 A rainy day, pot pleasant for the Orange celebration.

Sat 13 Cloudy and dark. Robbie and Mable start for home.

Sun 14 A fine day. I return from Forest City.

Mon 15 Fine and cool.

Tue 16 Cloudy in morning. PM; fine. HH to mill.

Wed 17 Cloudy with SW wind. PM; extremely hot.

Thu 18 Still very hot.

Fri 19 Not quite so hot today.

Sat 20 A pleasant day.

Sun 21 There has been quite a rain through the night and cloudy today. Service in church conducted by Mr Part[uchy]?

Mon 22 Cloudy and cool. Commenced haying.

Tue 23 Dark and cloudy till noon then rains all afternoon.

Wed 24 Dark and cloudy.

Thu 25 AM; very heavy rain. PM; very dark and cloudy.

Fri 26 Heavy rain all day.

Sat 27 A thunder shower in the night, dark and cloudy this morning. PM; squally. Mrs Hugh McMinn very sick.

Sun 28 Cloudy and cold. PM; showers. Services 2 p.m. by Rev Thompson and in evening by Rev Flewelling.

Mon 29 Still cloudy. PM; thunder showers.

Tue 30 Clouds and sunshine. PM; thunder showers again. No weather for haying since Monday 22nd.

Wed 31 Still cloudy and drizzling. PM; sunshine, evening thunder shower.

Aug 1 Cloudy. PM; very heavy thunder lightening and rain.

Fri 2 Clouds and drizzling. Mrs Hugh McMinn died this morning at 2 o'clock.

Sat 3 AM; cloudy with some thunder. PM; clears off fine.

Sun 4 AM; cloudy with wome rain. AT 10:30 rains very heavy and continues all day and till late in the night. Mrs Hugh McMinn buried at 2:30 o'clock services conducted by Rev Thompson from Proverbs 4:18, Prayer by Mr Partridge. (See Jul 21 entry re Partridge.)

Mon 5 AM; fine. PM; we see showers pass around but a very little here.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 6 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. A heavy shower from about 5 til 9 o'clock in the evening.

Wed 7 Cloudy and dull yet. I attended the 20th anniversary of Mr and Mrs Abram Collier's marriage. Mr Odbur Foster and Mrs Henry Pray were married yesterday. Thunder showers in night.

Thu 8 Dull in the morning. Clears off at noon and is fine.

Fri 9 A fine hot day.

Sat 10 A fairly good hay day again.

Sun 11 AM; fine. PM; a heavy thunder shower with hail and rain.

Mon 12 AM; foggy and dark. Cloudy in the afternoon.

Tue 13 Heavy thunder and lightning through the night and cloudy this morning, wind south. Terrible bad haying weather. PM; clears off fine for curing the hay.

Wed 14 Another fine hay day.

Thu 15 Very pleasant weather.

Fri 16 Rather dull this morning, but clears off fine.

Sat 17 Looks very much like rain. Men hauling hay this a.m. PM; rain.

Sun 18 AM; fine. PM; showery. Service held in the church by Rev Partridge.

Mon 19 AM; clear and cold. PM; gets warmer, evening gets hazy.

Tue 20 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off fine.

Wed 21 Just a fair hay day. Went with George to Forest City. Made a day's visit at George Boone's. Rev Thompson and wife took tea with us.

Thu 22 AM; hazy and cool. PM; fine.

Fri 23 A beautiful day.

Sat 24 Fine and cool. Wind SE.

Sun 25 AM; rain. early morning, some thunder. PM; pleasant. G & M Boone here.

Mon 26 Early morning rain. PM; fair. Took tea with Mrs A Boone.

Tue 27 Sunshine and showers.

Wed 28 A fair hay day. Chas and Sophia Veysey here.

Thu 29 Fine in early morning but soon clouds up and is cold and dreary.

Fri 30 Cloudy and cold.

Sat 31 A fine day. HH and Harry gone to Danforth for oil.

Sep 1 Dark and cloudy. Showers toward evening.

Mon 2 Dreary and cold. HH gone to work in mill. Faucetts sheds and establishment at Butterfield Landing burned [...]

Tue 3 AM; raining. A disagreeable day for Council elections.

Wed 4 Another day's rain. School commences. Chas F. Boone as teacher.

Thu 5 Still raining a little. Thunder in early morning. PM; steady rain.

Fri 6 Dark and dreary. Heavy thunder shower in evening.

Sat 7 Clouds and sunshine.

Sun 8 Fine and warm.

Mon 9 Clear. I go with HH to make a visit to Geo Boone's. Spent a very pleasant

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

fortnight. The Baptist Quarterly meetings were held during the time. Three were baptized.

Sun 22 A pleasant day. Returned home from Forest City tonight.

Mon 23 Steady rain all day from 10 o'clock.

Tue 24 Cloudy, clears off at noon and is fine with high WW wind. Heavy thunder shower in evening.

Wed 25 Cloudy with showers. Very heavy wind.

Thu 26 AM; bright and cold. PM; Ditto. Mrs J.L. Gould died this morning about 2 o'clock.

Fri 27 Bright but very cold and unpleasant.

Sat 28 Very cold for time of year. Mrs J.L. Gould buried 2:30 o'clock this p.m. services conducted by Rev McDonald assisted by Rev Thompson. Text from Rev 3:11.

Sun 29 Cloudy. Service in church at 2 p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 30 Cold and cloudy. PM; rain.

Oct 1 Cold and cloudy with occasional light showers.

Wed 2 Clear with light frost at night. I spend part of today with Mrs T. Wetmore very pleasantly.

Thu 3 A fine day and not so cold.

Fri 4 AM; dark and foggy. PM; a steady rain. At Mrs H Boone's quilting.

Sat 5 A beautiful day but cold. I went with the boys to see Charles' folks.

Sun 6 A very pleasant day. Divine service held in the church by Rev Thompson.

Mon 7 Cloudy and rain.

Tue 8 A very heavy wind all night and today a terrible wind and rain. Bad harvest weather.

Wed 9 Clear and cold.

Thu 10 Fine and a little warmer. PM; clouds up again.

Fri 11 AM; dark and cloudy. PM;ditto.

Sat 12 Raining again and so much grain out yet. Some must be spoiled.

Sun 13 Fine in morning but clouds up again in PM.

Mon 14 Rain through the night and a little this morning. Clears up about noon and is fine the remainder of day.

Tue 15 Fine and warm.

Wed 16 Another clear morning. HH goes to Canterbury to get the writings done for the sale of the mill place at the thoroughfare.

Thu 17 A beautiful day, fine for the farmers who have not in all their harvest.

Fri 18 AM; fine and warm. PM; a regular blizzard. I took dinner at Fred Wood's.

Sat 19 Cold with high wind.

Sun 20 Cold and cloudy. Service in church conducted by Rev Thompson.

Mon 21 AM; cold and dreary. William H. Foster fell dead at his camp on Pirate Brook.

Tue 22 Cold and dreary.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 23 Pleasant and warm. WH Foster buried at 2 o'clock this p.m. Funeral services conducted by Rev Marr from John's gospel 14:1.

Thu 24 Pleasant but cold. Finished getting in turnips and beets. A Wetmore and Harry plowing.

Fri 25 Cloudy and cold.

Sat 26 A skit of snow in early morning but sun soon shines as is cold with high north wind.

Sun 27 Cold and cloudy, wind SW. Service in church by Rev Flewelling in evening.

Mon 28 Drizzling rain.

Tue 29 AM: rain. PM; heavy rain. Wind NE.

Wed 30 Snow through the night and still snowing. Clears off in PM.

Thu 31 Fine. Knitting bee here.

Nov 1 A beautiful day. Killing hog.

Sat 2 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off fine. Went with HH to Danforth and had 8 teeth drawn.

Sun 3 AM; rain. PM; squally.

Mon 4 AM; cloudy with squalls of rain and snow. PM; same with glimpses of sunshine.

Tue 5 Froze through the night and is fine this morning.

Wed 6 Dull and mostly cloudy. Rain in evening.

Thu 7 Rain all day. Thunder shower near night.

Fri 8 Cloudy and dreary. Very bad roads.

Sat 9 A lovely day.

Sun 10 Rain again all day.

Mon 11 Fine and warm. HH goes to Woodstock and St Stephen. PM; clouds up again.

Tue 12 A very pleasant day but there was a skit of snow through the night.

Wed 13 Clear and cold.

Thu 14 A very cold south wind.

Fri 15 A very pleasant day. Took tea with Mrs W Boone.

Sat 16 A lovely day. HH getting firewood.

Sun 17 Pleasant but cold.

Mon 18 Cloudy with cold south wind.

Tue 19 A pleasant morning. I go with HH to Forest City for a visit to Geo Boone's and spend over two weeks with them and their children who are very kind to me. I have been glad to see many old friends. Returning on Fri 6 day of December.

Sat 7 Cloudy with SW wind.

Sun 8 Pleasant. Young Moody drowned in Grand Lake.

Mon 9 Cloudy. HH brought his organ home.

Tue 10 Heavy rain all day.

Wed 11 Rain in morning. Cloudy remainder of day. The new mail was dispatched to Forest City this morning and returned in the evening.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 12 Cloudy. There was a snow squall in the night.

Fri 13 Clears off cold. Yesterday's mail came in at 4:30 o'clock this p.m. No mail left today.

Sat 14 Clear and cold. No mail tonight again. Clouds up at night.

Sun 15 Snows all day but not more than 5 inches fell.

Mon 16 Partly cloudy a little snow at night.

Tue 17 Cloudy. HH and CW goes to St. Stephen.

Wed 18 AM; light snow. PM; cloudy.

Thu 19 A fine day.

Fri 20 Cloudy all day.

Sat 21 A very pleasant day. HH commences scaling logs for FH Todd and Son.

Sun 22 Nice pleasant weather.

Mon 23 AM; cloudy. PM; rain.

Tue 24 AM; cloudy with rain squalls. PM; cloudy with cold NW wind. CF Boone and Pearl Taylor married at Canterbury Station this morning. Brings home his bride this evening. And H Henry Veysey and Mary M Cliff were married at Kingart, Kingsclear this evening. Proposes coming home 26th to supper.

Wed 25 A nice warm Xmas day but bad roads, neither waggoning nor sledding, so little snow. No mail went out today.

Thu 26 Cloudy and warm. H Henry and bride arrive home about 4:30 o'clock and had a supper at his father's to which HH & family and myself all went.

Fri 27 Very soft and warm.

Sat 28 Still cloudy and warm with a very little rain.

Sun 29 A very nice day.

Mon 30 AM; light snow. Much needed but turns to rain at 4 p.m.

Tue 31 Cloudy, high north wind.

January 1, 1908 A very fine day.

Thu 2 Sunshine and clouds quite cold.

Fri 3 A beautiful day.

Sat 4 A lovely morning. Clouds up at noon and snows in evening.

Sun 5 About 2 or 3 inches of snow through the night. Still cloudy with light squalls of snow and high wind. PM; Wind still furious.

Mon 6 AM; calm and cloudy. PM; clears off fine.

Tue 7 A lovely day. HH to Forest City to mill with buckwheat. PM: clouds up, rains in evening.

Wed 8 Rainy. PM; clears up.

Thu 9 A beautiful day but no snow on the ground.

Fri 10 Quite cold and cloudy. Looks like a storm. Evening clouds clear.

Sat 11 A lovely day. Bare ground yet.

Sun 12 Looks very much like a storm. PM; light snow.

Mon 13 From 2 to 3 inches of snow on ground and still looks stormy.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 14 AM; clouds with light snow squalls. PM; clears off.

Wed 15 Bright and cold. Evening gets cloudy.

Thu 16 Snowing. Evening clears off. HH hauling wood this p.m.

Fri 17 A beautiful morning. Somewhat cold.

Sat 18 Fine morning. HH scaling logs up the Lake. PM; very pleasant. Henry and wife take tea with us.

Sun 19 Clear and cold with a high wind. Very cold.

Mon 20 The wind fell through the night but is still very cold and cloudy.

Tue 21 Looks very much like a storm and is warmer.

Wed 22 Warm and foggy. PM; a little rain. Clears off at night.

Thu 23 Bright and fine. Not cold.

Fri 24 Cloudy and cold again.

Sat 25 A light flurry of snow early. 10 a.m. clears off and is fine.

Sun 26 A lovely day. Service held in the church by Rev Flewelling. Clouds up again in evening.

Mon 27 AM; heavy rain. PM; rain.

Tue 28 AM; bright with rather a cold lwind. PM; pleasant.

Wed 29 Snowstorm.

Thu 30 Cold and very blustery. About inches of snow fell yesterday and through last night. No mail came in tonight.

Fri 31 Clear and frosty. No mail went out.

Feb 1 Cloudy and very cold. Thursday's mail came in this a.m. 9:30 o'clock.

Sun 2 Still snowing, but wind has fell and it is not so cold. PM; frequent squalls. 7 inch snowfall.

Mon 3 Clear and cold.

Tue 4 HH scaling logs for Chas Veysey. No mail from Canterbury tonight.

Wed 5 Still clear and cold. Mail from Canterbury came in at 7:30 p.m.

Thu 6 Snowing lightly wind SE. Still snowing. Mail ls that should of went to Forest City yesterday went and returned today.

Fri 7 Bright and warm. PM; light snow squalls. I was at Mrs Geo McMinn's hooking bee.

Sat 8 A beautiful morning and still fine in PM.

Sun 9 A fine cold day.

Mon 10 AM; cloudy, not so cold. A political meeting at Fosterville in interest of the Conservative Party is held this evening.

Tue 11 A beautiful day. Mr Kneeland's remains were taken past here today and buried beside his wife in Forest City.

Wed 12 Another fine day. HH scaling at Forest City.

Thu 13 Cloudy and warm this morning.

Fri 14 Still foggy and warm.

Sat 15 Raining. All day's heavy rain.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 16 Cloudy. Wind WNW.. Snow all gone but the banks. Clears off about noon and is fine.

Mon 17 This is a beautiful morning. Dora Wood and Nina Foster spent the day with us.

Tue 18 There was a flurry of snow in the night but is a lovely morning.

Wed 19 Cloudy. A log marker came here last night and went in to Charles Veysey's camp this morning. A Mr Finnamore. Snow in evening.

Thu 20 About 6 in snow fell last night. Not snowing this morning, but cloudy.

Fri 21 A beautiful day. Not very cold.

Sat 22 Fine. Some thin clouds.

Sun 23 A fine day. Service held in church conducted by Rev J Flewelling.

Mon 24 A very warm beautiful day.

Tue 25 Lovely weather and good roads. The lumbermen enjoy it very much.

Wed 26 Clouds up again this morning.

Thu 27 Still looks stormy.

Fri 28 Cloudy. PM; clears off.

Sat 29 A beautiful cold day.

Mar 1 A beautiful Sabbath day.

Mon 2 AM; appearance of a storm. PM; 5 or 6 inches of snow fell.

Tue 3 Sunshine and clouds with light snow squalls. Local election today results: Conservatives, 84; Liberals, 31. No mail tonight.

Wed 4 Fine. Last night's mail came in tonight.

Thu 5 A beautiful March day.

Fri 6 Another beautiful day. Gets cloudy towards night.

Sat 7 Has snowed through the night, 2 or 3 inches, and is still coming a soft sleet. Wind SE. PM; light snow.

Sun 8 Bright and fine.

Mon 9 Cloudy. PM; clears off.

Tue 10 Bright and cold.

Wed 11 Fine and quite cold. PM; clouds up again.

Thu 12 Cloudy and dull but warmer.

Fri 13 A lovely March morning. Clouds up and high wind.

Sat 14 Some rain through night. Cloudy this morning. Wind W. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Sun 15 Cloudy with a raw, cold southerly wind. Mary Veysey took tea with us.

Mon 16 Some rain throu the night but is fine this morning. Snow nearly all gone and most of the teams are leaving the woods.

Tue 17 A fine cold morning. Froze hard last night.

Wed 18 A fine March morning. PM; clear. Mrs S and Mrs T howe spnd the afternoon with us.

Thu 19 AM; snowing. Snows all day, about 5 or 6 inches fell.

Fri 20 AM; fine. PM; clouds up.

Sat 21 A fine cool day.

Sun 22 A very fine day. George, Maud and baby Boone spend the day with us.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 23 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Tue 24 Rain through the night, cloudy in early morning but clears off before noon and is fine and warm.

Wed 25 A bright cold morning. PM; begins to look hazy.

Thu 26 `Very heavy W wind with snow squalls.

Fri 27 Some rain through the night and early morning. Later, heavy wind.

Sat 28 Some rain this morning. Drizzling rain all day.

Sun 29 AM; cloudy. PM; snowing. Hiarm and Charles start for St Stephen.

Mon 30 From 3 to 4 inches snow fell yesterday and last night. Fine and warm today.

Tue 31 A lovely March day. Mrs A Boone spent part of the day with us.

Apr 1 There was an inch or tow of snow fell thro the night. Today is bright with a cold NE wind.

Thu 2 Snowing and blowing again this morning. PM; snowing.

Fri 3 Still snowing, but don't make much on the ground.

Sat 4 Very cold with high N wind. We have just heard of the death of Mrs William McAlister.

Sun 5 Bright with a very cold wind.

Mon 6 Dark and cloudy. Andrew Howe took tea with us.

Tue 7 Cloudy and warm.

Wed 8 Bright and pleasant. We heard last night that Lydia Fish is dead and buried. A heavy snowstorm in afternoon. Most of us are sick with grippe.

Thu 9 About a foot of snow fell and is still snowing. PM; sunshine and snow squalls.

Fri 10 A lovely bright morning. Clouds up in afternoon.

Sat 11 Very cloudy and soft. PM; wind and rain squalls.

Sun 12 We have had a terrible wind through the night and is very heavy yet. PM; still heavy wind. SS commenced again.

Mon 13 Clear and cold.

Tue 14 A bright cold morning. Was very heavy wind through the night. PM; gets cloudy.

Wed 15 Partly cloudy and cold. PM; cloudy. Evening rain.

Thu 16 Clears off in the night. Cold and very heavy wind this morning, bright and cold.

Fri 17 A fine cold day.

Sat 18 Still clear and cold.

Sun 19 AM; clear not so lcold. Rev Thompson preached in afternoon and evening the church. PM; clouds up.

Mon 20 Clear and cold again. HH and Harry start for Fredericton and St. Stephen. Rev Thompson and wife take tea with us.

Tue 21 A little snow in the night. Bright and cold still.

Wed 22 Clear and cold. Freezes hard at night.

Thu 23 Fine and some warmer.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 24 Still cold and dry.

Sat 25 Cloudy and soft.

Sun 26 A beautiful day.

Mon 27 Fine weather. Terrible bad roads. Some thunder and lightning yesterday afternoon and through the night.

Tue 28 Cloudy and cold, east wind. PM; heavy rain. No mail.

Wed 29 Cloudy and warmer. PM; cloudy.

Thu 30 Clears off in night and is a lovely morning but in PM clouds up again.

May 1 Has been a terrible windy night with some rain. Rain in the morning with heavy rain till near night.

Sat 2 Quite a heavy frost last night but is calm and clear this morning. PM; clear. Ice in lake badly shattered. No mail tonight.

Sun 3 Early morning rain and snow squalls and rain all day. Ice left the lake today.

Mon 4 Bright and cool. Froze through the night.

Tue 5 Clear and cold. NW wind. HH starts for St Stephen.

Wed 6 Clouds and sunshine. Some warmer.

Thu 7 Some cloudy. HH gets home.

Fri 8 Raining.

Sat 9 Still raining. Wind east.

Sun 10 A little rain in early morning. PM; clear. I attend SS.

Mon 11 Fine. I start for a visit to Geo Boone's at Forest City and return after a pleasant visit on Sun 24 and attended the funeral of Alfred Vantassel's baby.

Mon 25 Clear and pleasant. We hear this morning of the death of Mrs Prat McKinney at Danforth.

Tue 26 Fine and hot. PM; cloudy. Evening rain.

Wed 27 Rain.

Thu 28 Still raining. All day, rain.

Fri 29 Very cold and raining.

Sat 30 AM; light rain. PM: sunshine and clouds.

Sun 31 AM; rain. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Jun 1 Some rain through the night and very cloudy this morning. 9 a.m. rain and continues all day. Very little crop in ground yet.

Tue 2 Still raining.

Wed 3 Cold. HH to Canterbury for waggon. Frosty.

Thu 4 Sunshine and clouds. Cold.

Fri 5 Clear and cold for June.

Sat 6 A nice warm day. HH plants potatoes, corn and pumpkins.

Sun 7 Warm and pleasant. Service in church conducted by Rev Thompson. Text Hosea 10:12. O. Buckingham stricken down with some kind of shock while eating dinner today.

Mon 8 Very pleasant. OB no better.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 9 Very hot. HH puts in garden.

Wed 10 Cloudy and cool this a.m. Light thunder shower this evening.

Thu 11 Fine with a cool breeze.

Fri 12 Cloudy and cool.

Sat 13 Hot. I go today with HH to see Mrs Wood who is nearly 89 years old and is well and smart as many younger women.<sup>24</sup>

Sun 14 Pleasant. Geo Boone and twins here. O Buckingham still very sick. Throat paralyzed so that he has not been able to eat anything since he was taken [ill].

Mon 15 Foggy and cooler. O Buckingham died this morning.

Tue 16 A day's steady rain.

Wed 17 High winds. Very cold. Obediah Buckingham buried today. Service held by Rev McDonald assisted by Rev Thompson. Text Acts 17:31.

Thu 18 A beautiful day.

Fri 19 A fine cool day. Thunder showers in late evening. Pea hen set.

Sat 20 Very pleasant. Helped clean the church.

Sun 21 Pleasant and cool.

Mon 22 Bright and rather cool. I go for a visit to Chas Veysey's. After a pleasant visit return on

Fri 26 a very pleasant day.

Sat 27 Fine and hot.

---

<sup>24</sup>Probably referring to Mary Wood, Daniel's wife.

Sun 28 Fine. Service in church conducted by Rev Flewelling.

Mon 29 A beautiful cool day. In the evening was a thunder shower. Very little rain here but in other places there was heavy rain and hail.

Tue 30 A very pleasant morning. A shower of rain in the evening.

Jul 1 Pleasant. Mrs Earnest Foster left Danforth for Bangor to have an operation performed for an enlargement in her side.

Thu 2 Fine. Thunder in the afternoon.

Fri 3 Bright in morning, but soon clouds up. PM; sunshine and cloudy.

Sat 4 Dry and hot.

Sun 5 Cloudy and cool. Thunder shower in evening. Service by Rev Thompson.

Mon 6 Bright and cool. PM; hot.

Tue 7 A very hot day.

Wed 8 Not so hot. PM; a heavy thunder shower. Service by Rev Flewelling [... ]

[Jul 9 to Jul 18 missing]

Sun 19 Cloudy with light showers of rain.

Mon 20 AM; Cloudy. Quite a shower at noon. PM; I went with Geo Veysey to Forest City. PM; clear and bright.

Tue 21 Fine and warm. I washed this morning. Picked berries in afternoon.

Wed 22 Rain all day. Service in church by Rev Thompson.

Thu 23 Bright and hot. PM; fine. Evening shower.

Fri 24 AM; dark and cloudy. PM; partly clear.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

- Sat 25 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off.
- Sun 26 A fine warm day.
- Mon 27 AM; fine till 10:30 then we had a light shower; clear till about four then light showers and sunshine till night.
- Tue 28 A fine hay day.
- Wed 29 Foggy in morning then comes out bright.
- Thu 30 Extremely hot.
- Fri 31 A very hot day. Light shower in PM and evening.
- Aug 1 A lovely cool morning. PM; fine. HH finished haying today.
- Sun 2 A fine cool day, somewhat cloudy.
- Mon 3 Fine and cool.
- Tue 4 A lovely cool day. Comfortable for hayers.
- Wed 5 Cloudy with very high S wind.
- Thu 6 Rain in early morning, clouds and sunshine the remainder of day, but clouds up and rains in evening and all night.
- Fri 7 Clouds and sunshine till evening when we have a thunder shower and rain most of the night. I took dinner with Mrs A Wetmore and tea with Mrs F. Wood.
- Sat 8 Cloudy with frequent showers. Bad weather for hay makers who are not done.
- Sun 9 A fine cool day. Rev Thompson held service.
- Mon 10 A beautiful day.
- Tue 11 Another hot day.
- Wed 12 A little rain thro the night but fine again today.
- Thu 13 Raining.
- Fri 14 A very pleasant day. I start for a visit to K's County and arrive there at 2 o'clock p.m. after a pleasant journey. Charles Veysey wife and Lizzie V. accompany me and after making a very enjoyable visit and seeing many old friends, return on
- Mon 24 stopping off at Danforth, ME and Fosterville till
- Thu 27 Accompanied with my sister and husband.
- Fri 28 A beautiful day.
- Sat 29 Fine. My sister and I visit Mrs Fred Wood.
- Sun 30 Pleasant. George and Maud Boone & Fred and Dora Wood spend the day with us.
- Mon 31 A very pleasant cool day.
- Sep 1 A beautiful cool day.
- Wed 2 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. Evening, rain. HH, Wellington Johnson and Amy and myself go to make Geo Boone's a visit.
- Thu 3 AM; rain. PM; cloudy.
- Fri 4 A very pleasant day.
- Sat 5 Fine. Go with W and A Johnson to Chas Veysey's.
- Sun 6 Cloudy in the afternoon. W and A Johnson go to Danforth, ME from whence they will start for home tomorrow morning. Rain in evening.
- Mon 7 Rain thro the night. Pleasant this morning. Fine with heavy wind all day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 8 Clear and cool. Mrs G Leeman very sick.

Wed 9 A very fine day. Warmer.

Thu 10 Clear, very hot and smokey. To see Mrs L. No better.

Fri 11 Fine. HH reaping buckwheat and mowing oats.

Sat 12 Fine and a little cooler. I attended a SS picknic at Fosterville this PM, gotten up by NL and Fosterville schools for help to pay minister Thompson.

Sun 13 A fine day.

Mon 14 Fine with a cold high wind. HH and T Wetmore start for F'ton to attend Liberal Conserative convention.

Tue 15 A lovely cool day. Mrs Leeman a [no further comment written]

Wed 16 A fine day. HH comes home from F'ton.

Thu 17 Hot and very smokey. Sawing wood.

Fri 18 A fine warm day. I call on Mrs Geo Leeman who is very sick.

Sat 19 Fine. HH finishes sawing wood.

Sun 20 Fine cool day. Rev Thompson preached in church.

Mon 21 Cloudy with thunder showers thro the day.

Tue 22 Fine and pleasant again this morning but still very smokey.

Wed 23 Still very hot and dry. Service by SMT.

Thu 24 Not so hot as yesterday, but a heavy smoke. We have so far escaped the forest fires here, but the smoke comes in very dense.

Fri 25 Very pleasant.

Sat 26 Still hot and dry. A great scarcity of water.

Sun 27 Very hot and smokey. Service in the church conducted by Rev J. Flewelling from 1 chapter and 15 verse of Ezekiel.

Mon 28 Looks a little like rain. Finished digging potatoes.

Tue 29 A beautiful rain all lday. Hiram sold lambs to O Kilpatrick.

Wed 30 A fine bright morning. I go to stay with Mary and the boys a few days while Charles and Sophia are on a visit to Glassville. I return after a very pleasant visit.

Oct 9 AM; foggy. PM; cloudy. Evening, rain.

Sat 10 Fine and cool. HH pressing hay.

Sun 11 Heavy rain. No Sabbath School.

Mon 12 AM; cold, clouds and squalls. PM; clear and very cold.

Tue 13 Clear and cold. Carrie Hayse died last Sunday and was buried today.

Wed 14 Clear and cold. Our outdoor flowers are killed with the frost.

Thu 15 Very warm and pleasant.

Fri 16 Fair weather. Daughter born to Mary Veysey.

Sat 17 Still dry and hot. Was in to see Mrs Leeman.

Sun 18 Fine and very smokey. Mrs Leeman died at nine o'clock this morning.

Mon 19 Very cold high wind.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 20 Still cold. Mrs Leeman buried today.

Wed 21 Fine and some warmer. Very smokey.

Thu 22 A very pleasant day. Air still filled with smoke.

Fri 23 A lovely day. Took dinner with Mrs A Boone.

Sat 24 Fine. Called to see Henry V's wife and baby.

Sun 25 Some clouds and cool. Very smokey.

Mon 26 Cloudy. Dominion election.

Tue 27 Heavy rain all day.

Wed 28 A fine day. I go for a visit to Forest City and after spending a very pleasant time and seeing many of the friends there, I return on Sunday

Nov 8 AM; fine. PM; clouds up with rain in evening.

Mon 9 A very pleasant day.

Tue 10 Rained a little thro night. Pleasant today.

Wed 11 Dark with frequent showers.

Thu 12 AM; cloudy and dull. PM; clears off with high wind.

Fri 13 Fine and bright.

Sat 14 A pleasant day. HH killed hogs.

Sun 15 AM; rain with snow squalls.

Mon 16 Fine again this morning.

Tue 17 Fine. Took dinner with Dora Wood.

Wed 18 Clear and cold. Noon, clouds. PM and evening, 2 inches snow fell.

Thu 19 Quite cold this morning, but clouds up at noon. HH starts for St Stephen on Chas' business.

Fri 20 Dark and cloudy all day.

Sat 21 Bright and cold.

Sun 22 A beautiful day. Service held in church by Rev McDonald.

Mon 23 Warm and foggy. Very muddy roads.

Tue 24 Still foggy.

Wed 25 AM; cloudy. PM; raining. GB came for Mrs W.

Thu 26 Raining.

Fri 27 A fine day. Went with HH to Geo Boone's.

Sat 28 A fine windy day. Roads very muddy.

Sun 29 Fine. Service in church conducted by Rev J Flewelling from St. John 6:9.

Mon 30 Pleasant cool day. Mud pretty well frozen up.

Dec 1 Some rain thro night. Dark and cloudy today. PM; bright and beautiful, like a summer day.

Wed 2 Fine and cold with high wind.

Thu 3 Clear and cold. Still a gale.

Fri 4 Cloudy and cold. An inch or two of snow in evening.

Sat 5 Bright and clear.

Sun 6 Beautiful cold day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 7 AM; snows two or three inches then turns to rain and takes all the snow off.

Tue 8 A lovely bright day.

Wed 9 A bright cold day. Josh Fish's little boy died this PM.<sup>25</sup>

Thu 10 Still clear and cold.

Fri 11 Bright in morning, soon clouds up and PM snows. J Fish's little Willie buried.

Sat 12 Light snow falls all day. 4 or 5 inches.

Sun 13 A lovely day. Service in church conducted by Rev T McDonald. Text 1 Peter 2:1-3.

Mon 14 Sunshine and quite cloudy.

Tues 15 Warm and cloudy. PM; skit of snow.

Wed 16 A lovely morning. PM; still fine.

Thu 17 Beautiful weather. Boys hauling wood.

Fri 18 Cloudy. PM; a light snow.

Sat 19 A very fine day.

Sun 20 AM; fine. PM; snow squalls.

Mon 21 AM; cloudy. PM; snowing.

Tue 22 Clear and very cold.

Wed 23 Still cold.

Thu 24 Cold. Gets warmer and snows in evening.

Fri 25 Snowing lightly till noon then turns to rain. A pleasant christmas day.

Sat 26 A dark cloudy day with skits of snow. HH and I go to Charles's, and Gladys McLaughlin comes home with us.

Sun 27 Still lsoft and cloudy. Gladys and I take tea with Mrs Geo McMinn.

Mon 28 A very pleasant day.

Tue 29 Fine. Geo V and I go to Forest City.

Wed 30 AM; fine. PM; clouds up, evening, snow.

Thu 31 Cloudy with a very light snow.

Jan 1, 1909 Windy and cold. PM; pleasant.

Sat 2 A fine cold day.

Sun 3 Cloudy and not so cold. Service held in the church by Rev T. McDonald. Text from 1 Cor 6:20.

Mon 4 Clouds and mild wind from south. Miss Alma G[looks like lim] commences to teach school.

Tue 5 Am; very cloudy and soft. PM; heavy rain.

Wed 6 Heavy rain thro the night. Snow mostly all gone and still raining. Clears off in afternoon fine and warm.

Thu 7 We have heard this morning that Wesley Kinney died yesterday at Danforth, Maine after a long illness of consumption. This is a lovely bright day, wind a little sharp.

Fri 8 A bright cold day.

Sat 9 A fine day but no snow on the ground.

Sun 10 Soft and warm. A light snow falling. Wesley Kinney buried today at

---

<sup>25</sup>Boy's name "Willie", or William.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fosterville. Service conducted by Rev T McDonald, text Rev 22:5.

Mon 11 Soft and drizzling. Wind south. Salome DeWitt died suddenly last night.

Tue 12 AM; very cloudy. PM; Wind NE. Snow.

Wed 13 About 3 or 4 inches snow fell thro the night and yesterday afternoon. Today is clear but very cold. Salome DeWitt buried.

Thu 14 Clear and cold. Henry and Mary make us a visit.

Fri 15 AM; looks stormy but clears up and is fine in PM.

Sat 16 Very cold. Not enough snow to make hauling.

Sun 17 Light snow. PM; rather a wild storm.

Mon 18 From 6 to 8 inches of snow is supposed to have fallen but there was such a high wind the amount could not be accurately judged. Clear and cold today. No service last evening on account of storm.

Tue 19 Bright and fine. Not so cold as it has been.

Wed 20 A beautiful winter's day.

Thu 21 Bright in morning but soon gets cloudy. HH goes with first load to Chas' camp. PM; clouds and sunshine, wind south.

Fri 22 Fine and warm.

Sat 23 A light snow all day. 4 or 5 inches fell.

Sun 24 A fine day but bad roads.

Mon 25 Snow again today.

Tue 26 Snowing. No mail tonight.

Wed 27 A fine day. Last night's mail came in 8:10 o'clock this a.m.

Thu 28 Quite cold with high N wind. No mail tonight. Very bad roads.

Fri 29 AM; clear. Last night's mail arrives at 8:05 o'clock this a.m. No mail went out.

Sat 30 AM; cloudy. PM; snow again. No mail.

Sun 31 Cloudy and drifting. No service or SS.

Feb 1 AM; cold and high wind. PM; milder.

Tue 2 Clear and cold.

Wed 3 Clear and quite cold. I washed today.

Thu 4 Cloudy and cold.

Fri 5 AM; still cloudy, but warmer. PM; cloudy.

Sat 6 AM; very foggy. PM; rains a little.

Sun 7 A very fine day. A lot of snow gone. No religious service today, only S School.

Mon 8 Clouds and sunshine.

Tue 9 A bright cold day.

Wed 10 Snow and hail till night then turns to rain.

Thu 11 Cloudy and dark. Froze thro the night. PM; sunshine part of the time.

Fri 12 A fine day. Last night's mail came in at two o'clock this p.m.

Sat 13 AM; cloudy, wind south west. PM; clears off. No mail tonight.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 14 Clear and cold. Service in church by Rev T McDonald. Mail arrived 2:45 p.m.

Mon 15 Snowing. A light snow all day.

Tue 16 Still snowing tonight. Said to be a foot of snow fell. No mail came from Canterbury.

Wed 17 Cloudy with light snow squalls.

Thu 18 AM; fine. PM; fine. Mail came in at 6:00 o'clock.

Fri 19 Clouds and sunshine. No mail left for Canterbury.

Sat 20 A day's steady rain. No mail again.

Sun 21 A bright day with high wind.

Mon 22 Mail started for Canterbury this morning. A very fine day. Went with HH to Charles'. Spend two days.

Tue 23 A beautiful day.

Wed 24 Returned in a snowstorm this a.m. Turns to rain in PM.

Thu 25 Cloudy with snow squalls and high wind.

Fri 26 Bright with cold north wind.

Sat 27 A beautiful day. Rev T McDonald takes dinner with us.

Sun 28 A perfect Sabbath day.

Mar 1 A very fine day.

Tue 2 Light snow all day.

Wed 3 A fine cold day. Clouds up at night.

Thu 4 A light snow.

Fri 5 Some rain thro the night. Very cloudy today.

Sat 6 AM; clear and cold. PM; high wind, north.

Sun 7 A beautiful day. No service or SS school. Last night's mail came in 9:25 o'clock this a.m.

Mon 8 A fine March day. CV's teams commenced hauling bark across the lake.

Tue 9 A pleasant day till night, then cloudy.

Wed 10 A rainy day. Mrs James Cropley died Tues at 2 a.m.

Thu 11 AM; squally. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Fri 12 Cold and blustery. Mrs James Cropley buried at 10:30 a.m.. Discourse from Job 14:14.

Sat 13 A perfect March day.

Sun 14 Very fine. No service or SS today.

Mon 15 Fine. HH starts for St. Stephen.

Tue 16 Still fine. I was up to see Effie Vantassel who is very sick with consumption.

Wed 17 Cloudy with snow squalls. PM; snow.

Thu 18 AM; cloudy with high wind. PM; milder.

Fri 19 AM; cold with high wind. PM; milder.

Sat 20 A pleasant day. No mail arrived.

Sun 21 AM; hazy with light flurries of snow. Evening, snow.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 22 About 2 inches of snow fell thro the night. Today, snow squalls with high wind. No mail went out today but came in from Canterbury Station tonight.

Tue 23 Cold high wind. Washed today.

Wed 24 Clear and cold.

Thu 25 AM; clear and warmer. PM; clouds up.

Fri 26 Heavy rain and wind.

Sat 27 Cloudy and wrm. No mail came in.

Sun 28 Very dark with rain and snow. No SS. Service in evening by Rev T McDonald.

Mon 29 Dark and squally. No mail left this morning.

Tue 30 Dreary and cold. PM; warmer. Mail came.

Wed 31 Sunshine and squalls. Circle sewing at Mrs Lutz's.

Apr 1 Rather cold and windy.

Fri 2 Pleasant. Millage Wood starts with the mail this morning.

Sat 3 Dull and lowering. Mrs McLaughlin died this morning. I am 72 years today. PM; clouds. Evening, snow.

Sun 4 A wild wind and snow storm.

Mon 5 A lovely spring day.

Tue 6 Dark and drizzling.

Wed 7 Still cloudy. PM; rain and showery. Concert and pie social in church at which was realized [amount not recorded] for benefit of church fund.

Thu 8 AM; soft and cloudy. PM; gets colder with high wind.

Fri 9 AM; cloudy. PM; snow.

Sat 10 Cloudy with light snow squalls.

Sun 11 A beautiful day. Not warm for season.

Mon 12 Fine. Snow going fast.

Tue 13 A lovely day. Gets hazy toward night.

Wed 14 A rainy day. Snow nearly all gone.

Thu 15 A steady rain till evening when it lightens up but soon clouds again.

Fri 16 AM; cloudy. Clears up at noon and is fine. First wagons of the season out today.

Sat 17 Snowing again and snows all day.

Sun 18 AM; pleasant. PM; cloudy. Some four or five inches snow fell yesterday and last night. Nearly all gone now. A litter of pigs thro the night.

Mon 19 Rainy day. Some thunder and lightning at 6 p.m.

Tue 20 Clear and quite cool.

Wed 21 Fine. Gladys McL, Lizzie V and myself went with HH to Forest City. Bad road.

Thu 22 Cloudy.

Fri 23 Clear. Gladys and Lizzie cleaning my room.

Sat 24 Clear and cold. Charles V gone into Pirate Brook to fix up for driving logs.

Sun 25 Fine and cold. Don't feel well enough to get out to SS or preaching service held by Rev T McDonald. Commenced to snow in evening. 4 inches fell.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 26 AM; cloudy, with light snow squall. Gladys McL left for home this morning. PM; clears off fine and cold.

Tue 27 Clear and cold in morning, but gets warmer thro the day. Freezes hard at night.

Wed 28 Snowing again this morning but melts nearly as fast as it comes.

Thu 29 A very cold day. NW wind. Ground froze hard again this morning.

Fri 30 AM; cloudy. Sun dogs on 3 sides of sun and many light circles in sky. PM; snow.

May 1 Very cloudy and cold. PM; rain.

Sun 2 Clears off but is cold. Service in church by Rev McDonald; also in evening which ends a series of meetings held every evening this last week, but last night.

Mon 3 Cloudy with a cold wind.

Tue 4 Rain. Albert Robinson of Forest City dropped dead.

Wed 5 AM; very foggy. PM; rain.

Thu 6 Cloudy with rain showers.

Fri 7 Sunshine and clouds. HH sr and H Jr to Forest City.

Sat 8 AM; cloudy. PM; warmer and fine.

Sun 9 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.

Mon 10 Very dark and foggy. PM; clears off with heavy SW wind. Ice left the lake.

Tue 11 Raining again this morning. PM; rain. Thomas Wood's house burned down, Large part of contents saved.

Wed 12 Bright with cold north wind.

Thu 13 Still clear and cold. Geo Boone goes to Canterbury Station for express wagon. I went out with HH to see Mrs Cropley and some other of our sick neighbors. We have just heard that Wm McAlister of Orient, Maine, died at Houlton, Maine where he had gone to spend the winter.

Fri 14 Cloudy, dreary and cold again this a.m. PM; glimpses of sunshine. Heavy thunder shower in evening.

Sat 15 Clear and cold with heavy NE wind.

Sun 16 Quite clear but cold. Effie Vantassel<sup>26</sup> was buried this PM at 2 o'clock. Rev T McDonald preached funeral service, text from 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17.

Mon 17 AM; cold and dreary. PM; clears off and is warm.

Tue 18 AM; pleasant. George, Maud Boone and two children spend the day with us. Rev McDonald holds service in church this evening.

Wed 19 AM; cloudy.

Thu 21 Very dark and cloudy.

Fri 22 AM; still keeps cloudy. HH does first plowing.

Sat 23 Clear and cold. HH harrowed his wheat ground and ploughed garden. Nothing in ground yet.

Sun 23 Clear but windy and cold. Henry and Mary are with their baby for dinner; likewise Dora with her baby.

Mon 24 Still cold. I go to Forest City to make a visit with friends there and after a very pleasant visit, return

---

<sup>26</sup>Effie Peck, first wife of Alfred Vantassel.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Jun 8 Still cold with some frost on the nights. Forest fires are raging badly around us, but fortunately not here. Wesley Cropley and May Hall married this PM at Maxwell by Rev McDonald. First telephone pole planted between North Lake and Canterbury Station at HH Veysey's today.

Wed 9 Geo and Maud Boone return from the wedding.

Thu 10 Everything is getting very dry, yet it keeps cold. HH finished putting in crop.

Fri 11 Pleasant and cool. The whole county enveloped in smoke. I went out to see Mrs D Cropley who is very sick.

Sat 12 Still no rain. Mrs D Cropley died at 8 o'clock this evening.

Sun 13 Pleasant but quite cool.

Mon 14 A little rain thro night and early morning. Mrs David Cropley buried this PM at 2 o'clock. Preaching from the text she hath done what she could. A nice shower of rain this evening with very little thunder..

Tue 15 Cold and cloudy. I go on a visit to Charles and Henry Veysey's and after spending the week very pleasantly, returned home on Sun 20 and attend SS in the afternoon.

Mon 21 Bright and pleasant. Boys working on the road.

Tue 22 Hot weather. Light thunder in evening.

Wed 23 Heavy showers thro the night. Very hot today.

Thu 24 Heavy thunder showers thro the night again which have done very much good both in putting out fires and to the crops.

Fri 25 Quite hot again today, but pleasant breeze.

Sat 26 Pleasant with a cool breeze.

Sun 27 A very pleasant morning. Service held in church conducted by Rev Flewelling, his farewell sermon. Text 1 John 3:13.

Mon 28 A nice cool day. Showery in afternoon.

Tue 29 Heavy thunder shower in night and still raining this morning. PM; cloudy.

Wed 30 A lovely bright day not too hot. PM; showery. Attended the school exams. Miss Alma G.....school closes today.

Jul 1 A very pleasant day. Geo and Veysey Boone here.

Fri 2 Clouds and sunshine. Very cold for July. I spend the day with Mrs A Wetmore and Mrs Fred Wood.

Sat 3 Raining again this morning. Heavy rain all day.

Sun 4 Cloudy and cold. Service in church held by Rev T McDonald. Text St John 10:10.

Mon 5 Very cold and partly cloudy. PM; showery with some thunder and hail.

Tue 6 AM; clear and cold. PM; thunder showers.

Wed 7 A fine cool morning.

Thu 8 Cool and somewhat cloudy. PM; thunder showers till late in evening.

Fri 9 Clear with cool breeze and light shower at 2 o'clock. PM; clears off hot.

Sat 10 A very pleasant morning. HH cultivating potatoes.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 11 Very cloudy. 9:30 commences to rain; rains till 4 p.m. then sunshine and clouds till night.

Mon 12 Cloudy and dark with a smart wind all day. Cultivating turnips.

Tue 13 Much the same as yesterday.

Wed 14 Pleasant. Weeding turnips.

Thu 15 Cool and comfortable. A shower in early morning.

Fri 16 AM; shower early. Dark and cloudy. PM; showers and thunder.

Sat 17 Bright and fine. PM; heavy showers.

Sun 18 A beautiful sabbath day. Wesley Buckingham's 1 month baby girl died on Friday evening and was buried this p.m. at 2 o'clock. Rev T. McDonald conducted the service.

Mon 19 AM; cloudy with distant thunder. PM; thunder showers till night.

Tue 20 AM; cloudy. Noon, heavy showers till something after 2 o'clock, then cloudy till night.

Wed 21 AM; clear and cool. PM; one whole day without rain.

Thu 22 Cloudy again but no rain today. Commenced haying.

Fri 23 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; showery.

Sat 24 Cloudy with frequent showers.

Sun 25 Opens bright and clear but at noon comes up a thunder shower and showers go around through the PM. Rev T McDonald performed the ordinance of Baptism for five candidates, viz. EW Peck and wife, Mrs Mary Foster, Mrs Rachael Wood and myself, EAV. I pray God will bless each one and enable us to live as becomes the followers of Jesus Christ.

Mon 26 Fine with a nice cool breeze.

Tue 27 Much the same as yesterday. HH hauled the first of his hay, 6 loads.

Wed 28 A beautiful hay day. Very hot.

Thu 29 Fine with a cool breeze.

Fri 30 A light shower in the night but fine today.

Sat 31 A lovely cool day.

Aug 1 Fine service in church conducted by Rev T McDonald. Text II Cor 12:9.

Mon 2 Fine. Beautiful haying weather.

Tue 3 Cool and pleasant.

Wed 4 A very hot day.

Thu 5 Much cooler and some clouds today. HH finished haying.

Fri 6 Still continues dry and warm.

Sat 7 Very hot. Everything needs rain badly.

Sun 8 AM; hot. PM; thunder showers.

Mon 9 Showers thro the night and cloudy this morning. PM; fair. In evening, a business meeting held in the church for the purpose of securing services of Rev McDonald. Vote at $125.

Tue 10 Heavy shower in early morning with some thunder and lightning showers through the day. Roy Veysey's little boy, Lawrence, died at Danforth today.

Wed 11 Clear with a cold high wind. HH and E left for K's and Albert Cos to make a visit.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 12 Fine. Little Lawrence Veysey brought from Danforth and buried at Fosterville.

Fri 13 Roy Veysey died at Danforth about 11 o'clock this a.m.. Father of Lawrence.

Sat 14 A very hot day.

Sun 15 A beautiful day. Roy Veysey buried at 2 p.m. Rev McDonald assisted by Rev CT Phillips conducted the service from the words, Be still and know that I am God. Service in the evening in the U.B. Church conducted by Rev CT Phillips. After service he gave the right hand of fellowship and received six into the church membership. A full house.

Mon 16 A fine day. Service in church tonight.

Tue 17 Partly cloudy. A cool pleasant day. Elder Phillips here sick but able to go to the church and shold service.

Wed 18 Raining. PM; cloudy and drizzly. Elder Phillips quite sick but attends service this evenint. Text Mat 25:25.

Thu 19 Very foggy. PM;fine. Service in church.

Fri 20 A pleasant day till evening then a very heavy thunder shower. Rev T McD here. Service in church. Lillie and children here.

Sat 21 Clouds and sunshine. Elder Phillips still quite sick but holds service this evening.

Sun 22 A nice cool day. Service in church is conducted by Elder Phillips who is quite sick yet. Afternoon at Fosterville and in evening in church here, held service and communion after which he left for Forest City on his way home. He was assisted by Rev TM Thompson.

Mon 23 A fine cool morning but gets hot in the afternoon.

Tue 24 A fine cool day.

Wed 25 Cloudy with light showers. Evening, heavy shower with some thunder.

Thu 26 AM; cloudy and dull all day.

Fri 27 AM; rain. PM; cloudy and dull.

Sat 28 Fine and cool. HH and Eva came back from Kings on Thursday accompanied by GH Keirstead. Conference held in church today the first for some years.

Sun 29 A bright beautiful morning. PM; showery.

Mon 30 Very cold for season.

Tue 31 A very pleasant day. Boys mowing oats.

Sep 1 AM; cloudy. PM; rain. Prayer meeting in church. Started sewing circle again today.

Thu 2 Cloudy but clears off fine.

Fri 3 Pleasant. Called on Mrs Boone and Mrs Wetmore.

Sat 4 Clouds and sunshine.

Sun 5 Cloudy in nmorning. PM; high wind and rain. Service in church conducted by Rev T McDonald. Text Mat 10:30.

Mon 6 Heavy wind all night. Clear with high wind today. Called on Mrs P Lutz.

Tue 7 Clear with cold high wind. Municipal election today. PM; cloudy with light squalls. Result of election is T Wetmore, 51; HH Veysey, 46; R Clark, 44; G Farrell, 34; G Gould, 34; D Croypley, 22.

Wed 8 A fine cool morning.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 9 Cloudy in morning but clears off fine.

Fri 10 AM; foggy. PM; fine. Evening, rain. A pie social and ice cream held in church proceeds were $33.85.

Sat 11 Rain thro the night and still raining lightly.

Sun 12 A pleasant cool day. SS at 10:30 o'clock. Prayer meeting in evening.

Mon 13 AM; fine.

Tue 14 Cloudy all day.

Wed 15 Very dull. PM; clouds and sunshine. Prayer meeting in evening, well attended.

Thu 16 A little rain in night, cloudy this morning. Wind south. Amber Smith's baby girl born.

Fri 17 A dark day. PM; HH and H start for St Stephen. Mrs Wm Boone's twins born today.

Sat 18 AM; fine. Clouds up about noon. PM; cloudy.

Sun 19 Quite cool but pleasant. SS at 10:30 o'clock a.m. No other service till evening, then prayer service.

Mon 20 AM; clear and cool. PM; get cloudy. HH sells sheep to O Kilpatrick. This PM I go for a visit to Charles and Albert Veysey's returning on Saturday. Henry Veysey's wife had a son born Thu 23, inst.

Sat 25 Drizzling rain. Returned from CV's this a.m. Conference held in church, a poor attendance but a good service.

Sun 26 AM; raining. Service in church at 11 o'clock conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Pro 29:18. Heavy rain all day.

Mon 27 Heavy wind and rain all night and still continues very heavy. Rain all day.

Tue 28 Still blowing and raining and has thro the night. Heavy rain all day.

Wed 29 Still raining. This is the 4th day of continuous rain. PM; lightens up some.

Thu 30 Still dark but no rain. I go out to Chas Veysey's for a few days and return on Oct 4 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; clears off fine. Rev McDonald held service on Sabbath evening the 3 inst.

Tue 5 A lovely day. HH hauled in wheat. Geo at Chas'.

Wed 6 A fine harvest day.

Thu 7 A fine day. Two men claiming to be mormans spoke in the church on Mormonism this evening.

Fri 8 A very hot day for time of year.

Sat 9 Still dry and hot. GHK taken very sick with cramps. Dr Folkins came at 11 p.m.

Sun 10 Very hot. Mercury stood at 104 FH in sun. Dr. F left about 6 p.m. Not much changed in George only not in so much pain.

Mon 11 Heavy fog and damp. Charles V's men moved in the wood this morning.

Tue 12 Still cloudy. GH improving slowly.

Wed 13 Fine. HH and boys digging potatoes. Prayer meeting in evening.

Thu 14 A clear cool day. Digging potatoes.

Fri 15 A day's steady rain.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 16 Clears off thro the night and is quite cold with high wind. Pulling turnips.

Sun 17 A very high cold wind. Service in church this p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald. Text from Ephesians 6:13. Prayer meeting in the evening.

Mon 18 A fine day. HH pulled turnips.

Tue 19 Finished digging potatoes.

Wed 20 Cloudy in morning but clears off fine at noon. HH, GHK, and HA picking apples. Prayer meeting in evening, conducted by Rev McDonald.

Thu 21 A perfect day. Services all day and in evening in church conducted by Miss Ash, a lady missionary assisted by Rev McDonald. We hope there may be much lasting good done.

Fri 22 AM; raining. PM; Cloudy. Service again in the church conducted by Miss Ash this evening.

Sat 23 A little rain in early morning and still continues cloudy and warm thro the a.m. PM; same. Evening service in church conducted by Miss Ash after which she leaves.

Sun 24 All day's rain. SS in morning, prayer M in evening.

Mon 25 AM; rain and dull. Thanksgiving day but a thankful heart can give thanks under any circumstances.

Tue 26 A beautiful bright morning with a cold northern wind. Banking house. Last night frost killed most of our outdoor flowers.

Wed 27 A beautiful day. George K and I go for a visit to G Boone's at Forest City and after a very pleasant visit and seeing several of our old friends return on

Fri Nov 5 The day is cloudy and dreary. Rev T McDonald held service church on Sabbath eveing, Oct 31 whilst I was absent.

Sat 6 Quite cool with snow squalls.

Sun 7 A beautiful day. SS in the church. Prayer meeting in the evening.

Mon 8 AM; cloudy. PM; heavy rain. Threshing.

Tue 9 Bright and cold wind.

Wed 10 AM; bright. PM; some clouds.

Thu 11 A perfect morning. Clouds up in the PM.

Fri 12 Very dull and stormy looking in the morning and continues all day.

Sat 13 Still very soft and cloudy. Lizzie and I beechnutting.

Sun 14 A beautiful day. SS and prayer meeting.

Mon 15 A perfect day. HH butchered hogs. Lizzie and I beechnutting.

Tue 16 Fine and colder. GHK and I take dinner with Mrs A Boone.

Wed 17 A day's steady rain after a little snow in the morning.

Thu 18 Cloudy and cold. Quilted circle [...] in church today.

Fri 19 A fine day. Rather cold wind.

Sat 20 Cloudy and storm like.

Sun 21 A very pleasant day. SS at 2 p.m. Service held by Rev T McDonald. Text II Tim 2:9.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 22 A beautiful forenoon but clouds up in afternoon and hails in evening. Mrs Foster, Mrs Howe and myself, beechnutting.

Tue 23 Had some rain thro the night. This morning warm with high SSW wind and cloudy. PM; about the same.

Wed 24 Colder with NE wind. Prayer meeting.

Thu 25 A steady rain all day.

Fri 26 Cloudy and warm.

Sat 27 A very fine day. Conference in church. Elder McDonald met with us.

Sun 28 Cloudy and dark. Service held in church conducted by Rev T McDonald.

Mon 29 A cold blustery day.

Tue 30 Still cold and high wind.

Dec 1 Cloudy in morning. Before noon, snow and high wind. Prayer meeting in evening. Rev T McDonald attended.

Thu 2 A light snow fell all day. Circle met in church and quilted a quilt.

Fri 3 About 3 inches snow on ground. Cloudy all day.

Sat 4 Cloudy and soft. HH helping D Foster thresh. Mr J Crone cut badly.

Sun 5 Snow all gone and roads in terrible state. Service in church conducted by Rev T McDonald.

Mon 6 Still cloudy and soft. Very muddy. Went with HH to Charles Veysey's.

Tue 7 It is quite clear this morning and has frozen some thro the night.

Wed 8 Snow thro the night and this a.m. PM; cloudy. No prayer meeting this evening.

Thu 9 Still cloudy and dreary.

Fri 10 Cold and partly clear.

Sat 11 Clear and cold. Went with HH to see J Crone who is slowly mending from his hurt.

Sun 12 Clear and cold. Service held in church at 11 o'clock conducted by Rev T McDonald from Ps 16:6.

Mon 13 Cloudy and looks like a storm. Wind NE.

Tue 14 Snow till night then turns to rain. HH hauling wood. A daughter born to Mrs P Lutz.<sup>27</sup>

Wed 15 Partly clear and soft.

Thu 16 Froze a little thro the night. Pleasant and warm this morning. HH hauling wood for Mr Wetmore. 2 cords.

Fri 17 Cloudy but mild.

Sat 18 Not very cold but squally.

Sun 19 Moderately cold with snow squalls.

Mon 20 A perfect winter's day. HH hauling school wood.

Tue 21 Cold and squally.

Wed 22 A light snow all day. Prayer meeting in evening attended by Elder McDonald.

Thu 23 Not very cold but squally. Chas V broke up camp for christmas today.

Fri 24 Some cloud but pleasant.

---

<sup>27</sup>Lottie.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 25 A beautiful christmas day.
Monthly conference held in church attended by Rev T McDonald. A few members.

Sun 26 AM; light snow. PM; snow increases. Service in church by Rev
McDonald.

Mon 27 Clear with cold wind NE. 6 or 7 inches snow fell yesterday and last night.

Tue 28 A perfect day for time of year.

Wed 29 Very fine, a little cold. I go with Harry and Hiram A for a day's visit to Geo
Boone's at Forest City. Prayer meeting, Rev
McDonald attended.

Thu 30 Very cold.

Fri 31 A very pleasant day. The end of the year 1909.

Sat Jan 1, 1910 Fine till evening, then clouds up.

Sun 2 A skit of snow thro the night and still cloudy all day. Service in the church this p.m. conducted by Rev T McDonald.

Mon 3 AM; cloudy. PM; some sunshine.
Chas V's lumbermen go back to camp. HH hauls first load of supplies.

Tue 4 AM; snowed 2 or 3 inches thro night and is cold and blustery this morning.
No mail.

Wed 5 Wind fell thro the night. Is calm all day but cold this morning. HH takes a load to camp. No mail goes to Canterbury.
No prayer meeting tonight.

Thu 6 Some snow thro the night. This a.m. a light rain. HH takes a load to camp.
PM; a calm light snow.

Fri 7 AM; still snowing a little. Clears off in evening. HH takes load to camp.

Sat 8 A beautiful winter day. In the evening we allgo but HH to Chas Veysey's to see Alfred Veysey and Hattie Boone married at 5:30 o'clock. Rev T McDonald performed the ceremony.

Sun 9 A fine day. HH starts for St
Stephen.

Mon 10 A very light snow and blustery all day till near night when the sun shines but is still cold and windy.

Tue 11 Quite cold but fine. HH comes from St Stephen this p.m.

Wed 12 Fine and cold. HH starts for a week's job scaling for the Pulp Co at George Clark's landing. GH Keirstead and I go to Mrs Fred Wood's and take dinner and call on Mrs A Boone's folk's on our way home.

Thu 13 A beautiful day. I am washing.

Fri 14 Fine and cold.

Sat 15 Clear and very cold.

Sun 16 A very fine day. HH goes to Fredericton and GH Keirstead starts for home.

Mon 17 A lovely day.

Tue 18 AM; a light soft snow. 4 p.m.
turns to rain.

Wed 19 AM; a little rain but clears off about noon and is fine and warm. The rain thro the night took off much of the snow.

Thu 20 A fine day. Sewing circle at Mrs
Cosman's.

Fri 21 Cloudy and soft.

Sat 22 AM; a drizzling rain. PM; heavyrain. Snow going fast. HH home from F'ton.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 23 A very fine day. SS and P meeting in the PM and service in evening conducted by Rev T McDonald. Text Rev 1:4-6.

Mon 24 Like a day in spring. Wagons are in [...]

Tue 25 Cloudy and warm. I was down to see Dora Wood's baby who is sick with chicken pox.

Wed 26 Very soft and warm. Snow nearly all gone. Prayer meeting in evening attended by Rev McDonald.

Thu 27 Raining and unpleasant all day. Evening, snow.

Fri 28 A little snow thro the night but clear and warm till evening then turns some colder. A Wiberly takes his sick horse home today.

Sat 29 A light snow till 10 .m. then turns to rain and rains the remainder of the day. Conference held in church . No minister, but a good conference.

Sun 30 Clears off colder with squalls. I saw the Alpha Comet first; other seen it ten nights ago. Service in church this evening conducted by Rev T McDonald.

Mon 31 Pleasant and cool. Snow much needed for the lumbermen's work.

Feb 1 Clear and cool. HH starts to scaling again.

Wed 2 A lovely winter's day. Prayer meeting in evening attended by Rev T McDonald.

Thu 3 Cloudy. Circle at Mrs E Farrell's.

Fri 4 AM; light snow. PM; cloudy.

Sat 5 A very fine day.

Sun 6 A nice winter's day. Service in church conducted by Frev T McDonald. Text Haba 3:4-5

Mon 7 Very cold.

Tue 8 Quite cold and clear.

Wed 9 AM; cloudy. Prayer meeting in evening.

Thu 10 Two or three inches snow fell thro the night. Circle at Mrs J Foster's. 13 mem[bers] attend.

Fri 11 A beautiful day.

Sat 12 A wind snow storm. 6 or 8 inches fell.

Sun 13 A fine day. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text John 14:15-16.

Mon 14 A fine cold day.

Tue 15 AM; clear and cold. PM; snow squalls.

Wed 16 AM; snow. PM; cloudy. Prayer meeting, Rev McDonald attended.

Thu 17 Cold and dreary. Circle at Mrs W Boone's.

Fri 18 6 or 7 inches snow fell thro the night and still swnowing this morning. PM; clouds and sunshine.

Sat 19 Clear cold morning. PM; a beautiful day.

Sun 20 A beautiful day. SS and PM this p.m. Evening, a children's Temperance entertainment.

Mon 21 About 2 inches snow fell thro the night. Snowing this morning but soon turns to rain. Clears off in the evening.

Tue 22 A lovely winter's day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 23 Snow and wild wind. No prayer meeting.

Thu 24 Clear and cold. Circle at Mrs Howe's.

Fri 25 A beautiful winter's day.

Sat 26 AM; fine. PM; blustery and cold wind SW. We had conference this PM, poor attendance.

Sun 27 AM; rain and wind SW. Rain all day.

Mon 28 Rain again till noon, then clears off fine.

Mar 1 AM; very cloudy. PM; a little snow and sleet.

Wed 2 Cloudy and dreary all day. Evening prayer meeting with Rev T McDonald in attendance.

Thu 3 A beautiful day. Circle at Mrs G McMinn's.

Fri 4 Fine and warm.

Sat 5 Bright in morning but soon clouds up. PM; squally.

Sun 6 A perfect day. Service in church in AM attended by Rev McDonald.

Mon 7 Snow squalls again this morning with hail and turns to rain about noon and continues to rain and snow all afternoon.

Tue 8 Still snowing light this morning. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Wed 9 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine.

Thu 10 A fine day. Circle met here. 13 members. PM; Rev McDonald here.

Fri 11 A beautiful day.

Sat 12 Still fine.

Sun 13 Cloudy and foggy. PM; SS and P meeting.

Mon 14 Cloudy with snow squalls.

Tue 15 Cloudy and dark but warm.

Wed 16 A beautiful day. Harry Kinney got the big pot for maple syrup making.

Thu 17 A fine cold day. Circle at Mrs G Wood's.

Fri 18 Clear and cold. CV's log haulers done today.

Sat 19 Beautiful weather. CV's logging crew moved out this morning. PM; a real blizzard and some hail and rain. Sent St Stephen bank bills by Chas for to be charged for altar bible.

Sun 20 AM; thin clouds and windy.

Mon 21 A beautiful cold day.

Tues 22 A high SW wind and snow squalls.

Wed 23 A very pleasant day. Snow mostly all gone.

Thu 24 A lovely warm day.

Fri 25 AM; cloudy and warm. PM; same. HH finished scaling GH Clark.

Sat 26 PM; Still cloudy. Froze a little thro the night. Conference in church in the PM. No minister.

Sun 27 A beautiful Easter Sunday. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Beautiful display of northern lights in evening.

Mon 28 AM; clouds and dull. PM; snow qualls.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 29 A beautiful spring day.

Wed 30 Fine in morning. Clouds up some in PM.

Thu 31 AM; hail and rain. PM; cloudy. Some lightning.

Apr 1 Drizzly in morning. PM clears off fine.

Sat 2 Quite a shower in morning. Cold and windy.

Sun 3 A fine April day. Roads terribly muddy. PM; service in church conducted by Rev McDonald, discourse from Luke 11:11-12.

Mon 4 A lovely day. Harry took me to spend the afternoon with Mrs Fred Wood.

Tue 5 AM; warm and foggy. Cheered by the songs of many birds. PM; very hot. Very bad roads.

Wed 6 A lovely hot day. No mail left for Canterbury Station.

Thu 7 Yesterday's mail for CS left this morning. Very foggy. Later, showery. No mail tonight.

Fri 8 AM; foggy. Wood sawers to work here.

Sat 9 AM; clear, clouds up about noon and rain near night. Done sawing wood.

Sun 10 Has rained all night. Still a light rain this morning. Squalls all day.

Mon 11 Froze some thro the night. Dark and cloudy.

Tue 12 Cloudy and cold with snow squalls. PM; clears off.

Wed 13 A fine cold day. Prayer service in evening attended by Rev McDoanld.

Thu 14 Cold and dreary. No mail from Canterbury.

Fri 15 Clear and cold. I took tea with Mrs A Boone. Just heard that Mrs Alex Taylor had a paralyzing stroke.

Sat 16 Clear and cold. Freezes hard at night.

Sun 17 A beautiful spring day. Chas and Sophia Veysey spend the day here. A daughter born to Dora Wood this morning. Service in the church this evening conducted by Rev McDonald. Ice all broken up in lake.

Mon 18 Fine. PM; begins to cloud up. Light rain in evening. Ice pretty well gone.

Tue 19 Raining. No mail tonight. Ice out of Grand Lake.

Wed 20 Still cloudy and dark. Heavy rain in PM. No mail left for Canterbury Station.

Thu 21 AM; sunshine but soon clouds up.

Fri 22 Rain.

Sat 23 Another rainy day.

Sun 24 A drizzling rain all day. Evening service in church conducted by Rev McDonald, discourse care of health from Numbers 16:47-50.

Mon 25 Dark and dreary. PM; Mrs Mary Veysey comes for me and I go home with her and make a very pleasant visit at her home and Lillie Kinney's; likewise at Albert Veysey and Chas Veysey's, returning home on Sat 30 in a bad snowstorm. PM; heavy snow storm with thunder and lightning.

May 1 A very pleasant day. PM; Sabbath school and prayer meeting. Evening service conducted by Rev McDonald, subject from Romans 14:11-13.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 2 Dark and drizzling again. I call on Mrs Peck who is sick.

Tue 3 Very dark and dreary.

Wed 4 Heavy rain. No prayer meeting this evening.

Thu 5 Cloudy with squalls of snow and rain.

Fri 6 AM; the sun is shining pleasantly. PM; clouds up again, and looks stormy.

Sat 7 A very nice day. Just heard King Edward is dead.

Sun 8 A fine day. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald from Mat 6:25

Mon 9 A very dark foggy day. I planted Dahlia's and flower seeds. Mrs WH Foster very sick.

Tue 10 A bright windy day.

Wed 11 A fine morning. I start with Hiram for a visit to Forest City. A squall of wind with some thunder and rain comes up before we get there. Mrs Oscar Wheaton was brought a corpse from Millinocket on Saturday and buried on Sunday the 15th at Forest City. Service conducted by Rev McDonald. I make a very pleasant visit to Geo Boone's who are very kind to me and return on 19th. On the 18th between 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock p.m. there was a very beautiful display of something like fire works over the sun.

Thu 19 Quite a rain thro the night and cloudy with a little rain this morning. PM; showery.

Fri 20 Very pleasant day with high winds.

Sat 21 A very fine day.

Sun 22 A perfect day. Service in church at 10:30 o'clock conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 23 Bright, warm with high SW wind. HH planted corn and some potatoes.

Tue 24 Rainy. A drizzling rain all day.

Wed 25 AM; rain. PM; clouds and sunshine. Prayer service in evening conducted by Rev McDonald. Heavy shower at 9 o'clock.

Thu 26 Raining again this morning. PM; sunshine and clouds.

Fri 27 Am; heavy rain. PM; quite a heavy thunder shower.

Sat 28 AM; pleasant. PM; light thunder and a little rain. Monthly conference held in church.

Sun 29 AM; fine. PM; fine. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Mat 6:6.

Mon 30 AM; foggy and dark. PM; showery.

Tue 31 A whole day's steady rain.

Jun 1 Cloudy and dark with a cold wind. PM; clear.

Thu 2 AM; fine but clouds up in afternoon.

Fri 3 Clouds and sunshine. Albert Veysey sowing oats for Hiram. PM; very heavy showers with some thunder.

Sat 4 Clear but very cold for time of year.

Sun 5 Clear and cold. PM; service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Phil 2:8-10.

Mon 6 Another rainy day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 7 Cloudy and dull. PM; sun shines pleasantly.

Wed 8 Showery all day. P. Meeting attended by Rev McDonald.

Thu 9 Bright and cold. PM; showery and thunder.

Fri 10 A day's rain.

Sat 11 Dark and cloudy.

Sun 12 Another rainy day.

Mon 13 AM; fair. PM; heavy shows.

Tue 14 AM; clear with fresh breeze.

Wed 15 A beautiful warm day. Prayer meeting in church attended by Rev McDonald.

Thu 16 A lovely day. We just heard that Roy Kinney was drowned in Grand Lake last night. HH finished planting potatoes and put in the garden.

Fri 17 A rainy day again.

Sat 18 Very cloudy and dark.

Sun 19 A fine day. service in church conducted by Rev McDonald from Isa 53.

Mon 20 A beautiful day.

Tue 21 Clouds and sunshine. PM; heavy thunder shower and some hail.

Wed 22 A lovely morning.. Clouds up some at night.

Thu 23 Was a thunder shower in the night but is a lovely bright morning and all day.

Fri 24 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off fine. I was at school exam which closes the term. Taught by Miss MW McConaghy.

Sat 25 A fine day. HH plants turnip seed which finishes his spring crop. PM; Our monthly conference held in the church but few attends. We have a very profitable meeting together.

Sun 26 AM; light showers. PM; cloudy. Service in evening conducted by Rev McDonald who admistered the Lords Supper to eight church members. A very solemn and impressive service.

Mon 27 Showers in early morning.

Tue 28 AM; heavy rain showers with some thunder. PM; fine.

Wed 29 A fine day. P meeting in evening attended by Rev McDonald.

Thu 30 AM; fine and warm.. PM; fine.

Jul 1 A beautiful hot day. Mrs A Boone spent the day with us.

Sat 2 Very hot. PM; a little cooler.

Sun 3 Fine. Service in church attended by Rev McDoanld. Text 2 Peter 3:11.

Mon 4 All night long there was a very very heavy storm of thunder lightning and rain and still raining all day till near night when it clears off with a cold N wind. Edgar Croypley's house was struck with the lightening about 2 o'clock this morning but no very heavy damage done.

Tue 5 This morning comes in clear and bright but not very warm. PM; fine with fresh breeze.

Wed 6 A lovely morning. Quiet and fine. PM; fine. Prayer service in evening. No minister.

Thu 7 A fine day. Circle at Mrs McMinn's in the PM.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fri 8 Some rain thro the night. AM; lovely. PM; fine. HH and HA jr home from Fredericton.

Sat 9 A terrible hot day.

Sun 10 Am; fine and hot. PM; getting cloudy.

Mon 11 A fine summer's day. HH and boys shingling.

Tue 12 A beautiful day. Orange celebration at Fosterville.

Wed 13 Cloudy. Later, heavy showers all day. Prayer service attended by Rev McDonald.

Thu 14 A pleasant morning. PM; fine.

Fri 15 Amy Keirstead came from Lowell, Mass to make us a visit. PM; Mrs Walter Colson buried at Fosterville. A light thunder shower.

Sat 16 AM; cloudy. PM; Pleasant.

Sun 17 AM; fine. PM; quite a rain shower. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDoanld.

Mon 18 Early morning foggy but clears off soon and is fine. Went with G. Veysey to Forest City.

Tue 19 Bright and cool. Bad hay weather for haying.

Wed 20 Not a very good hay day. P meeting in church.

Thu 21 Pleasant. Thunder shower in evening.

Fri 22 Cloudy and dark with drizzling rain at times tho the day.

Sat 23 Bright and fine but clouds up thro the day.

Sun 24 Clear till evening then cloudy.

Mon 25 Very cloudy and dark. PM; very heavy thunder shower.

Tue 26 Cloudy and showers.

Wed 27 AM; fine. PM; heavy thunder showers.

Thu 28 AM; very dark and cloudy. About 10 o'clock at thunder shower commences and continues about an hour. PM; showery. Just heard that D Butterfield of Weston had a barn and shed burned by the lightning.

Fri 29 A fine morning and continues all day.

Sat 30 A dreary dark day.

Sun 31 AM; cloudy but soon clears off fine. Prayer meeting in the church while in session we heard of a run away accident in which W Wetmore, Mrs C Boone and Bernice Hall were thrown out of a wagon. All were hurt more or less but not seriously.

Aug 1 Comes in clear and cool.

Tue 2 Fine till evening then a thunder shower.

Wed 3 A lovely morning. A good hay day.

Thu 4 Rain again.

Fri 5 A very good hay day. Wm Boone's little baby girl died this a.m.

Sat 6 Raining all day by showers till near night.

Sun 7 Sunshine and clouds. Wm Boone's baby Hazel Nina buried this PM. Service conducted by Rev J. Flewelling who also held service in the church in the evening.

Mon 8 A fair hay day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 9 A very fine day. Light showers in afternoon.

Wed 10 A fine cool morning. PM; light showers.

Thu 11 Dark and dreary. No haying done today.

Fri 12 A fine day again. HH and I go to station for J Steeves. A daughter born to Mrs Chas Boone.<sup>28</sup>

Sat 13 Fine. Finished haying.

Sun 14 Sultry with light showers in morning. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 15 AM; very hot. Evening rain.

Tue 16 A very pleasant day.

Wed 17 A lovely day. Picnic held on Sand beach under the management of Fosterville sewing circle.

Thu 18 Cloudy and dull. Rain at night.

Fri 19 AM; rain. PM; cloudy and dull.

Sat 20 Clear and cool.

Sun 21 A bright morning. PM; very pleasant.

Mon 22 Dark and foggy. PM; clears off and is fine.

Tue 23 Very foggy but soon clears and is a lovely day.

Wed 24 A beautiful day but very smokey and very hot. P meeting Rev McDonald attended.

Thu 25 Very smokey with some clouds but hot.

Fri 26 AM; cloudy. PM; showers with distant thunder. Remains cloudy.

Sat 27 Apleasant day. PM: our monthly conference met in the church. Few members attend but we have a very pleasant sitting for harmony and love pervade.

Sun 28 A fine day. Service in the church at 3 p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 29 Clear and pleasant.

Tue 30 Fine and cool.

Wed 31 Cloudy and dark. No prayer meeting.

Sep 1 Pleasant and quite cool. PM; warmer. Amy Keirstead leaves for Lowell this p.m.

Fri 2 Clear and cold.

Sat 3 Clear. HH gets in first oats today.

Sun 4 AM; clear. PM; cloudy. Srvice held in church conducted by Rev Mc.

Mon 5 Some rain in night. Today, sunshine and cloud.

Tue 6 Cloudy. PM; rain.

Wed 7 AM; still raining. Dreary with light showers.

Thu 8 AM; clouds and sunshine. Rain at night.

Fri 9 A light rain all day till night.

Sat 10 A lovely day.

Sun 11 Fine and warm.

Mon 12 A beautiful day. HH and George go to St Stephen and St John.

---

<sup>28</sup>Alice

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 13 Dark and cloudy. Rain about 7 o'clock p.m.

Wed 14 We have had a night's heavy rain but clears off and is a fine day. HH and George came home tonight. No prayer meeting.

Thu 15 A beautiful morning. A light shower in the evening. Sewing circle at Mrs G McMinn's.

Fri 16 AM; fine. Elias Gould got a bad kick from a horse.

Sat 17 A nice cool day. Elias Gould died this a.m. 9:30.

Sun 18 A beautiful day. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. PM; Elias Gould buried at 3 o'clock. Service conducted by Rev McDoanld at Green Mountain church. The congregation was so large there was not seating room in the church so there was an open air service on the church ground. The discourse was from Rev 22:14. After the burial the ordinance of Baptism and the Right Hand of Fellowship was given to two young women, Cora Foster and Nina Kinney at the Sand Beach of the G L shore.

Mon 19 AM; fine. PM; very cloudy.

Tue 20 A fine morning. I got to Forest City to make a visit and after spending a pleasant time return on Thu 29 a cold windy day. I go to circle at Mrs P Lutz's.

Fri 30 Cold and clear. High wind.

Oct 1 Dark and cloudy. PM; thunder showers.

Sun 2 AM; light showers with a sprinkle of snow. A very high cold wind.

Mon 3 Very cold. A heavy frost thro the night that killed all the outdoor flowers.

Tue 4 Cloudy with a cold south wind.

Wed 5 AM; foggy. PM; lovely and warm.

Thu 6 AM; foggy. PM; very hot wind, south.

Fri 7 Dark and raining.

Sat 8 Clear and cold. HH put colts in double team and drove to the corner.

Sun 9 Cloudy and cold. Terribly windy.

Mon 10 Dreary and cold. High wind, NW.

Tue 11 Clear with a very high wind.

Wed 12 Clear and sunshiny. Wind not so high.

Thu 13 Light squalls with a little snow.

Fri 14 Clear and quite cold.

Sat 15 A beautiful morning. PM; cloudy and cold.

Sun 16 Showery.

Mon 17 Bright and fine. Son born to Mary Veysey.

Tue 18 A beautiful summer's day.

Wed 19 A lovely day. HH at Fox's mill <sup>29</sup> helping saw church lumber.

Thu 20 AM; fine. PM; thunder shower and blizzard.

Fri 21 AM; beautiful and cool. PM; fine.

Sat 22 AM; very fine. PM; clouds up.

Sun 23 Showery all day. No SS or PM.

---

<sup>29</sup>Big Fox who bought the mill from Hiram a year ago.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 24 Bright and fair. Somewhat cold with a high wind.

Tue 25 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; cloudy.

Wed 26 AM; clouds with glimpses of sunshine. PM; rain.

Thu 27 A beautiful morning but soon clouds up and the P.M. is very unpleasant with rain and snow.

Fri 28 Cloudy with showers of rain and snow.

Sat 29 Clouds and sunshine. Conference in church.

Sun 30 Snow squall in early morning then clears off fine. Service in church conducted by Rev Flewelling.

Mon 31 A beautiful day.

Nov 1 We are having very pretty weather.

Wed 2 Fine. Mrs Wm Boone & children here. G Boardman brot from Charles Veysey's camp with a cut leg.

Thu 3 A lovely morning and all day.

Fri 4 Cloudy and dark. Threshing machine moved here.

Sat 5 A rainy day. Nine Foster came home.

Sun 6 AM; very cloudy with some rain. Pm; cloudy. Evening rain.

Mon 7 AM; cloudy. PM; fine and warm. Finished threshing.

Tue 8 A beautiful bright morning but soon clouds up. Service in the church conducted by Miss Guinne of Ludlow, Maine.

Wed 9 A fine day.

Thu 10 A beautiful forenoon but clouds up in PM with skits of snow.

Fri 11 A rainy day. Henry Veysey brot his two eldest children here to be cared for while he and his wife go to the funeral of her brother who was killed in Winnipeg on the 5th inst.

Sat 12 A fine day.

Sun 13 A beautiful day. SS and P service in P.M.

Mon 14 Sunshine and clouds with snow squalls. PM; about 2 inches of snow fell. HH at Forest City helping W Buckingham press hay. Henry Veysey came and got his children tonight.

Tue 15 Partly cloudy with glimpses of sun. HH had 2 hogs killed by F DeWitt.

Wed 16 Cloudy with snow squalls.

Thu 17 Still cloudy. Service in the church conducted by Rev Mr Shaw who came to this neighborhood.

Fri 18 A beautiful morning and continues all day. Service in the church conducted by Rev Shaw.

Sat 19 Cloudy and dreary. HH brot his yearling cattle home from Charles Veysey's.

Sun 20 A perfect day. Services in the church morning and evening conducted by Elder Shaw. SS in afternoon.

Mon 21 A beautiful day. HH sick with a cold.

Tue 22 Cloudy with very light snow.

Wed 23 Cloudy. Prayer meeting in church attended by Rev Shaw.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 24 A very light snow all day.

Fri 25 Very foggy and warm. Looks like rain.

Sat 26 AM; snow. PM; heavy snow storm with high wind.

Sun 27 Still snowing and blowing.

Mon 28 Clear and fine. Some say there has fallen about a foot of snow but in the clearing it is badly drifted. PM; clouds up again. Wind NE.

Tue 29 Very cloudy with soft NE wind and flurries of snow.

Wed 30 Snowing and blowing all day.

Dec 1 A soft snow all day. No mail.

Fri 2 Still snowing but don't gain much. Last night's mail came in tonight.

Sat 3 Cloudy and colder.

Sun 4 Cloudy with light snow squalls. Service in church morning and evening conducted by Rev Shaw.

Mon 5 Cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. HH hauling firewood.

Tue 6 Clear and cold. PM; clouds up.

Wed 7 Cloudy and dark. HH goes with Chas to scale logs.

Thu 8 Bright and beautiful.

Fri 9 Fine. I went with HH to Forest City.

Sat 10 Clear and quite cold.

Sun 11 A beautiful cold day.

Mon 12 Cold and cloudy in morning but clears off and is very fine. HH hauling firewood.

Tue 13 AM; cloudy with flurries of snow. HH goes to scale logs for CWW. PM; clears off again.

Wed 14 A light snow all day.

Thu 15 AM; warmer and cloudy. PM; same. HH had a beef killed by F DeWitt.

Fri 16 A very cold day.

Sat 17 Still cold. Clouds up near night.

Sun 18 A bright cold morning. Clouds up near night. Prayer meeting and SS this afternoon.

Mon 19 Very cloudy with light rain this a.m. Quite a lot of rain.

Tue 20 A lovely warm day.

Wed 21 Very fine till after dinner then clouds down.

Thu 22 Cloudy in morning but soon clears up. School examinations this PM. The teacher, Mr Smith leaves in the morning.

Fri 23 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. Pie social and fancy sale in the church which realized $21.20.

Sat 24 Rain and high wind all day.

Sun 25 Thro the night it turns colder and snowed about two inches and today (christmas day) is cloudy and mild. A SS concert is held in the church in the evening which was very pleasant and enjoyable.

Mon 26 Bright and cold. Clouds up again.

Tue 27 Two or three inches of snow thro the night and dark and dreary today.

Wed 28 Clouds and sunshine. Nice and warm.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 29 AM; light snow. PM; cloudy and dark. Evening rain. Boys at Chas Veysey's helping get firewood..

Fri 30 AM; raining. PM; clears off.

Sat 31 High wind and snow squalls thro the night. Clear and cold today.

Jan 1, 1911 A beautiful warm day for the season. Mrs H Veysey and her mother, Mrs Cliff take dinner with us. Evening clouds up.

Mon 2 Raining lightly all day.

Tue 3 Very foggy and warm. Snow going fast. Soon commences to rain and rains all day. Chas Veysey had a valuable horse die today.

Wed 4 Snowed some thro the night and is cloudy and colder this morning with flurries of snow all day.

Thu 5 Clouds and sunshine with snow flurries.

Fri 6 The morning commenced bright but soon clouds up with glimpses of sunshine. Evening fine and bright.

Sat 7 Snows lightly all day.

Sun 8 A beautiful day. Near night, clouds up.

Mon 9 Snowing.

Tue 10 AM; cloudy with high wind.

Wed 11 AM; fine. Clouds up.

Thu 12 Cloudy all day. Went with HH to Fosterville to see the sick Tuesday and came back last night. Elmer Lutz brot home from the woods with a cut foot.

Fri 13 Cloudy and quite cold. HH came from scaling Clark's logs, first scale this winter.

Sat 14 A beautiful morning but clouds up before noon and continues cloudy.

Sun 15 Clouds in early morning but soon breaks away and is fine. HH leaves for Danforth on his way to Fredericton to attend County council.

Mon 16 Clear and cold. Harry trucking for CW Veysey.

Tue 17 Very cold and bright.

Wed 18 AM; very cold till night when it becomes warm.

Thu 19 AM; clous and sunshine. PM; cloudy. Skits of snow in the evening.

Fri 20 A very fine day.

Sat 21 A little snow thro the night. Very cloudy and soft this morning, commencing to rain before dinner and rains till night. HH came home from Fredericton.

Sun 22 A beautiful day. Service in church conducted by Rev Flewelling.

Mon 23 A very fine day. HH starts again to scale for GH Clark.

Tue 24 Clouds and sunshine.

Wed 25 A beautiful winter day.

Thu 26 A drizzling snow all day.

Fri 27 Snows very lightly today, about 3 in.

Sat 28 Still snowing. Clears up at night. About 6 inches of snow fell thro this storm. HH scaling logs for Geo Farrell.

Sun 29 Clear and bright, not too cold.

Mon 30 An inch or two of snow thro the night and cloudy this morning. PM; the wind raises near night, gets cloudy.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 31 A terrible blizzard at night and continues this morning but is clear and bright. PM; high wind still.

Feb 1 Bright and cold. Men breaking roads.

Thu 2 Very cloudy. PM; snowing. HH starts for Clark's camp this a.m.

Fri 3 A beautiful winter day. Clouds down at night.

Sat 4 Snowing again. PM; a real blizzard of wind and snow till near night then turns to rain for a little while.

Sun 5 A beautiful day. No S school.

Mon 6 A fine cold morning. PM; clear.

Tue 7 AM; cloudy and warmer than it has been. PM; cloudy and a little snow at night.

Wed 8 Not very cold but cloudy and dreary.

Thu 9 Cloudy and warm with glimpses of sunshine.

Fri 10 Still cloudy.

Sat 11 Clear and cold.

Sun 12 A fine day. No SS.

Mon 13 A beautiful day.

Tue 14 Cold and clear. Fine roads.

Wed 15 Very cold.

Thu 16 We are having beautiful cold weather.

Fri 17 Clouds and warm with strong S wind. PM; snow. Evening, a wild blizzard.

Sat 18 A beautiful mild morning. PM; squally. LV and IF took SS library books to church.

Sun 19 Clear and cold. No SS.

Mon 20 AM; fine PM; clouds up but not very heavy.

Tue 21 A beautiful cold morning. PM; fine.

Wed 22 AM; fine and clear. PM; light snow squalls.

Thu 23 Clear and cold. PM; clouds up with skits of snow.

Fri 24 Very lights snow. PM; fine.

Sat 25 A beautiful winter day. Conference in the church. Not many present but social meeting of much interest.

Sun 26 AM; very fine. PM; Cloudy. SS and P service.

Mon 27 A beautiful warm morning. PM; fine.

Tue 28 AM; fine. PM; very light snow squalls.

Mar 1 Clear and cold. PM; clouds down. Geo V came home from his work in the woods tonight. Finished work.

Thu 2 Fine and cold. Chas Veysey broke up camp. Teams and cooks came out this morning. Sewing circle this p.m.

Fri 3 A beautiful winter's day.

Sat 4 Fine and very cold.

Sun 5 Clear an cold. SS and prayer service.

Mon 6 Cloudy and cold.

Tue 7 Clears off fine again.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| Wed 8 A beautiful warm day. Thu 9 Fine and woarm. Sewing circle at Mrs P Lutz. Fri 10 Cloudy and soft. Sat 11 A beautiful cold day. Sun 12 Cloudy and cold. Mon 13 An inch or two of snow fell thro the night but fine today. Tue 14 Pleasant. I washed today and ironed. Wed 15 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; snow and rain with high wind. Thu 16 Snowing again this morning. PM; snow squalls and very high wind. No mail gets in tonight. Fri 17 Cleared off and is fine with strong NW wind. Mail came in 7:45 a.m. Sat 18 Snowing again this morning. PM; clears off. Stephen Farrell's baby Elizabeth died this p.m. No mail tonight. Sun 19 A beautiful Sabbath day. SS and Prayer service in the church. Last night's mail came in at 1:30 o'clock this p.m. Mon 20 Snow till 10 o'clock then is sunshine and clouds the remainder of the day. S. Farrell's baby girl buried this p.m. Service conducted by Rev Bubar. Tue 21 Sunshine and snow squalls. Just hear of the suicide of Sherwood Foster of St. John, N.B. Wed 22 Dark and cloudy. Near night, snowing. Thu 23 AM; snowing. Snow all day. The roads are dreadfully drifted. A daughter born | to Mrs Millage Wood. The mail did not get in tonight on account of bad roads. Fri 24 A beautiful cold day. Last night's mail come in today at 11 o'clock a.m. Sat 25 A fine day. Conference in church. Sun 26 A beautiful spring day. Mon 27 AM; cloudy. About noon, rains a little. PM; cloudy. I leave with HH to got to Forest City on a visit and after spending a very pleasant time, I return on April 7 AM; rain. PM; cloudy and sunshine. Sat 8 Clear and cold. A strong NW wind. No mail tonight. Sun 9 Very cloudy and cold. Mail came in at 1 o'clock p.m. Mon 10 Bright and cold. Foster's came for mail on the first wagon I seen out this spring. Tue 11 Still fine and cold but snow nearly all gone. Sam Collier had a horse drowned. Wed 12 A beautiful day. The teacher, Miss Fraser, and Nellie Foster here for tea. Thu 13 Lovely weather but very bad roads. Fri 14 Very fine. No mail went out. Sat 15 A lovely day. Snow about all gone. Sun 16 Fine morning. PM; snow squalls. Sabbath School concert in evening. Mon 17 About 3 inches of snow on the ground this a beautiful morning. HH starts for St Stephen. Tue 18 Clear and cold. |
|---|--|

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wed 19 AM; sunshine but cold. PM; cloudy. No mail left for Canterbury today.

Thu 20 Clear and cold. Yesterday's mail left this a.m.

Fri 21 A light snow all day. HH and George return from St Stephen.

Sat 22 Still snowing.

Sun 23 Cloudy and cold. Mail from Canterbury this p.m. by Shep Buckingham.

Mon 24 Clear. A beautiful day. Mail came in tonight.

Tue 25 Colder. Good maple sap weather.

Wed 26 A fine clear day. Freezes quite hard at night.

Thu 27 A beautiful morning. Planted F seed.

Fri 28 Very hot. Prepared tubs for more seeds. Just heard Solan Dickinson's buildings were all burned.

Sat 29 Hot. HH took Lizzie to Danforth to see a Dr. Conference in church.

Sun 30 A fine day and cooler.

May 1 Very foggy and damp.

Tue 2 A thunder shower in the early morning. Cloudy and cold. Ice broken up in Grand Lake.

Wed 3 Cold with high wind. Ice drifting well down in lake. Den Foster moved his wood saw here tonight.

Thu 4 Cold yet. Done sawing wood.

Fri 5 Quite cold but not so cold as yesterday. Ice all gone but a little in the coves. S Collier's gasoline boat came up the lake this morning.

Sat 6 A very pleasant day.

Sun 7 Cloudy. PM; fine. G & M Boone & baby here.

Mon 8 Very dry and fires raging in many places.

Tue 9 A fine day. HH put in his wheat.

Wed 10 Still no rain. HH putting in oats.

Thu 11 Warm and pleasant. I take dinner with Mrs Wm Boone. PM; Circle at Mrs P Lutz, and take tea with her.

Fri 12 Fires all around but none in our neighborhood. PM; a thunder shower. Not much rain here.

Sat 13 Very dry and smokey again today.

Sun 14 Fine and cool. HH and E started for the hospital with Lizzie. There were two fires started here today. One is put out, the other under control.

Mon 15 Still dry with a heavy high wind but the men that have been fighting the fire hee have got it pretty well subdued; but the fire over the lake in Danforth is dreadfully bad.

Thu 16 Very dry and the fires are raging fearfully.

Fri 17 No change either in weather or fire. HH came home, says Lizzie had an operation on Monday evening and is doing well.

Sat 18 Still dry and hot. Heard there was a house burned in or near Danforth last night.

Sun 19 Very dry yet. Fires raging badly.

Mon 20 Wind South and some clouds. The smoke very dense. PM; bright again.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 21 Very hot and smokey. Evening, heat lightning.

Mon 22 Intensely hot and very dry. In the evening, thunder showers went around us but none here.

Tue 23 Cloudy and quite cold. HH putting in the last of his oats and making garden.

Wed 24 Uncomfortably cold. Evening, clouds up.

Thu 25 Rained some in the night. AM; cloudy. Clears up at noon and is fine.

Fri 26 A beautiful morning, a little cloudy but soon breaks away and is fine.

Sat 27 A fine day. Geo, Maud and baby Boone and Mrs Peck take tea with us.

Sun 28 Fine and terribly dry. I am not feeling well enough to go to SS & P meeting.

Mon 29 AM; fine. PM; cloudy, thunder showers go around us but none here.

Tue 30 A beautiful cool day.

Wed 31 Clear and cool. PM; high SE wind.

Jun 1 Heavy rain in early morning then more moderate till noon when it clears up and is fine till about 3 o'clock then quite a heavy thunder shower. Lizzie came home from hospital this p.m.

Fri 2 A fine day. S Walsh starts driving mail from Canterbury.

Sat 3 Pleasant and cool.

Sun 4 AM; fine. PM; showers go around. None here.

Mon 5 A fine day. I go to Forest City with HH.

Tue 6 No too hot, just comfortable.

Wed 7 Very hot and dry. HH and boys getting tel pole.

Thu 8 Hot and dry yet.

Fri 9 A beautiful a.m. PM. a light shower.

Sat 10 Cool and cloudy.

Sun 11 AM; fine and cool. Henry and wife and children here.

Mon 12 A light rain all day.

Tue 13 AM; a little thunder and lightning with heavyrain.

Wed 14 AM; heavy rain. PM; drizzling.

Thu 15 Lowery and dark PM; heavy showers.

Fri 16 AM; cloudy. PM; still cloudy.

Sat 17 Cloudy with glimpses of sun.

Sun 18 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; thunder shower.

Mon 19 Muggy and hot. Evening thunder showers again.

Tue 20 Some clouds and cool. PM; thunder shower.

Wed 21 Sunshine and light showers all day.

Thu 22 AM; bright and not too hot. Evening thunder showers. Harleigh Welch and Cora Foster were married at Danforth yesterday, returned today and held an entertainment at Abram Collier's this evening.

Fri 23 Heavy thunder showers thro the night. About 2 o'clock this morning, Joshua

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Fish's barn and grainery were struck by lightning and burned. Today bright and cool. Strong NW wind.

Sat 24 A fine day. HH and HA working road.

Sun 25 A fine day. Service in church conducted by Rev J Flewelling.

Mon 26 A lovely cool day. HH put in buckwheat.

Tue 27 A cloudy day. HH hoes his potatoes.

Wed 28 Cloudy. HH and boys skirting roads.

Thu 29 AM; showery. PM; sunshine and clouds

Fri 30 Very dark and cloudy. Near noon a light shower then it clears off and is very hot. I was at the school exams which finishes Miss Ellen Fraser's term of teaching here.

Jul 1 A clear hot day.

Sun 2 Excessively hot. SS as usual, prayer service conducted by a Mr Turner.

Mon 3 Still very hot but cloudy. Light thunders at intervals all afternoon. HH starts for Fredericton to attend Council.

Tue 4 A beautiful morning but we had thunder and lightning thro the night, not very heavy but in some places it was very heavy. The Cathedral in Fredericton was burned by the lightning.

Wed 5 A very hot day.

Thu 6 Still hot but a light breeze. PM; quite a heavy and thunder and lightning with little rain.

Fri 7 Very dry and hot. We just heard that Myles Cropley was accidentally shot and killed by George Farrell.

Sat 8 Very hot.

Sun 9 Still hot. Myles Cropley buried this p.m. Service conducted by Rev Bubar of Danforth Maine from Luke 23:43.

Mon 10 No abate in heat. Thunder showers go around but none here.

Tue 11 AM; still hot. PM; quite a breeze.

Wed 12 A beautiful day. Orange celebration at Fosterville.

Thu 13 Not so hot as it has been. Commenced haying.

Fri 14 Still hot and dry. First load of hay hauled in.

Sat 15 Not like rain yet.

Sun 16 Fine. The young folk gone to Fosterville to church. I go to see the sick folk of our neighborhood.

Mon 17 Sunshine and clouds.

Tue 18 A much needed rain all day.

Wed 19 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off.

Thu 20 AM; pleasant. PM; cloudy, evening light showers.

Fri 21 Bright and warm.

Sat 22 AM; fine. PM; a heavy thunder shower.

Sun 23 AM; pleasant. PM; cloudy. Evening thunder showers.

Mon 24 AM; cloudy. PM; a heavy rain.

Tue 25 Dark and showery in early morning but soon clears off and is fine.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

- Wed 26 A beautiful cool morning. PM; fine.
- thu 27 A fine hay day.
- Fri 28 Fine in morning but soon gets hazy. Clouds and in the evening rain. Service in church in evening conducted by Rev C. McDonald, a young man stationed at Forest City. Collected $1.16.
- Sat 29 Still raining and is dark and rainy all day.
- Sun 30 A fine day. AM; service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text St. John 3:16.
- Mon 31 A very hot day.
- Aug 1 AM; sultry with clouds. PM; fine.
- Wed 2 Cloudy. PM; cloudy and sunshine.
- Thu 3 A fine hay day.
- Fri 4 Fine and hot. HH finished haying today. Stanley Mclaughlin came in with the mail tonight to make us a visit.
- Sat 5 A beautiful pleasant day. The boys gone to Pirate Brook to pick blueberries.
- Sun 6 A very hot day. SS in morning. PM; service conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Mat 27:22.
- Mon 7 Dry and hot. Went with Harry to Forest City.
- Tue 8 A little cooler. HH cut first oats.
- Wed 9 AM; cloudy and cool. PM; clears up again.
- Thu 10 Clear hot. HH reaping wheat.
- Fri 11 AM; raining. PM; clears up and is cool.
- Sat 12 A beautiful bright day. Pie social in school.
- Sun 13 A fine cool day. PM; service held in church by Rev T McDonald.
- Mon 14 Fine and clear. Good harvest weather.
- Tue 15 Fine. HH hauling in oats and wheat. Thunder and lightning in evening.
- Wed 16 AM; rain thro night and this morning. PM; clears up and is cold.
- Thu 17 A lovely cool day. Mabel and her children leave for Forest City on their way to Bayside, Charlotte Co. Stanley McLaughlin with them.
- Fri 18 Quite a heavy thunbder shower thro the night and still raining.
- Sat 19 Cool and fine.
- Sun 20 A nice cool day. SS and preaching service in church by Rev McDonald.
- Mon 21 A beautiful day. HH gone to Maxwell.
- Tue 22 A fine cool day. George Maud and baby here this p.m. In the evening Mr Wood from Orient held service in the church.
- Wed 23 Cloudy in themorning, a little rain about noon, then clears off. Charles and Sophia Veysey here. Prayer service in church in evening.
- Thu 24 A clear cool day. Wm Boone's house burned about noon. Part of the contents saved.
- Fri 25 A fine day till near night, thunder and cloudy.
- Sat 26 AM; rain. PM; cloudy with showers.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 27 A fine day. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 28 Dark and cloudy. HH and Geo start for St Stephen.

Tue 29 Was showery thro the night and is still cloudy thismorning. Clears off in the p.m.

Wed 30 A fine day. Nellie Foster washed and ironed for me. S Welsh brot AV furniture from Canterbury Station.

Thu 31 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; cloudy. HH and Geo arrive from St Stephen

Sep 1 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off fine.

Sat 2 A fine day. Clouds up near night.

Sun 3 A thunder shower thro the night. Fine and cool this a.m. PM; SS and service in church conducted by Rev McDonald from Luke 19:44.

Mon 4 A beautiful cool day.

Tue 5 A fine day. Elections for councillors, the results: HH Veysey, 64; R Clark, 63; G Maxan, 54; T Wetmore, 44.

Wed 6 AM; raining. Rains till night.

Thu 7 Fine with cold wind. Circle in church.

Fri 8 Clear and cold. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Sat 9 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; showers.

Sun 10 A fine day. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 11 A beautiful day.

Tue 12 AM; raining. PM; clears off and is fine.

Wed 13 A heavy white frost thro the night. Clear and cold this morning. PM; snow flurries.

Thu 14 A heavy frost clear and cold, wind N. HH cutting buckwheat.

Fri 15 AM; fine. PM; clouds up; evening, rain. I spent the day at T Wood's.

Sat 16 AM; rain. PM; a light rain.

Sun 17 Very cloudy, drizzling and rain at intervals. PM; clears off. Service in the church conducted by Rev Mr Hunt in Rev McDonald's place. I leave tonight with Geo Boone to stop with their children while he and Maud go to Fredericton to attend the exhibition. I return home on Fri 29 a clear cold day.

Sat 30 AM; cloudy with very light snow squalls. PM; clear and very cold.

Oct 1 AM; clear and cold. PM; cloudy. Rev C McDonald preached in the church from St John 12:24.

Mon 2 Partly cloudy and cold.

Tue 3 Clear and cold. Threshing commences today by D Foster.

Wed 4 Cloudy and cold enough for snow. PM; rain. I leave for a visit to Chas Veysey's and family. After making a very enjoyable visit with my children and grandchildren, I return on Thu 12 AM; cloudy. Heavy rain at night.

Fri 13 High wind and very cold.

Sat 14 Pleasant and quite cold.

Sun 15 A beautiful bright morning. PM; very fine service held in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 16 A perfect day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 17 Beautiful weather. Water very scarce.

Wed 18 Dark and cloudy. A man calling himself Maloney is here and sold HH 7 apple trees to be delivered in the spring and promised to give him 3 beans and some sunflower seeds to be sent this Fall.

Thu 19 AM; a mild rain. PM; rain stops and is cloudy.

Fri 20 AM; cloudy. PM; clears off and is beautiful. Spent part of the day with Mrs Fred Wood.

Sat 21 Cloudy till near night then begins to rain and rains some thro the night.

Sun 22 Still raining lightly; towards night heavy rain. Service in church at 10:30 conducted by Rev C McDonald. Text Heb 3:1 consider Christ Jesus.

Mon 23 AM; rain. PM; cloudy.

Tue 24 [no entry]

Wed 25 AM; foggy but soon clears off fine.

Thu 26 A beautiful day till near night then clouds down.

Fri 27 A light snow all day but mostly all melts as it comes.

Sat 28 Froze very hard last night but it is a beautiful bright morning. Cows fed hay for the first time this Fall.

Sun 29 A beautiful day, somewhat cold. Service in the church at 11 o'clock conducted by Elder Flewelling and at 3 o'clock by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 30 A fine day. Took thanksgiving dinner at Mrs John L Foster's where many of our neighbors and friends met and made a small donation to our minister, Rev C

McDonald and wife who met with us and held a thanksgiving service in the church in the evening.

Tue 31 Cloudy till near night, then rain.

Nov 1 A light snow all day but don't gain much on the ground. Quilting at Mrs Peck's.

Thu 2 A fine cold day.

Fri 3 AM; cloudy. PM; clear and cold.

Sat 4 A beautiful day. We clean the church and yard.

Sun 5 A pefect day. SS and service conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 6 AM; a lovely bright morning, gets cloudy in the afternoon.

Tue 7 A beautiful rainy day. Thunder shower in the evening.

Wed 8 AM; cloudy with high north wind. PM; wind still vvery high.

Thu 9 A pleasant day. I attended Mrs Fred Wood's quilting and sewing bee.

Fri 10 Dark and stormy looking. PM; a little snow and rain.

Sat 11 A beautiful warm day.

Sun 12 A fine warm day. Ss and preaching service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald assisted by Rev Mr Sabrina. Text Mark 16:16.

Mon 13 A terrible wind and heavy showers of rain thro the night. This morning it is cold with a heavy wind.

Tue 14 AM; fine, rather cold. Near night, gets cloudy. Elder McDonald of North Lake died on Monday.

Wed 15 A wild snow storm, the first of the season. PM; a dark rain then turns cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 16 Clear and cold with skits of snow. I attended a quilting at Mrs Wm Boone's.

Fri 17 Very cold with high N wind.

Sat 18 Snows till noon then turns and rains till night.

Sun 19 Cold and windy. Service in morning at 10:30 o'clock conducted by Rev C McDonald. After service he administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper of which six church members partook.

Mon 20 A very fine day. Clouds in evening.

Tue 21 Cloudy in morning but soon clears away and is a lovely day. HH starts for St Stephen. I spend the pM with Mrs Alex Boone.

Wed 22 AM; fine and quite cold. Fine sledding.

Thu 23 A lovely day. Clouds a little in evening.

Fri 24 AM; a light snow all day but don't gain much on the ground.

Sat 25 High wind and quite cold.

Sun 26 A beautiful day. Clouds near night. Service in church conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 27 AM; cloudy and light snow. PM; fine. I went with HH to Forest City and took dinner with Geo and Maud Boone.

Tue 28 AM; cloudy and heavy fog. Evening, rain.

Wed 29 Heavy rain thro the night but cleared off and is bright this morning. A high wind.

Thu 30 A pefect day. I washed this a.m.

Dec 1 A very fine day. Ironed this a.m.

Sat 2 AM; a very light mild snow. PM; still keeps snowing a little.

Sun 3 A fine day. Service held in the church by Rev C Mcdonald, subject, the need of the plan of redemption.

Mon 4 A beautiful day.

Tue 5 Very cold and blustery.

Wed 6 Cloudy and dark, not so cold.

Thu 7 A beautiful day and good roads.

Fri 8 A perfect day. Called on Mrs JL Foster.

Sat 9 Dark and stormy looking. PM; rain.

Sun 10 A beautiful warm day. Service in the church at 3:30 conducted by Rev C McDonald text Heb 2:3.

Mon 11 Foggy in morning but soon clears off and is bright.

Thu 12 A beautiful day. Snow almost gone. HH and HA go to Forest City.

Wed 13 Raining and has rained all night.

Thu 14 A beautiful warm day.

Fri 15 AM; a light snow. PM; still snowing but don't gain much on the ground.

Sat 16 Cloudy and dull all day.

Sun 17 Flurries of snow all day. Service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald. Discourse what Christ has done for man. HH quite sick.

Mon 18 Dark and dreary. Phoned for Dr Coffin to come to see HH. Can't come till tomorrow.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 19 A very fine day. The Dr came this p.m.

Wed 20 Bright and fine.

Thu 21 A beautiful day. Roads bad, not enough snow.

Fri 22 Fine. G and HA go to Forest City.

Sat 23 Raining this morning. PM; clears off.

Sun 24 A fine day. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Snow mostly gone.

Mon 25 A beautiful christmas day. Harry and I go to Chas W V's and take dinner.

Tue 26 A perfect day. George and Maud Boone and 2 children spend the day with us.

Wed 27 AM; a very light snow. PM; the same.

Thu 28 Cold with high wind.

Fri 29 Very cold with high north wind.

Sat 30 A beautiful bright day but cold.

Sun 31 Still fine and cold. Service in the church cond by Rev C McDonald.

Jan 1, 1912 Snow squalls in early morning then clears up and is fine till 3 p.m. Then hazes up and light snow squalls again. Mail dispatched to Forest City this morning, first of the two mails per week.

Tue 2 A beautiful day. Not so cold.

Wed 3 Fine and warm like a day in the spring.

Thu 4 A very fine day.

Fri 5 Cloudy with light snow squalls.

Sat 6 A light snow and cold wind. PM; clears off.

Sun 7 A bright and cold morning. Clouds up near night with light flurries of snow. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald, subject three ways of meeing sin.

Mon 8 AM; bright and cold. PM; gets cloudy.

Tue 9 Has been snowing thro the night and is still snowing till near noon then turns to rain for a short time, then snow begins. In all, there is about 3 or 4 inches a very high cold wind thro last night and today.

Wed 10 A bright cold day. Very high wind yet.

Thu 11 Still very cold and clear.

Fri 12 Clear and cold. Very good roads.

Sat 13 Still very cold with no storm.

Sun 14 Clear and not quite so cold. Service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald from First Tim 6:12. Clouds up near night.

Mon 15 Cloudy in early morning. About 9 begins to snow and snows the rest of the day.

Tue 16 High wind and snow all night and today cloudy with very light snow in the air.

Wed 17 Clear, not so cold. Clouds up near night, snows a little in the evening.

Thu 18 An inch or two snow fell thro the night is cloudy this morning but clears off at 10 o'clock and is fine. Clouds up near night with a drizzling rain in evening.

Fri 19 Early cloudy. Commences to rain at 10 o'clock, stops about 3 o'clock.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sat 20 A beautiful day. HH home from council.

Sun 21 Some snow in early morning then clears off and is fine. Service in church at 10:30 o'clock conducted by J Flewelling. Rev C McDonald too ill to attend.

Mon 22 A beautiful day.

Tue 23 Snowing this a.m. and all day.

Wed 24 A beautiful cold day.

Thu 25 Still fine. Roads are getting fairly good.

Fri 26 Fine. Circle at Mrs P Lutz.

Sat 27 A very cold clear day till near night then clouds up. Our monthly conference held in the school house a Godly setting but discouraging to think there are no more to attend out of so many professed followers of Christ.

Sun 28 Still bright and very cold. Services in the church in the afternoon conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 29 The cold seems to abate a little, but very cold yet. HH quite sick yet.

Tue 30 Cloudy all day. With HA out to Chas V's.

Wed 31 Cloudy and stormy looking. PM; flurries of snow.

Feb 1 A beautiful day, not too cold.

Fri 2 A lovely day. SC held at Mrs P Lutz.

Sat 3 Still fine and beautiful.

Sun 4 A fine day. Service in the church in the p.m. conducted by Rev C McDonald. Evening, snowing about 2 or 3 inches fell.

Mon 5 Cloudy in morning but clears off and is fine.

Tue 6 AM; cloudy. PM; fine.

Wed 7 A perfect day. Fine and warm.

Thu 8 AM; a light snow. PM; the same.

Fri 9 Clear and cold. No circle today.

Sat 10 Clear and very cold with high north wind.

Sun 11 Clear and cold. Roads ddrifted up so badly Mr McDonald could not get here to fill his appointment.

Mon 12 Still very cold.

Tue 13 Quite a plesant day.

Wed 14 AM; bright. PM; clouds up.

Thu 15 A perfect day.

Fri 16 AM; fine. PM; cloudy.

Sat 17 A beautiful day.

Sun 18 A perfect day. Service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald from the text in Acts 4:12.

Mon 19 A beautiful day. I go to Forest City on a visit and after spending 2 weeks very pleasantly and seeing several old friends, return on

Mar 5 a fine cold day.

Wed 6 Still clear and cold.

Thu 7 Cloudy and warm.

Fri 8 A beautiful bright day.

Sat 9 AM; a light snow, wind south. PM; dark with light snow squalls.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 10 Still snow flurries and high N wind. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Roads so bad I did not get there.

Mon 11 A beautiful March day.

Tue 12 A light snow all day.

Wed 13 A day's heavy snow.

Thu 14 Fine and bright.

Fri 15 AM; cloudy. 11 a.m. snow. 1 p.m. rain and continues till in the night.

Sat 16 Cloudy and colder. PM; bright and fine.

Sun 17 A beautiful warm day. SS in church but Rev McDonald held no service.

Mon 18 Cloudy and dark. PM; bright.

Tue 19 A fine spring day. Done my washing.

Wed 20 AM; cloudy. PM; clear with high wind.

Thu 21 A clear cold morning with very high wind. PM; pleasanter.

Fri 22 A fine day. Went with Geo and H to Forest City.

Sat 23 A fine cold day.

Sun 24 Calm. Light snow fell all day. Service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald. Text Heb 11:24.

Mon 25 Clear cold day.

Tue 26 Cold and fair.

Wed 27 A beautiful spring day. Lewis Wood's moving up to J [????]

Thu 28 Clear day with a strong SW wind. I took dinner with F Wood's family.

Fri 29 A steady rain all day. Called on Mrs J Fish who is quite sick.

Sat 30 A cold high north wind.

Sun 31 A beautiful day. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald from St John 3:36.

Apr 1 A beautiful day.

Tue 2 AM; light snow. PM; dark and cloudy.

Wed 3 About 4 or 5 inches of snow fell thro the night and is still snowing lightly all day.

Thu 4 A beautiful morning and continues all day.

Fri 5 Early morning, bright, but soon clouds up. A heavy wind and snow squall at noon. The remainder of the day drizzly.

Sat 6 Dark and dreary. PM; clears off bright. Lightning in the evening.

Sun 7 Dark and dreary. Roads in bad condition. Service in the church cond by Rev McDonald. It was a beautiful Easter service and in the evening we had a fine Easter concert. The offer was $5.13. The first wagons out tonight.

Mon 8 There was some rain thro the night and early this morning clears off with occasional snow squalls all day.

Tue 9 Clear and very cold. High North wind.

Wed 10 A beautiful cold day. Harry takes me out to Charles' to make the children out there a visit. After spending a very pleasant time, I return on

Mon 15 a light rain all day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 16 A beautiful bright day. Thunder and lightning in the late afternoon and evening till late in the night.

Wed 17 Cloudy and colder than yesterday.

Thu 18 Clouds and sunshine till night then cold rain.

Fri 19 There was both rain and snow thro the night and is still snowing this morning till 10 o'clock when the sun shines out and is bright. PM; clouds up again.

Sat 20 A very cold clear day.

Sun 21 A beautiful bright morning. PM; fine. Service conducted by Rev McDonald, subject: the prodigal son.

Mon 22 AM; clear. PM; clouds up and rains.

Tue 23 Rain thro the night and is very foggy and dull this morning. PM; heavy rain.

Wed 24 Cleared off and froze hard thro the night and is cold today with a strong north wind.

Thu 25 A fine spring day. Mrs W Boone and children here all day. Mrs Harley Welsh spends the afternoon with us.

Fri 26 A fine bright day.

Sat 27 Rain and drizzling rain all day.

Sun 28 Clear and cold with a heavy north wind. PM; SS after which Rev McDonald held service. Spole from Mat 11:29. Dr Curtis here to HH again today.

Mon 29 Clear and cold. Ice breaking up in lake.

Tue 30 A beautiful spring day. G & M Boone spend the day with us. Ice beginning to break up in lake fast.

May 1 A fine day. Prayer meeting in the church in the evening.

Thu 2 A lovely day. Roads getting much better. I planted my Dahlia's and a lot of flower seeds.

Fri 3 Quite cold with a high northerly wind.

Sat 4 Cloudy and drizzling rain till near night when the rain stops. The ice all out of the Grand Lake but a little in the coves.

Sun 5 Dark and cloudy till afternoon then clears off and is fine. Mrs Thomas Howe and mother called on us this morning. Service in the church this p.m. conducted by Rev McDoanld, text John 1:12.

Mon 6 Cloudy and dark. Fixing my flower tubs.

Tue 7 A little cloudy in the a.m. Clears off fine in p.m.

Wed 8 AM; heavy fog. PM; fine and bright. Prayer service this evening in the church conducted by Rev McDonald from Heb 2:4.

Thu 9 A much needed rain all day.

Fri 10 A beautiful day. Commenced cleaning my room.

Sat 11 Fine. Albert and teacher Eagles called this p.m.

Sun 12 AM; some clouds. PM; cloudy with strong SW wind. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 13 Cloudy with strong S wind.

Tue 14 AM; cloudy. PM; fine. Paid Mr Boone $25.00 for work in the church.

Wed 15 A beautiful day. HH had a wire line fence on Mr Wetmore's line put up.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 16 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. HH had H Boone to sow his wheat and some oats. Rain at night. HH sent colts and young cattle to C P. [Charles' pasture ??]

Fri 17 AM; foggy. PM; fine.

Sat 18 A fine clear day with high cold wind.

Sun 19 A high cold wind. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald from 2 Tim 2:15.

Mon 20 Dark and cloudy. A heavy frost last night.

Tue 21 AM; cloudy and cold. PM; bright.

Wed 22 Sunshine but cold. Geo McMinn has found the bears have been in the back pasture and killed 14 sheep for him.

Thu 23 AM; rain. PM; thunder and lightning shower. Rain till bed time.

Fri 24 Showers with thunder and lightning all day.

Sat 25 Clear and cold.

Sun 26 Bright and fine. PM; thunder shower. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, subject, the life of Stephen.

Mon 27 Bright and clear.

Tue 28 Fine. HH planted potatoes.

Wed 29 Clouds and sunshine. Put in corn and peas and a few potatoes. PM; a heavy shower then sets in for a rain storm.

Thu 30 AM; heavy rain. PM; rain with thunder.

Fri 31 A thunder shower in the night and still raining. PM; rain.

Jun 1 AM; cloudy and dark till 3 o'clock then sun comes out bright, but soon clouds up again.

Sun 2 Bright and hot. Service in the church in evening conducted by Rev C McDonald when eight candidates came forward to put themselves under the care of the church body till such time as they are baptized and join the church. They were Mrs Mable Buckingham, Mrs Maud McMinn and her two daughters, Ruby and Maggie McMinn, Nina Foster, Inez Foster, Hazel Gould, and Ella Lutz.

Mon 3 A heavy thunder shower in early morning then cloudy till noon. PM; sunshine and cloud.

Tue 4 Clear and cool. Boys go to Can Station for flooring. Showers go around at night but none here.

Wed 5 Clear till 11 o'clock then light shower.

Thu 6 Clear and cold. 2 o'clock, showery.

Fri 7 AM; very cold wind. PM; clouds and sunshine.

Sat 8 A clear cold day. Frost the last two nights.

Sun 9 Very cold for time. Service in church conducted by Rev J Flewelling. PM; service conducted by Rev McDoanld. Heavy frost again last night.

Mon 10 Clear and very cold. Clouds up and rains till night. Frost last night.

Tue 11 Clear and very cold. PM; still cold.

Wed 12 Showery and not so cold in the morning, then clouds and sunshine till afternoon then again showery. Later sets in for a steady rain.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 13 Still raining. A dreadful wet time. PM; a steady rain all day. Henry V laying floors.

Fri 14 Clears off but is quite cold.

Sat 15 Clear and cold till night then clouds up again.

Sun 16 Light showers in early morning then again in the afternoon and near night, rain. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 17 AM; rain. PM; cloudy and sunshine. Service held in church by Rev McDonald assisted by Mr Grace who with Rev Kenyon have come to hold a series of meetings.

Tue 18 Fine and rather cold. Service in the church in the evening conducted by Rev Kenon assisted by Rev McDonald and Grace.

Wed 19 Fine and much warmer. Service in the church at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev Kenyon, again in the evening. Mr Grace as singer.

Thu 20 AM; fine. PM; some showers go round but very little here. Service again in church, both in afternoon and evening. Local election today, result 4 conserative candidates.

Fri 21 A beautiful summer day. Service in afternoon and evening.

Sat 22 Fine and cool. Service in the evening.

Sun 23 A beautiful day. 3 services and SS. In the afternoon and evening there was a crowded house. Serveral professed a desire to forsake sin and take a stand for the cause of Christ. Tonight ends the campaign here and Mrs Kenyon and Mr Grace leave for other places. I pray there has been much lasting good here.

Mon 24 Clear and very hot. Miss M Fraser held her school exams for this term with the intention of teaching next term.

Tue 25 Still oppressively hot. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. There was much interest shown by the young folk.

Wed 26 A nice cool morning after a thunder shower in the night. Noon a very heavy thunder shower with wind and rain, Service in the church in the evening conducted by Rev McDonald text Rom 1:16.

Thu 27 Clear and cool.

Fri 28 A very fine day but cold high wind.

Sat 29 Still cool. Conference service in church.

Sun 30 Very cold for time of season. PM; service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. A very light shower near night.

Jul 1 Clear and hot.

Tue 2 Hot and dry. Council meets today at F'ton. HH too sick to get there.

Wed 3 Very hot. PM; Lizzie Howe and Ella Lutz spend the p.m. with us.

Thu 4 The heat oppresive. PM; a nice breeze springs up. Sun very hot.

Fri 5 Very hot. PM; a thunder shower, not much rain. HH quite sick.

Sat 6 Continues hot. PM; a very severe thunder shower. Lightning struck the telephone line damaging 7 telephone poles near Fred Wood's, entering his house, tore out the phone breaking it to pieces and making quite a wreck of the side of the house and the contents of the room.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 7 Continues hot. The showers don't seem to cool the air. Rev McDonald held service this p.m.

Mon 8 Still oppressively hot. PM; George Boone drove Dr Parks up from Forest City where he is taking his vacation on one of the islands in Grand Lake to attend HH professionally who is very sick.

Tue 9 Commences very hot but a light breeze soon raises which makes it a little cooler. PM; a light thunder shower.

Wed 10 Very hot again this morning. Amy Keirstead and Glen Sharp came on a visit today. Nina Foster and Frank Wood were married at 6 o'clock this evening by Rev C McDonald.

Thu 11 A little cooler today. At about 6:30 o'clock p.m. two young men were drowned in the North Lake near William Gaskin's shore from a canoe upsetting. Charles Graham and Lewellyn Kinney, son of Elias Kinney.

Fri 12 A beautiful cool day. Orange celebration at Fosterville and parties are dragging the lake for the bodies of the young men that were drowned.

Sat 13 A fine and cool [day]. The bodies in the lake not found yet. PM; The bodies of the drowned boys found about 3 o'clock.

Sun 14 rain. PM; still raining. The remains of the boys buried at 2:30 o'clock, service by Rev McDonald, text Heb 9:27. No service in our church.

Mon 15 AM; foggy and dark. PM; fine and warm.

Tue 16 AM; foggy. PM; clears off fine and cool.

Wed 17 HH talked with Dr Parks on the phone today. A fine cool day.

Thu 18 A fine cool morning. PM; clouds up.

Fri 19 Rain thro the night and still raining. PM; rain stops and cloudy with glimpses of sunshine. Dr Parks here to see HH.

Sat 20 Sky looks hazy, not a good hay day.

Sun 21 Clear and bright. PM; cloudy Service in the church at 2:30 o'clock and from that the congregation went to the lake shore where the minister Rev McDonald performed the ordinance of baptism for 8 candidates, viz. Maud McMinn, Beulah Vantassel, Inez Foster, Mable Buckingham, Ella Lutz, Ruby McMinn, Hazel Gould, and John Smith. Service again in the evening after which Rev C McDonald gave the right hand of fellowship and received into church membership all the baptized persons, but John Smith who belongs to another settlement. Afterwards administered the Sacrement of the Lord's Supper.

Mon 22 Has rained thro the night and is till raining at noon. PM; heavy rain.

Tue 23 Rain all day.

Wed 24 Still very dark with frequent showers.

Thu 25 AM; dark and dreary with frequent showers.

Fri 26 Dark and drizzly in early morning and showery thro the day. HH very sick.

Sat 27 Clouds and sunshine. PM; showery.

Sun 28 AM; sunshine and clouds. PM; the same. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald text Deu 30:15.

Mon 29 Rain again till noon. PM; cloudy and cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 30 Foggy in morning, but soon partly clears off. HH commences haying today.

Wed 31 Clouth with glimpses of sunshine. Rains again at night.

Aug 1 Still raining this morning. A day's steady rain.

Fri 2 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; a light shower.

Sat 3 AM; cloudy. PM; rain. Mirs S Howe, Thomas Howe and wife call on us this p.m. Rains.

Sun 4 Dark and cloudy. No minister. SS in afternoon and prayer meeing in evening.

Mon 5 AM; still dark. No hay weather. PM; a shower. HH hauled in first load of hay.

Tue 6 Dark weather conditions. Evening some thunder and lightning with rain and hail.

Wed 7 Clouds and sunshine. A little rain about noon. Got 5 loads of hay in yesterday. None today.

Thu 8 Looks better but still cloudy. Evening, rain.

Fri 9 Still raining. No haying today. PM; rain.

Sat 10 Heavy rain all day.

Sun 11 Still raining. PM; rain. No religious service in the church but SS.

Mon 12 AM; very cloudy. PM; glimpses of sunshine thro the clouds. Light showers.

Tue 13 Clouds and sunshine. Showers go around us in the afternoon. None here.

Wed 14 Foggy in the morning. PM; fair hay weather.

Thu 15 Clouds and sunshine all day. Somehay got in.

Fri 16 AM; the sun shines but not very clear the sky is hazy. Wind NE.

Sat 17 A fair hay day.

Sun 18 AM; clear. PM; clouds up some. No preaching service. SS and prayer meeting.

Mon 19 AM; looks like rain early, but soon clears off and is fine.

Tue 20 A beautiful hay day.

[no entries for 21 and 22]

Fri 23 Dull and showery. PM; heavy showers. Glen Sharp starts for home this p.m.

Sat 24 AM; dull. PM; brightens up.

Sun 25 Dull and showers. PM; a smart shower. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, Heb 3:1.

Mon 26 A day of sunshine. Hh got the last load of hay in the barn.

Tue 27 Sunshine and clouds.

Wed 28 AM; dreary and cold. PM; showery.

Thu 29 AM; bright and cold. Clouds up in the afternoon.

Fri 30 Cloudy and very cold. Amy Keirstead starts for home this p.m. Dr Love here to see HH.

Sat 31 A very cold morning. North wind.

Sep 1 Bright and not so cold. PM; clouds up. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, text Jer 51:27. SS concert in evening.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 2 The a.m. pleasant but clouds up in p.m.

Tue 3 AM; very cloudy. PM; rain.

Wed 4 AM; cloudy and dark. Clears off at noone bright and warm.

Thu 5 Partly cloudy and warm.

Fri 6 Clear and quite cool. Spent the day with Mrs D Wood at Mrs P Lutz.

Sat 7 Morning cloudy. PM; very light showers.

Sun 8 Cloudy and dark. Service in church at 3 o'clock conducted by Rev McDonald, text from James 1:5-6.

Mon 9 Sunshine and clouds. I went with HH to CW Veysey's and took dinner with them. Called on Lillie K and Myrtle Home and her new baby. Boys sawing wood.

Tue 10 AM; bright. PM; clouds up. Evening, rain.

Wed 11 Heavy rain thro the night and still dark and cloudy all day.

Thu 12 Sunshine and cloud. Very cold for the season. HH commenced cutting oats. Showery.

Fri 13 Beautiful day. PM; light showers.

Sat 14 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. The belfrey on the church finished yesterday. Church cleaned this p.m.

Sun 15 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. Near night, rain. Service in church at 3 o'clock p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald, text John 3:14.

Mon 16 A beautiful clear day but cool. PM; cloudy.

Tue 17 Sunshine in a.m. Clouds up at night. Circle quilted a quilt in church today.

Wed 18 AM; fine. PM; fine.

Thu 19 A beautiful cold day. I go with HH on a visit to George Boone's and after spending a very pleasant time and meeting many old friends, I return on Sat 28 a pleasant cold day. McDonald held two services on 22nd in church.

Sun 29 AM; fine and cold. Rev Jos[eph] Flewelling preached in the church text Luke 5:28. PM; cloudy. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, text John 7:17. Evening rain.

Mon 30 AM; rain and snow. Very cold. PM; cloudy.

Sep 1 Cold and dreary. PM; rain and hail. Evening, heavy rain.

Wed 2 The ground is covered with snow and is cold and dreary. Clears off fine but very cold. The grain that is out is in bad condition. Clouds up again in evening.

Thu 3 Rain again this morning. PM; cloudy.

Fri 4 Showery. PM; clears off fine.

Sat 5 A beautiful day. Went to Fosterville with HH.

Sun 6 AM; fine. PM; fine and warm. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 7 A lovely day. Harvesting gets along slowly. A lot of oats not ripe yet. Showery at night.

Tue 8 Squall of hail. PM; clouds and sunshine. Cold.

Wed 9 Clear and cold. PM; cloudy.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 10 Fine. Lizzie and I attend Mrs John L Foster's knitting bee. Freezes quite hard thro the nights but the outdoor flowers are bright yet.

Fri 11 AM; cloudy and dark. Night, rain.

Sat 12 AM; very cloudy. PM; rain.

Sun 13 AM; fine. PM; clouds up again. Service in church conducted by Rev C McDonald. Otto and Annie Boone and Nina Kinney here to tea.

Mon 14 Cloudy with cold high wind.

Tue 15 A little rain in the early morning.

Wed 16 Heavy frost thro the night. The day clear and cold. Most of the outdoor flowers killed.

Thu 17 Clear and cold. Frost again last night. All of the outside flowers killed.

Fri 18 A beautiful bright warm day. HH finishes digging potatoes and getting in oats.

Sat 19 AM; very foggy and dark. PM; high S wind. 3 o'clock heavy rain the remainder of the day.

Sun 20 A beautiful bright morning. PM; fine. Service in the church cond by Rev McDonald, text Luke 15:7.

Mon 21 A fine day. I go with Otto Boone to Forest City to attend the SS convention and visit some of the friends there.

Nov 1 Clear but quite cold. I return home from Forest City today. Rain in the evening.

Sat 2 A very fine cold day.

Sun 3 AM; fine and clear. PM; cloudy. Elder McDonald didn't get here to hold service on account of baptismal at Forest City.

Mon 4 Cold with high wind.

Tue 5 Cloudy and cold. PM; warm.

Wed 6 A beautiful morning. then clouds up. Vernon Peck brot home a bride, Mrs Miles Cropley.

Thu 7 Rain. I spend the day with Mrs Wm Boone.

Fri 8 A heavy rain all day but warmer.

Sat 9 AM; clouds and sunshine. PM; cloudy.

Sun 10 Pleasant but quite a cold NW wind. Service in church at 3:30 o'clock conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Mon 11 A beautiful morning. Clouds down in the afternoon. Alfred Veysey jammed his foot badly and was brot from the woods tonight.

Tue 12 A little rain in the morning and reamains dull all day.

Wed 13 AM; cloudy. PM; very coudy, evening, snow.

Thu 14 A wild snow storm. Sleds out today.

Fri 15 rain and hail thro the night with a high wind and still continues this morning. PM; still raining.

Sat 16 A dark dreary day. F. Clark shot Peter Lutz horse. Lecture on war and its effects held in the church by Mr Jackson.

Sun 17 AM; clear and beautiful. PM; get cloudy. Service held in church by Rev McDonald and in the evening by Mr Jackson.

Mon 18 AM; cloudy with NW wind. An Orange lecture at Fosterville tonight.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Tue 19 A lovely day. Clouds toward night. Snow nearly all gone.

Wed 20 Fine warm weather.

Thu 21 A real spring day. I have called on a few of the neighbors. Took dinner with Mrs W Cosman and supper with Mrs E Farrell.

Fri 22 Fine and warm. Took dinner with Mrs J L Foster and attended circle at Mrs HB Boone's.

Sat 23 Mr Henry Houghton drowned in the Grand Lake near his home. No particulars yet. A perfect day.

Sun 24 A cold high wind and cloudy. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald from Eph 2:1-2.

Mon 25 Winds and storm thro the night and a regular blizzard this a.m. Mr H Houghton buried this p.m. at 2 o'clock.

Tue 26 A dark dreary day. Very bad roads.

Wed 27 [no entry]

Thu 28 Cloudy and dull. PM; clears up.

Fri 29 A cold high wind. PM; a little mild.

Sat 30 A little snow thro the night. This morning, pleasant.

Dec 1 A bright morning. PM; fine. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Subject: how a christian should love from the book of John.

Mon 2 Cloudy and dark. rain near night.

Tue 3 Rain thro the night, snow mostly gone. Today clear and fine.

Wed 4 Dark and cloudy. HH killing last hog.

Thu 5 A perfect day. At night clouds up.

Fri 6 AM; rain. PM; still raining.

Sat 7 A fine day. John Scott, a man from Fredericton, drowned in North Lake this afternoon.

Sun 8 Cloudy. A flurry of snow in the a.m. The body of the drowned man recovered. Service in the church this p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald from Mark 16:16. Snow all gone.

Mon 9 AM; has the appearance of a storm. PM; breaks away and is pleasant but cold.

Tue 10 Clouds and sunshine. High SW wind at night.

Wed 11 A beautiful day. Circle quilted quilt in the church.

Thu 12 AM; fine. PM; snow squalls, very cold.

Fri 13 Clear and very cold. No mail tonight.

Sat 14 A fine winter's day. Mail came in at 1:05 o'clock.

Sun 15 A very pleasant day. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 16 Cloudy and soft. Evening, a little rain, then snow. Gets colder.

Tue 17 A very heavy [ ? ] thro the night. This morning bright and cold and continues all day.

Wed 18 Cloudy and dark.

Thu 19 A day's steady rain.

Fri 20 Cold. Heavy North wind.

Sat 21 Clear and very cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 22 Still very cold and no snow on the ground. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, text Luke 2:7.

Mon 23 Clear and cold.

Tue 24 Cloudy and very cold. No snow yet.

Wed 25 Cold and windy. Harry, Lizzie and myself go out to Chas Veysey's and take dinner.

Thu 26 Warmer. I go with Harry to Forest City and make a visit returning on Tue 31 A beautiful warm day after yesterday's heavy rain. Rev McDonald did not get here on Sunday.

Jan 1, 1913 A very warm pleasant New Year's day.

Thu 2 A perfect day.

Fri 3 AM; cloudy. PM; heavy rain. Eveing, rain with thunder and lightning.

Sat 4 There was a terrible wind thro the night. High wind with snow squalls this a.m. PM; still squally. Nina Wood had a young son.

Sun 5 Clear and quite cold. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

Mon 6 A light snow all day. David Cropley very sick.

Tue 7 A pleasant day.

Wed 8 A small snow storm. Again no circle.

Thu 9 A lovely bright cold day. David Cropley died this afternoon.

Fri 10 A beautiful winter day.

Sat 11 AM; dark and cloudy. HH home from Council.

Sun 12 AM; light rain till 3:30 then turns to snow. David Cropley buried this p.m. Funeral service conducted by Rev Mr Dalzell text from St. John 14:30: It is Finished.

Mon 13 a lovely morning.

Tue 14 A perfect winter's day.

Wed 15 Cloudy and rather dull. Warmer. Service this evening in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald.

Thu 16 Cloudy and dull.

Fri 17 AM; cloudy. PM; snow a short time then turns to rain and continues all the p.m.

Sat 18 Soft and warm. In the evening, rain.

Sun 19 We had rain hail and snow and some heard thunder this morning. A cold NW wind. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald.

[ no entries 20 to 24 ]

Sat 25 I have been sick all week and have not felt like writing, but there has been no change; just the same storms, first snow and then rain. This is a beautiful day but no snow on ground. Rev McDonald attended our monthly conference this p.m. I was not able to get there.

Sun 28 Cloudy with a light snow. PM; still cloudy. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. I am not able to get there.

Mon 27 AM; raining.

Tue 28 Bright and cool. Not much snow on the ground.

Wed 29 A beautiful cold day. Sewing circle held here this afternoon.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Thu 30 Snowing this morning. PM; cloudy.

Fri 31 Foggy and warm all day.

Feb 1 A thunder shower tho the night but clear and colder today.

Sun 2 A cold bright day. No service in the church, but Sabbath school.

Mon 3 Clouds and stormy looking. PM; light snow.

Tue 4 A beautiful day all thro.

Wed 5 A bright cold day.. Circle met here.

Thu 6 Clear and cold.

Fri 7 Quite cold and clear.

Sat 8 A clear cold day. Geo Maude and baby Boone spend theday with us.

Sun 9 Cold with north wind. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. I am not yet able to get to church.

Mon 10 A beautiful bright day but very cold.

Tue 11 AM; a light snow. PM; 5 inches snow fell.

Wed 12 A beautiful bright day.

Thu 13 Clear and cold.

Fri 14 AM; cloudy. PM; still cloudy.

Sat 15 Sunshine and clouds.

Sun 16 A very light snow all day. PM; service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Solomon 103:11.

Mon 17 Still snowing all day.

Tue 18 Cloudy and cold.

Wed 19 AM; cold and windy. PM; pleasant.

Thu 20 A lovely day.

Fri 21 A very pleasant day. Dr Curtis made a professional call this p.m. and left medicine for Lizzie and FJ Blanchard of Forest City. Very sick with pneumonia.

Sat 22 Commences to snow about 9 0'clock and continues all day. About5 inches fell.

Sun 23 Heavy and stormy like. PM; snow. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. I am not able to get to church yet.

Mon 24 Cloudy.

Tue 25 A lovely day.

Wed 26 A perfect day.

Thu 27 Cloudy.

Fri 28 Cloudy with snow squalls.

Mar 1 AM; cloudy and warm. PM; soft snow.

Sun 2 Dark and dreary. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Snow squalls near night.

Mon 3 Clouds and sunshine.

Tue 4 A beautiful day.

Wed 5 A light snow. PM; clouds.

Thu 6 Cloudy with snow squalls.

Fri 7 Some cloudy all day. Quite a snow storm all day.

Sat 8 Clear and cold.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 9 AM; cloudy. PM; light snow till in the night. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald discourse from the 53rd psalm. Mr Augustus Welsh died this p.m. at J L Foster's at 4:30.

Mon 10 AM; fine and not too cold.

Tue 11 Cloudy and warm.

Wed 12 A lovely spring day. Mr A Welsh buried today. Service at 12 o'clock in the church conducted bby Rev McDonald.

Thu 13 A fine spring [day] HH and I take dinner at Chas Veysey's.

Fri 14 AM; rain. PM; rain.

Sat 15 Very dark and cloudy. Warm as spring.

Sun 16 Rain thro the night. Very dark and cloudy this morning. PM; drizzly. Service in the church conducted by Rev C McDonald assisted by Rev Whittier.

Mon 17 A bright day with NW winds.

Tue 18 Fine and windy. PM; a little hazy.

Wed 19 A lovely spring day. Snow mostly off the fields.

Thu 20 Cloudy. Rain near night and in evening.

Fri 21 A beautiful bright day. Rain at night.

Sat 22 Bright and cooler. Snow all gone from fields.

Sun 23 A beautiful Easter Sunday. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. An able Easter discourse from 1 Cor 15:20.

Mon 24 Early a little snow but soon turns to rain and rains till near night, then stops for a little while and the sun shoes out but soon clouds down again. Hartley Buckingham and family moved away from here.

Tue 25 A days contiuous rain.

Wed 26 A very little rain and hail in early morning. The rest of the day, snow.

Thu 27 Rain and hail in the morning. Rain till night.

Fri 28 A clear cold day. Roads in very bad state.

Sat 29 A beautiful spring day.

Sun 30 Cloudy and soft. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald text Mark 3:29.

Mon 31 A light rain in morning, soon stops and is cloudy till evening, then rains heavy.

Apr 1 Cloudy with a cold wind.

Wed 2 Bright and rather cold. High NW wind.

Thu 3 A beautiful bright day with cold wind.

Fri 4 Light snow squalls. Hail at night.

Sat 5 Drizzling snow all day.

Sun 6 Snow again today. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text from St John 6:48.

Mon 7 Still dark and dreary. About 2 or 3 inches of snow on the ground.

Tue 8 A beautiful bright cold day till 2 o'clock then comes snow squalls.

Wed 9 A beautiful sunshiny morning and keeps fine all day.

Thu 10 A fine spring day.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

- Fri 11 Bright in themorning. PM; rain.
- Sat 12 AM; rain. PM; clouds and sunshine.
- Sun 13 Cloudy all day. In the evening, rain. Sercice in the church in the p.m. conducted by Rev McDonald. I got out to service today but the road is terrible bad.
- Mon 14 Cloudy but warm and spring-like. PM; sunshine.
- Tue 15 A beautiful spring day.
- Wed 16 AM; fine. PM; cloudy. Very bad road. In the evening a prayer meeting after which was church business conducted by Rev McDonald. I being unwell not able to attend.
- Thu 17 Clear with very high NW wind. Putman's sawmill at Danforth, Maine, was burned about 3 o'clock this morning.<sup>30</sup>
- Fri 18 Clear with high chilly wind.
- Sat 19 AM; rain. Stops about 10 o'clock and is cloudytill 4:30 then a very heavy thunder shower and in the evening a snow squall.
- Sun 20 The ground is frozen and white with snow. Still squally. PM; sunshine and snow squalls. No preaching service in the church today.
- Mon 21 Clear and cold all day.
- Tue 22 A beautiful spring day.
- Wed 2e AM; clear. PM; cloudy. I attend circle at Mrs Geo McMinn's.
- Thu 24 A lovely warm day. I visit Mrs A Boone.
- Fri 25 Fine growing weather. Roads getting better. I plant my dahlia roots and some flower seeds.
- Sat 26 A lovely morning and continues all day.
- Sun 27 A fine warm day. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, text Rom 1:16. Ice is broken up in the lake.
- Mon 28 AM; fine. PM; clouds up. Ice all gone.
- Tue 29 A rainy day.
- Wed 30 Cloudy and cold. A high north wind.
- May 1 Clear and cold. Roads still in bad condition.
- Fri 2 A fine day. Called on Mrs P Lutz.
- Sat 3 Clear, wind cold. Harry V and Annie B go to Forest City.
- Sun 4 Still fine weather. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald, text John 3:16.
- Mon 5 Fine. Boys shingling roof of house.
- Tue 6 A fine cold day. Harry plowing.
- Wed 7 Fine and cold. HH gets a fresh togue from W Buck[ingham].
- Thu 8 A cold morning. I go with HH and take dinner at CV.
- Fri 9 A cold rain all day. Thunder and lightning in evening.
- Sat 10 Cloudy and cold, light snow squalls.

---

<sup>30</sup>Henry Putnam, a business tycoon. See Danforth, Maine, Echoes of the Past, Edited by Lorraine Springer.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Sun 11 A cold raw day. No service in church. Mon 12 Cloudy and a little warmer. Tue 13 Grows warmer. Wed 14 AM; rain. PM; showery. Thu 15 A bright cold day. Froze hard last night. Fri 16 A little warmer today. Froze very hard last night. Sat 17 A fine cold morning. Warmer in the afternoon. Sun 18 AM; dark and dreary. A little rain toward night. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Text Acts 10:5-6. Mon 19 AM; cloudy. PM; showers of rain, hail and a little thunder. Tue 20 Cloudy with a cold wind. I go with HH to Fosterville for a visit to the children out there. While gone, a roll call of the church membership on Thursday evening, the 22nd, Rev McDonald in attendance and on Sunday 25th he held service in the church. I was not present at either service but attended SS at Fosterville and was much pleased with the interest taken by both scholars and teachers. The 28th and 29th were two days of heavy rain and the 30th showery. After a very pleasant, I returned home on Fri 30 showery and unpleasant. Sat 31 Cloudy and warmer. Jun 1 Cold and cloudy with SW wind. Service in church conducted by Rev McDonald. Mon 2 AM; a very heavy shower of wind and rain. PM; clears off cold for season.	Tue 3 F [ no further entry for this date ] Wed 4 Fine. PM; clouds up. Quilted circle quilted in church. Thu 5 A pleasant day. Stanley W McLaughlin leaves for home. Fri 6 AM; pleasant. I call on Mrs A Boone who hurt herself badly. PM; clouds and high wind. HH plants first potatoes. Sat 7 AM; rain. PM; clears off cool. Sun 8 AM; a high cold NW wind. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. A beautiful sermon on the userage of children. Mon 9 Clear but cold. Tue 10 Fine and warmer. Evening services in the church conducted by Rev Barton Neils and Rev C McDonald. Text John 6:37. Wed 11 A high wind but not very cold. Thu 12 A cold morning with very high wind. PM; very high wind but warmer. Fri 13 Still cold and fair. Sat 14 A pleasant morning. I go with HH for a visit and after spending two weeks very pleasantly only for the illness of my daughter, Maud, I return on Sat 28 Pleasant but cold day with a high wind. Sun 29 Still quite cold. Service in the church conducted by Rev McDonald. Mon 30 A beautiful bright morning but soon clouds up and rains near night. Jul 1 AM; rain. PM; very hot. Picnic at Fosterville. HH and HA go to Fredericton.
--	---

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

A son born to each, Mrs Wm Boone and Mrs HB Boone.<sup>31</sup>

Wed 2 A beautiful summer day.

Thu 3 Fine. I do my washing today.

Fri 4 AM; lovely weather. Am sick. I have been from home and sick so I have left no account till Sat 12 A beautiful day. Picnic at the church which we realize $55.61 for church fund.

Sun 13 Variable service in church conducted by Rev Mr Young who served in Rev McDonald's place who left for a rest after last Sabbath's service.

Mon 14 Dark and dreary.

Tue 15 Dark and some light showers.

Wed 16 A very pleasant day.

Thu 17 AM; clear. PM; showery.

Fri 18 Foggy till 9 o'clock then a light rain till noon when it comes heavier and continues till night.

Sat 19 AM; cloudy, clears at noon and is bright for a while but is showery again in the afternoon with thunder.

Sun 20 AM; clear. PM; thunder showers. Dr Murdock from Canterbury Station is called to see Albert Veysey who is sick.

Mon 21 AM; pleasant. PM; very heavy thunder shower. Wm Buckingham's had a barn burn by the lightning.

Tue 22 A beautiful warm day.

Wed 23 Fine day. Some are commencing to hay.

Thu 24 Dull and cloudy.

Fri 25 AM; cloudy. PM; showery.

Sat 26 cool and brigher than it has been. HH commenced haying today. Den Foster took Elias to Danforth to the Dr.

Sun 27 Fine and warm. SS and prayer service in the church in the p.m.

Mon 28 Dark and lowery with again showers in the afternoon.

Tue 29 Muggy and warm. Stella and I make Mrs A Boone a visit. Poor hay weather.

Wed 30 A fine hay day.

Thu 31 A very fine cool day.

Aug 1 A cool south wind and sunshine. Clouds up in the afternoon with light shower.

Sat 2 AM; rain. PM; breaks away later.

Sun 3 A very fine day. Service in the church conducted by Rev Thomas McDonald.

Mon 4 AM; rain. PM; more rain.

Tue 5 Clear and cool. Mrs LJ Boone spent the afternoon with us.

Wed 6 A good hay day till near night then a thunder shower.

Thu 7 Cool wind but soon gets warm and pleasant.

Fri 8 A fine hay day. Rev T McDonald stayed with us last night.

Sat 9 AM; cloudy. PM; showery.

Sun 10 A fine day. Service in the church conducted by Rev Thos McDonald.

---

<sup>31</sup>Fred and John, respectively.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Mon 11 A very cold day for the season.

Tue 12 Pleasant. Got in the last load of hay.

Wed 13 Hazy. PM; cloudy.

Thu 14 A beautiful bright day.

Fri 15 Clear and fine.

Sat 16 A fine hay day.

Sun 17 Excessively hot. No service in the church but Sunday school.

Mon 18 Pleasant and not so hot.

Tue 19 A cold north wind. HH fixing the kitchen.

Wed 20 No so cold. S circle at Mrs A Peck's.

Thu 21 A beautiful day. Mr A Boone was thrown from his wagon and hurt while coming from Forest City with the mail.<sup>32</sup>

Fri 22 A fine day. Walter Colson's building burned. Most of the contents saved.

Sat 23 A day's steady rain, much needed for everything was terribly dry.

Sun 24 A fine cool day. No service but SS.

Mon 25 A fine cold day.

Tue 26 AM; clear. Frost in places last night. PM; rain.

Wed 27 Very dark and cloudy. Boys laying kitchen floor.

Thu 28 A fine day.

---

<sup>32</sup>Alex would be 86 years old at this time.

Fri 29 Bright in morning soon clouds and about noon rains a little.

Sat 30 A heavy thunder shower in early morning. AM; cloudy. PM; clears off.

Sun 31 A beautiful bright day. No service in church but SS.

Sep 1 A fine warm day.

Tue 2 Very hot. Parish elections for county councillors. Elected A Wetmore and G Maxan.

Wed 3 Clear and warm till evening then showers.

Thu 4 Quite cool.

Fri 5 Hazy and cool. Wm Gaskin taken to Bangor hospital for operation for appendicitis. PM; warm and pleasant.

Sat 6 Bright and pleasant. Getting in the crips.

Sun 7 Pleasant.

Mon 8 Light thunder showers in morning. PM; showery. George Boone and Maud with Mrs Fanny Christ spend the day with us.

Tue 9 Clear and cold for time of year.

Wed 10 A very cold wind.

Here the journal ends, except for one last entry by one of Elizabeth's children, likely HH with whom she made her home.

Mother died on Oct 1st at 6 a.m. Was buried Saturday, 4th. Funeral at 1 p.m. Services conducted by the Rev Charles McDonald. His text was Job Chap 30, verse 23: For I know that thou wilt bring me to death and to the house appointed for all living.

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

INDEX

A

A Boone hurt ..... 164
A son born to each, Mrs Wm Boone and Mrs HB Boone. .... 162
Addie Gould
    married ..... 36
Albert Robinson died..... 100
Alfred Vantassel's baby..... 87
Alfred Veysey and Hattie Boone married
..... 110
Allen Markey drowned ..... 60
Alma Cropley
    married ..... 36
Alpha Comet..... 111
Amanda Clare's little girl died..... 48
Amanda Clare's little Howard
    buried ..... 7
Amanda Clare died ..... 33
Amber Smith's baby girl born ..... 105

B

baptism for 8 candidates ..... 149
Baptism for five candidates ..... 103
Berl Crone died ..... 66

C

Carrie Boone died..... 2
Carrie Hayse died ..... 92
Cathedral in Fredericton, lightning 132
CF Boone and Pearl Taylor married. 81
Charles Foster..... 45
Charles Graham and Lewellyn Kinney, drowned..... 148
Charles Veysey
    moved to Fosterville..... 9
Chas F. Boone as teacher..... 78
Chas. Veysey's
    camp burned ..... 22
church building finish building ..... 7
church organ ..... 49
Clare's baby Annie ..... 5
Clarence Graham
    married ..... 36
Cora Foster and Nina Kinney baptized 121

D

D Wood died..... 60
Daughter born to Mary Veysey..... 92
David Cropley died..... 156
diphtheria scare..... 41
Dominion election ..... 41
Dora Veysey and Fred Wood married 21

E

E Buckingham died..... 70
earthquake..... 33
Edgar Cropley's barn hit by lightning 62
Edgar Cropley's house, l'ning ..... 117
Effie Vantassel..... 97
Elias Gould died ..... 121
Elizabeth Farrell died..... 128
Elmer Lutz ..... 125

F

F. Pray teaches ..... 52
F.O. Foster's store
    burned ..... 55
First telephone pole planted..... 101
Forest fires raging ..... 22
Fred McMullin
    married ..... 36

G

Geo Boone
    hurt ..... 49
Geo Boone $100 ..... 71
George Foster died..... 71
George Inch
    Store burned, Forest City ..... 10
George Vantassel
    House burned ..... 58
Gladys Rollins died..... 6

H

Harleigh Welch and Cora Foster were married ..... 132
Hartley Buckingham and family moved 158
Hazel Nina Boone buried..... 119
Henry Houghton drowned ..... 154
Henry Pray
    died..... 52
Henry Veysey's wife had a son..... 106
Henry Veysey and Mary M Cliff married
..... 82

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Hugh McMinn fell dead ..... 60

J

Jan 1, 1903..... 17
Jan 1, 1904..... 31
Jan 1, 1905..... 43
Jan 1, 1906..... 56
Jan 1, 1907..... 68
Jan 1, 1908..... 82
Jan 1, 1909..... 94
Jan 1, 1910..... 110
Jan 1, 1912..... 140
Jan 1, 1913..... 155
John Scott drowned ..... 154
Josh Fish's little boy died ..... 94
Joshua Fish's barn burned ..... 132

L

Leonora Boone very sick ..... 49
Local election ..... 84
Lydia Fish is dead ..... 86

M

Maud Boon had a daughter..... 37
May Wetmore ..... 62, 70, 72
Miss MW McConaghy, teacher ..... 117
Mr and Mrs Abram Collier
    20th anniversary ..... 77
Mr Chas. Harvey
    building burned ..... 22
Mr Kneeland buried..... 84
Mrs Alex Taylor has stroke ..... 114
Mrs C. Kneeland
    buried ..... 29
Mrs Chas Boone, daughter ..... 119
Mrs D Bartlett
    died..... 49
Mrs D Cropley died ..... 101
Mrs George Leeman ..... 92
Mrs Hugh McMinn died..... 77
Mrs J.L. Gould died..... 79
Mrs James Cropley died ..... 97
Mrs Millage Wood, daughter ..... 128
Mrs Oscar Wheaton buried..... 115
Mrs P. Lutz son born ..... 17
Mrs Prat McKinney died ..... 87
Mrs Walter Colson buried ..... 118
Mrs Welch died. .... 37
Mrs Wesley Vantassel died ..... 74
Mrs William McAlister death ..... 86

Myles Cropley died..... 133

N

Nellie Maxan
    died..... 36
Nina Foster and Frank Wood married148
Nina Wood had a young son..... 155

O

O Buckingham died ..... 88

P

Phoebe Buckingham
    married ..... 36
Putman's sawmill at Danforth, Maine, was burned ..... 159

R

Roy Kinney drowned ..... 117
Roy Veysey's little boy, Lawrence, died
    ..... 103
Roy Veysey died..... 104
Roy Veysey married ..... 8

S

S Collier's gasoline boat..... 130
sale of the mill ..... 79
Salome DeWitt died..... 95

Sherwood Foster of St. John--suicide128

T

Teacher, Miss Black ..... 30 teacher, Miss Fraser ..... 129 teacher, Mr Smith ..... 124
Thomas Wood's house burned ..... 100

V

Vernon Peck married Ruby Cox Cropley
    ..... 153
Veysey and Cropley
    Elected..... 53

W

W Wetmore, Mrs C Boone and Bernice Hall
    hurt ..... 119
Walter Colson
    married ..... 36
Wesley Buckingham's girl died ..... 102

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913

Wesley Cropley and May Hall married	101
Wesley Kinney died.....	95
Wesley Vantassel's baby died. ....	67
William H. Foster fell dead .....	80
Wm Boone's house burned.....	135
Wm Boone's little Johnnie died .....	20
Wm Buckingham's had a barn burn	162
Wm McAlister of Orient, Maine, died	100
Wm Patterson
building burned .....	22
Y
Young Moody drowned.....	81

Elizabeth Veysey's Diary
Oct 17, 1901 — Sep 10, 1913